Introduction

A Message from the President

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and The College at Southwestern comprise a remarkable community which includes a full service campus at Houston and extension centers at Plano, San Antonio, Marshall, College Station, Shawnee, Oklahoma, Little Rock, Arkansas, and Bonn, Germany, as well as work online. This community of godly scholars, future pastors, missionaries, and church workers is one of the most unique to be found anywhere. Built on a firmly evangelical orthodox foundation laid by its founders such as B.H. Carroll (1908-1914) and L.R. Scarborough (1915-1942), Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary has been deeply committed from its conception to the thorough investigation of the texts of the Bible in order to determine not only what ought to be believed but also what ought to be practiced. Here in Fort Worth, as in its various extensions, there is an earnest attempt to wed the very best in scholarship with a passionate zeal for the 6.5 billion people of the world, to provide all of those people with freedom of religion and the opportunity as a part of that to be introduced to Jesus Christ, who we believe alone can save men from their sins.

To become a part of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary family is to determine that one will give himself for a period of time to the most intense examination of the very best thought of the sharpest and most progressive thinkers, while at the very same time nurturing the heart in a faithful and life changing walk with the Savior. Furthermore, to be a part of the Southwestern family is to embrace the missionary and evangelistic task of taking the message of Christ to even the most difficult places on the face of the earth.

To come to Southwestern Seminary is a decision to study with genuine men and women of God who are devoted not only to the Lordship of Christ, the inerrancy and infallibility of God's Word, the future of the biblical family, but also to the ministry of the local church as God's chosen way of doing His work in the world. These are professors who have not merely studied about movements and perspectives but have actually been a part of the applied experience of all of these in the local churches and in the lives of individual Christians.

As President of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, it is my great joy to extend an invitation to come and visit with us at anytime. You will find one of the warmest and friendliest campuses that you could possibly imagine, and you will find the Spirit of God at work on this campus in a most remarkable way. Only the Spirit of God can tutor your heart in knowing exactly where you should study, but I believe with all of my heart that I can promise that you will never forget even just a visit to Southwestern Seminary. We urge you to come if possible on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday when we are having chapel so that you can be a part of the community at worship and see the amazing things that God is doing in our midst firsthand.

So, welcome to Southwestern. Welcome to an adventure that has no boundaries. Welcome to a virtual army of men and women who venture to the ends of the earth not to take life but to give life on every hand. See you soon at Southwestern.

Until He Comes,

Purpose

The primary purpose of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is to provide theological education for individuals engaging in Christian ministry.

Vision Statement

A community of faith and learning that develops spiritual leaders with a passion for Christ and the Bible, a love for people, and skills to minister effectively in a rapidly changing world.

Core Values

Christ Centered

We affirm the ancient proclamation, "Christ is Lord." We seek to honor Him in everything we do.

Biblical Base

We are dedicated to a biblically-based education that enables students to integrate faith and practice. We treasure the Bible as the inerrant Word of God and are devoted to correctly handling the word of truth.

Global Strategy

We covenant to train spiritual leaders who will share the gospel of Jesus Christ with all the world. Evangelism and missions are the heartbeat of our Seminary. Our strategy includes the training of persons from every national, ethnic, and cultural background for a variety of ministries.

Church Supportive

We value the church as God's primary strategy for reaching the world. Our goal is to help churches become all that God intends them to be. We expect students, faculty, and staff to be active participants in the life of the local church. We want our students to appreciate the life and heritage of our denomination.

Godly Character

We believe the basis of true leadership is character. We are consecrated to a life of spiritual growth and moral integrity. Christian values such as obedience, faithfulness, perseverance, service, and humility are shared and modeled by faculty, staff, and students.

Loving Relationships

We believe relationships are essential for spiritual growth and effective ministry. We are committed to a community of faith in which mutually supportive relationships exist among students and faculty. We desire to model servant leadership that communicates love and compassion to all people.

Professional Excellence

God's call to ministry is worthy of our best. We are dedicated to excellence in teaching, research, and writing. We seek to provide the environment as well as the encouragement to enable students to discover and utilize their spiritual gifts. We expect students to perform with excellence in their studies and fields of ministry. We want our students to be known for personal discipline and innovation in ministering to a changing world.

Lifelong Learning

We believe ministerial training is a lifelong process. We commit to provide learning experiences for ministers to update their skills.
Philosophy

Theological education must provide today an unprecedented breadth and depth of learning if Christian men and women are to be equipped to minister effectively in a radically changing world. The spheres of Christian ministry include local congregations, schools, hospitals, denominational offices, military chapels, community centers, remote mission stations, ghettos, industries, prisons, indeed every church and secular context.

Ministry is expanding into numerous new countries, cultures, and languages, as well as to international groups within the United States. Ministry involves the roles of pastor, preacher, evangelist, missionary, counselor, chaplain, minister of education, music minister, youth minister, business administration, and numerous combinations of these and other ministries. In addition to graduate professional education, there are renewed needs for bivocational and lay training.

Theological education at Southwestern Seminary is based on a vital commitment to the Bible as the inerrant Word of God, to the Baptist Faith and Message 2000, and to openness to sound, new techniques and technologies that enhance the teaching/learning process. The faculty of Southwestern Seminary is equipped by formal training and experience to offer theological education in numerous disciplines from undergraduate to doctoral and post doctoral study. Southwestern Seminary provides a depth of study rarely equaled. The personnel, physical, and financial resources at Southwestern allow students and their families to live and study in a Christian and academic environment that fosters intellectual growth, spiritual maturity, and practical application in ministry.
Statement of Faith

Preamble

The 1999 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, adopted the following motion addressed to the President of the Convention.

"I move that in your capacity as Southern Baptist Convention chairman, you appoint a blue ribbon committee to review the Baptist Faith and Message statement with the responsibility to report and bring any recommendations to this meeting next June in Orlando."

President Paige Patterson appointed the committee as follows: Max Barnett (OK), Steve Gaines (AL), Susie Hawkins (TX), Rudy A. Hernandez (TX), Charles S. Kelley, Jr. (LA), Heather King (IN), Richard D. Land (TN), Fred Luter (LA), R. Albert Mohler, Jr. (KY), T C. Pinckney (VA), Nelson Price (GA), Adrian Rogers (TN), Roger Spradlin (CA), Simon Tsoi (AZ), Jerry Vines (FL). Adrian Rogers (TN) was appointed chairman. This committee returned the following report:

Your committee thus constituted begs leave to present its report as follows: Baptists are a people of deep beliefs and cherished doctrines. Throughout our history we have been a confessional people, adopting statements of faith as a witness to our beliefs and a pledge of our faithfulness to the doctrines revealed in Holy Scripture.

Our confessions of faith are rooted in historical precedent, as the church in every age has been called upon to define and defend its beliefs. Each generation of Christians bears the responsibility of guarding the treasury of truth that has been entrusted to us [II Timothy 1:14]. Facing a new century, Southern Baptists must meet the demands and duties of the present hour.

New challenges to faith appear in every age. A pervasive anti-supernaturalism in the culture was answered by Southern Baptists in 1925, when the Baptist Faith and Message was first adopted by this Convention. In 1963, Southern Baptists responded to assaults upon the authority and truthfulness of the Bible by adopting revisions to the Baptist Faith and Message. The Convention added an article on "The Family" in 1998, thus answering cultural confusion with the clear teachings of Scripture. Now, faced with a culture hostile to the very notion of truth, this generation of Baptists must claim anew the eternal truths of the Christian faith.

Your committee respects and celebrates the heritage of the Baptist Faith and Message, and affirms the decision of the Convention in 1925 to adopt the New Hampshire Confession of Faith, "revised at certain points and with some additional articles growing out of certain needs . . . ." We also respect the important contributions of the 1925 and 1963 editions of the Baptist Faith and Message.

With the 1963 committee, we have been guided in our work by the 1925 "statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life . . . ." It is, therefore, quoted in full as a part of this report to the Convention:

1. That they constitute a consensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or small, for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simple conditions of salvation revealed in the New Testament, viz., repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.
2. That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any quality of finality or infallibility. As in the past so in the future, Baptists should hold themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and expedient at any time.
3. That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up for themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may think it advisable to do so.
4. That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having no authority over the conscience.
5. That they are statements of religious convictions, drawn from the Scriptures, and are not to be used to hamper freedom of thought or investigation in other realms of life.

Baptists cherish and defend religious liberty, and deny the right of any secular or religious authority to impose a confession of faith upon a church or body of churches. We honor the principles of soul competency and the priesthood of believers, affirming together both our liberty in Christ and our accountability to each other under the Word of God.

Baptist churches, associations, and general bodies have adopted confessions of faith as a witness to the world, and as instruments of doctrinal accountability. We are not embarrassed to state before the world that these are doctrines we hold precious and as essential to the Baptist tradition of faith and practice.
As a committee, we have been charged to address the "certain needs" of our own generation. In an age increasingly hostile to Christian truth, our challenge is to express the truth as revealed in Scripture, and to bear witness to Jesus Christ, who is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

The 1963 committee rightly sought to identify and affirm "certain definite doctrines that Baptists believe, cherish, and with which they have been and are now closely identified." Our living faith is established upon eternal truths.

"Thus this generation of Southern Baptists is in historic succession of intent and purpose as it endeavors to state for its time and theological climate those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us."

It is the purpose of this statement of faith and message to set forth certain teachings which we believe.

I. The Scriptures

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. Therefore, all Scripture is totally true and trustworthy. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. All Scripture is a testimony to Christ, who is Himself the focus of divine revelation.

II. God

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. God is all powerful and all knowing; and His perfect knowledge extends to all things, past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal triune God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father. God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purpose of His grace. He is all powerful, all knowing, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son. Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself human nature with its demands and necessities and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His substitutionary death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, fully God, fully man, in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, fully divine. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts men of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. At the moment of regeneration He baptizes every believer into the Body of Christ. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the guarantee that God will bring the believer into the fullness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. Man

Man is the special creation of God, made in His own image. He created them male and female as the crowning work of His creation. The gift of gender is thus part of the goodness of God's creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin. Therefore, as soon as they are capable of moral action, they become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.
IV. Salvation

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour.

B. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer unto a relationship of peace and favor with God.

C. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual maturity through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

D. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

V. God's Purpose of Grace

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is the glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility. All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, and bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves; yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

VI. The Church

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the two ordinances of Christ, governed by His laws, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. Each congregation operates under the Lordship of Christ through democratic processes. In such a congregation each member is responsible and accountable to Christ as Lord. Its scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages, believers from every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

VII. Baptism and the Lord's Supper

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

VIII. The Lord's Day

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.
IX. The Kingdom

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

X. Last Things

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

XI. Evangelism and Missions

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ has commanded the preaching of the gospel to all nations. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by verbal witness undergirded by a Christian lifestyle, and by other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

XII. Education

Christianity is the faith of enlightenment and intelligence. In Jesus Christ abide all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All sound learning is, therefore a part of our Christian heritage. The new birth opens all human faculties and creates a thirst for knowledge. Moreover, the cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian education is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

XIII. Stewardship

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means, cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

XIV. Cooperation

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

XV. The Christian and the Social Order

All Christians are under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in our own lives and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Christ, Christians should oppose racism, every form of greed, selfishness, and vice, and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, homosexuality, and pornography. We should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should speak on behalf of the unborn and contend for the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

XVI. Peace and War

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love. Christian people throughout the world should pray for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

XVII. Religious Liberty

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

XVIII. The Family

God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. It is composed of persons related to one another by marriage, blood, or adoption. Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church, and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race.

The husband and wife are of equal worth before God, since both are created in God's image. The marriage relationship models the way God relates to His people. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. He has the God-given responsibility to provide for, to protect, and to lead his family. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ. She, being in the image of God as is her husband and thus equal to him, has the God-given responsibility to respect her husband and to serve as his helper in managing the household and nurturing the next generation.

Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from the Lord. Parents are to demonstrate to their children God's pattern for marriage. Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on biblical truth. Children are to honor and obey their parents.
The Southwestern Declaration on Academic and Theological Integrity

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary has provided theological education for tens of thousands of persons seeking to follow Jesus in lives of ministry. Over 62,000 students later and nearly a century after our founding, it is eminently appropriate that we articulate our theological and educational commitments for the generations now before us. We have a clear mission strengthened by our guiding priorities and principles.

Our educational mission is to serve Jesus Christ our Lord who has given us the ministry of teaching in his commission to disciple the nations. As the living word of God, he, by the Holy Spirit, has given us the written word of God, the inerrant Scriptures that we should preach, teach, and proclaim in accordance with all that is written therein.

We recognize Jesus Christ as himself the truth of God, even as he taught that he is the way, the truth, and the life. And we recognize the Scriptures breathed out by God who does not lie, as true and inerrant even as the Lord himself taught when he identified the Scriptures as the word of God which he proclaimed as truth.

Faithfulness to Jesus Christ demands that we pursue the knowledge of truth as a knowledge of him found in the knowledge of his word. The study of God's word, the Scriptures, therefore is central and primary in the academic mission of the Seminary. Our goal is a faithful understanding of Scripture and an application of its teachings in all aspects of life especially as that has to do with the growth of our faith and the purpose and practice of the ministry entrusted to us by Jesus Christ.

We share this goal with a convention of believers who support our work. Our agreement in this ministry is expressed by a common voluntary confession of the Lordship of Christ, the living word of God, and the centrality of Scripture, the written word of God. The statement of our confession is the Baptist Faith and Message. We freely express a common faith as a convention of believers and join to support the enriching of this faith through further study of the content and application of Scripture and the extension of this faith through the ministry of discipling and teaching the nations.

We heartily affirm the Baptist Faith and Message 2000 as a statement of shared faith with the messengers of the Convention June 2000, are pleased to be accountable to the ongoing Southern Baptist Convention, and are grateful for the Convention's support of our academic mission. We affirm the Baptist Faith and Message 2000 because we believe it expresses a faithful and foundational interpretation of God's word which we seek to promote and extend in faithfulness to the calling of Jesus Christ.

We are firm and resolute about our Christian and denominational distinctions. These distinctions harmonize with the great and fundamental convictions of the church throughout the ages. We are Southern Baptists standing within the evangelical tradition of orthodox Christianity. It is incumbent upon us to carry out our mission with confessional integrity. In doing so, we join hearts, heads, and hands with other believers in obedience to Christ and fulfillment of his mission. We stand together then in:

- Affirming biblical authority
- Maintaining the highest of academic standards
- Living out the commitment to global evangelization and missions
- Stressing the preeminence of biblical exposition for all ministry
- Nurturing pastoral hearts to lead God's people in effective service
- Building a community of worship, faith and learning

To underscore our commitments and priorities, we make the following affirmations and denials pertaining specifically to how we understand our mandate from the Lord and our common denominational confession.

We affirm the necessity of aligning ourselves with the enduring beliefs of Christian orthodoxy, the faith once and for all delivered to the church.
We deny that distinctly Christian theological education and spiritual formation take place outside of such an alliance.

We affirm that the Bible is the inerrant, trustworthy, and sufficient authority in all that it affirms.
We affirm that the Bible is the supreme starting point in the pursuit of all wisdom and knowledge.
We deny that this theological confession forecloses on appropriate intellectual and theological inquiry.
We deny that Bible-based education results in intellectually inferior learning.

We affirm the authority of God's word, written as Scripture and incarnate as Jesus Christ.
We deny a difference between the authority of Scripture and Jesus Christ and we reject any attempt to set in opposition Christ, the living word, and the Bible, the written word.
We affirm that the ultimate subject of theological education is knowing God by submitting to his revelation, the Scriptures, by faith which demands the most careful scrutiny.
We deny the unbridled modern confidence in reason or experience apart from or in place of divine revelation.

We affirm that the Bible is the word of God and speaks with relevance and authority to every generation and culture.
We deny that the Bible's message is muted or irrelevant for contemporary culture.

We affirm that the goal of theological education is to live Christianly.
We deny that sound theology can be divorced from healthy Christian living.

We affirm that theological education is best pursued within the community of faith where worship, encouragement, and accountability are regular practices.
We affirm the Spirit giftedness and significance of everyone within the community of faith. All Christians have a ministry given by Christ which should be exercised.
We deny that individualism is conducive to sound theological education or Christian living.

We affirm that the Lord has appointed the pastoral office to men, and we affirm that the Lord has appointed many ministry positions to women.
We deny that the biblical limitations of the pastoral office to men were culturally limited and that role distinctions are no longer valid.

We affirm that the pastor is called to shepherd the local church entrusted to him by God.
We deny that pastoral authority should be exercised in an autocratic manner.

Unlike a university, as a theological seminary, we engage in a specific educational focus, namely theological education. The Lord has called us to the ministry of teaching. Our convention has joined together to support this teaching in preparation for ministerial service in the churches and on mission fields at home and abroad. All of our educational concerns, programs, and pursuits in some way or another revolve around this foundational purpose.

Our mandate is set. Our confessional framework has been articulated. Academic and theological integrity demands that we be faithful stewards of our task.

We pledge to maintain a teaching faculty who carry forward this mission with academic and theological integrity.

We pledge to equip Christian leaders to evangelize the lost world and disciple the nations in faith and the knowledge of Jesus Christ.

We pledge to practice biblical exposition as the primary means of communicating the word of God in preaching, education, counseling, and discipling in every way.

We pledge to serve local churches in all facets of personal and academic life and ministry.

May God grant us his grace and wisdom and the moral courage to be faithful to him by obeying his word.
Ownership And Objectives

Southwestern Seminary is a corporation whose sole member is the Southern Baptist Convention. It is administered by a 40 member Board of Trustees elected by the convention and serving staggered terms of office. The seminary seeks to affirm the intention of its founders and the obligations assigned by the convention to provide education for students who give evidence of a divine call to Christian ministry. The seminary is guided by and subject to the Baptist Faith and Message as adopted and amended by the Southern Baptist Convention. A copy of the Baptist Faith and Message 2000 is included in this catalog.

Trustees elect faculty members and administrative officers. Financial support is derived from the convention's Cooperative Program, endowment earnings, gifts, and student fees. A faculty qualified by recognized academic degrees and practical experience is part of Southwestern's tradition of educational and Christian excellence. A sabbatical leave program provides regular opportunity for each faculty member to participate in research, formal study, lectureships, and writing projects.

Students prepare for diverse ministries in churches, denominational agencies, and institutions. The curriculum is designed to correlate classical disciplines of biblical, historical, and theological studies with relevant skills and contemporary methods of Christian leadership.

Qualified students of all Christian denominations, nationalities, and races are eligible for admittance to the Seminary, with the primary emphasis on Southern Baptist students. The seminary seeks to maintain and cultivate broad academic, cultural, and community relationships.

Accreditation

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award diploma, bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. The seminary is also accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15275-1103, Telephone: 412-788-6505). Comprehensive information on Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary's ATS designations can be accessed through the ATS list of member schools. The School of Church Music is an accredited member institution of the National Association of Schools of Music. The Naylor Children's Center is accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

The Seminary's Heritage

The vision to provide trained ministers of the Gospel for America's western frontiers was held by B. H. Carroll for many years. His dream saw its fruition in the establishment of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary almost 100 years ago.

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary was an outgrowth of the theological department, which had been established in 1901 at Baylor University, Waco, Texas. In 1905, the department became Baylor Theological Seminary with five professors on the teaching staff.

The Baptist General Convention of Texas authorized the separation of the seminary from Baylor University in 1907. At that time the seminary was given a new name, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and a separate board of trustees.

The seminary was chartered on March 14, 1908, and functioned on the Waco campus until the summer of 1910. Several Texas cities made strong bids for the new institution. The seminary accepted the offer made by Fort Worth citizens under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Winston. A campus site and enough funds to build the first building were provided. The first building was named Fort Worth Hall in honor of its new location. In 1925, control of the seminary passed from the Texas convention to the Southern Baptist Convention.

From the beginning, the major thrust of the seminary has been to provide theological training for "preachers of the Gospel." Today its graduates serve in numerous Christian ministries in local churches and the denomination as well as on mission fields around the world. From its inception Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary has sought to link research and academic achievement with expository preaching and a vigorous program of missions and evangelism.

In 1915, two departments were created to complement the School of Theology: the departments of religious education headed by J. M. Price, and gospel music headed by I. E. Reynolds. Six years later in 1921, these departments became full-fledged schools. The School of Gospel Music became the School of Sacred Music in 1926 and underwent another title change in 1957 when the present School of Church Music name was adopted. The School of Religious Education was renamed the School of Educational Ministries in 1997 and began using the name in August, 1998.
The early twenty-first century has witnessed a further expansion of the seminary’s educational program as three new schools have been established. In 2004, the Houston extension campus became a full degree granting site and was named the J. Dalton Havard School for Theological Studies. In 2005, the division of evangelism and missions in the School of Theology was reorganized as the Roy J. Fish School of Evangelism and Missions. Also, that same year, the trustees approved the founding of the seminary's first undergraduate institution, the College at Southwestern.

The seminary has had eight presidents. B. H. Carroll, the first president, served from the embryonic stages of the school until his death in November 1914.

L. R. Scarborough, elected president in February 1915, retired in 1942 and was followed by E. D. Head.

E. D. Head, who served until his retirement in 1953.

J. Howard Williams became president in August 1953 and served until his death in April 1958.

Robert E. Naylor became the fifth president on September 1, 1958. He retired July 31, 1978, and was named president emeritus until his death in February 1999.

Russell H. Dilday was elected sixth president of Southwestern Seminary by the board of trustees on November 22, 1977. He served as president from August 1978 until March 1994.

Kenneth S. Hemphill became the seventh president on July 28, 1994, by a vote of the board of trustees. He served as president from July 1994 until July 2003.

Current President, L. Paige Patterson was elected as the eighth president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary on June 24, 2003, by a vote of the board of trustees.

Campus Facilities

Main Campus, Fort Worth, Texas

The 200-acre main campus is located in Fort Worth, Texas, on the highest natural elevation in Tarrant County, known as Seminary Hill. It now includes 14 main buildings plus the Student Village, B. H. Carroll Park, Garrett Manor, E. D. Head Apartments, Seminary Drive Duplexes, other perimeter housing, the Norton Landscape Facility, and the James R. Leitch Physical Plant. The seminary is easily accessible from any point in the country by air travel, and may be reached by passenger vehicle via Interstate 20 and James Avenue or Interstate 35W and Seminary Drive.

B. H. Carroll Memorial Building

Located in the heart of the campus, a beautiful domed building with stately Ionic columns, the Memorial Building has become the hallmark of the seminary. Its three wings are connected with a central rotunda. The rotunda, under the dome, displays oil paintings of seminary presidents. B. H. Carroll was the founder and first president of the seminary.

Scarborough Hall houses administrative offices and the School of Theology classrooms and faculty offices. It also contains the Tom and Evelyn Linebery Preaching Center, which houses the Scott L. Tatum Preaching Chapel, the Herman Jared and Patsy Ruth Smith Preaching Chapel, and the Billy E. and Juanita Harrell Classroom. The wing is named for L. R. Scarborough, the second president of the seminary.

Truett Auditorium is named for George W. Truett who served for many years as chairman of the board of trustees and as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas, from 1897 to 1944. It is located in the south wing of the Memorial Building and seats 1097 people.

Fleming Hall houses additional administrative and faculty offices, the Recruiting and Retention Office, office of Admissions, Financial Aid, International Student Services, Media Services and classrooms. It is named for the late William Fleming of Fort Worth, a longtime seminary benefactor.
A. Webb Roberts Library

Located to the east of the Memorial Building, it houses the library collection of almost 500,000 volumes, an audio-visual and computer learning center and classroom, special collections and archives, the archaeological museum, and other research facilities. The staff provides a full range of services including personal and group library instruction, a writing lab, research assistance, interlibrary loan service, and help with access to major computer based information services including the Internet. A. Webb Roberts (1898-1984) was a Dallas layman and a Distinguished Life Member of the President's Club at Southwestern. See below for detailed information on Southwestern's libraries.

George E. Cowden Hall

The School of Church Music occupies Cowden Hall, which is located on the northeast corner of the campus. It is one of the most functional music buildings in the nation. Studios, offices, classrooms, rehearsal rooms, practice rooms, and recording studios are housed in this building. Two large organs, a four-manual Casavant and a three-manual Moeller, a three-manual Schantz studio organ, a Moeller “House Organ,” three electronic organs, a five octave set of Schulmerich handbells, and a two-manual Kingston harpsichord are provided for instruction and practice.

Ralph M. Smith Leadership Development Complex

The newest building on campus houses guest rooms and conference space. The Ray I. Riley Alumni Center provides 55 guest rooms for campus visitors and conference attendees. The J. W. “Jack” MacGorman Conference Center provides a fully operational conference facility as well as additional office space for the campus. The complex is named for Ralph M. Smith, who served for many years as pastor of Hyde Park Baptist Church, Austin, Texas.

Kathryn Sullivan Bowld Music Library

Donated by Kathryn Sullivan Bowld, this 30,000 square foot addition to Cowden Hall contains music, music books, music periodicals, audiotapes, videotapes, phonograph records, and compact discs. More than 250,000 scores of religious music and a Treasure Room of rare and scarce materials enhance the book collection. Specially trained staff offer assistance to School of Music faculty and students as well as to others who wish to use the music library. The facility also contains a piano repair room, 19 soundproof practice rooms, an electronic piano teaching facility, a conference room, a classroom, and a computer lab devoted to music technology.

J. M. Price Hall

Price Hall, located on the west side of the campus is named for the first dean of the School of Educational Ministries. It was designed to function as a model for teaching all phases of religious education, both academic and practical. This building also includes faculty offices and the Curriculum Center.

Robert E. Naylor Student Center

The student center houses the Dining Services offices, Residential Dining Room, Wild Bill's Southwestern Café, a refreshment area, and banquet rooms. Parlors, lounge, reception areas, post office, copy center, offices, and conference rooms are also located in this building. It has become the center for seminary community life. The center is named for the fifth president of the seminary.

Former Seminary Presidential Residence

Located at 4441 Stanley Avenue on the Fort Worth Campus, this residence houses the Roy J. Fish School of Evangelism and Missions offices and the World Missions Center.

Fort Worth Hall

The first building to be constructed on the Fort Worth campus in 1910 was named for the city of Fort Worth. Today it houses the administrative offices of the College at Southwestern and is used as a residence hall for men. Fort Worth Hall also contains guest rooms available by reservation.
Floy Barnard Hall

Named for a former dean of women, Barnard Hall is the residence hall for single women. Guest rooms are available by reservation.

J. Howard Williams Student Village

Located north of the main campus across Seminary Drive, the complex provides one-, two-, and some three-bedroom housing for 328 families. The project is named for the fourth president of the seminary.

B. H. Carroll Park Apartments

Named for the first president of the seminary, this 21-acre housing area has 184 units for families in duplexes, triplexes, and fourplexes. These apartments are located several blocks from the campus.

E. D. Head Apartments

Located seven blocks east of the main campus, the 54 units include both one- and two-bedroom apartments. The apartments are named for the third president of the seminary.

Garrett Manor Apartments

Located south of campus, the 70 unit complex contains one-, two-, and three-bedroom units. The complex is named for Jenkins Garrett who served on the seminary's Development Foundation from 1960-1996. Mr. Garrett is also a member of the Southwestern Advisory Council.

Walsh Counseling Center

This facility is named for the F. Howard Walsh family of Fort Worth. Walsh served as a seminary trustee from 1963-1976. The Walsh Counseling Center houses the Department of Psychology and Counseling for the School of Educational Ministries. Counseling expertise is available to the students of Southwestern Seminary and their families, the Fort Worth community, and the Metroplex.

Goldia and Robert Naylor Children's Center

The children's center is named for the fifth president of the seminary and his wife. Accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children, the center brings together a progressive teaching program to serve the preschool children of seminary students, faculty, and staff. When space is available, children from the community are welcomed. Seminary students receive on-the-job training in early childhood education through classroom and work experiences.

Myra K. and J. Roy Slover Recreation Aerobics Center

The center is designed to provide leisure time opportunities for recreation, physical fitness, and social interaction that contribute to the physical, mental, and spiritual well-being of seminary students, faculty, staff, their families and guests. The inclusion of recreational pursuits, either through physical fitness or other positive leisure experiences, contributes to a more balanced lifestyle and more effective Christian service.

The center also seeks to provide support for education and training in the field of church recreation. While the center is not intended to meet the same needs as that of a church recreation facility, elements of the design, programs, and facility administration may serve as examples that can effectively relate to ministry in the local church as well as other areas where recreation can serve as a tool for ministry.

The center is comprised of a gymnasium with an indoor track, four racquetball courts, snack area, locker rooms, a state of the art cardio vascular activity room, a strength training room, a classroom, and a multipurpose aquatics facility. Adjacent to the center are lighted tennis courts, an outdoor track, a sand volleyball court, and playing fields. The center is named for the Slovers, seminary benefactors from Liberty, Texas.

The Recreation Aerobics Center program offerings include: Physical Fitness and Personal Training, Children’s Summer Day Camp, Teen Nights, Kid’s Day Out, Aquatics (Swimming Lessons), Intramural Sports, Aerobics, Outdoor Recreation, and various family oriented special events.

Carl E. Norton Landscape Facility

This facility, located at 4716 Warren Avenue houses the landscape support activities for the main campus and student housing. The building is named for Carl E. Norton who began the campus beautification process in 1979.

James R. Leitch Physical Plant Facility

This facility houses the maintenance support activities for the main campus and student housing. In addition, campus support services, purchasing, central receiving, and the central stores warehouse are located in this facility at 2101 Yates Street. The building is named for James R. Leitch who served the seminary from 1954 to 1987 as Physical Plant Director.

Houston Campus

Southwestern Seminary has had a presence in the Houston area since 1975, but it was not until 2002 that the Seminary secured a permanent site for extension studies when Park Place Baptist Church deeded their facilities to the seminary. In October 2003, the trustees named the campus at Park Place the J. Dalton Havard Center in honor of the Houston-based evangelist.

Since 2002, Southwestern Seminary has renovated the Park Place facility to expand its usefulness as a center for theological education. The improvements to the facility include a beautifully designed foyer which serves as a place to welcome guests to the campus, updated classroom space, and new administrative offices.

The current facility also includes a library with over 4100 volumes, a student lounge where students can take a break between classes, and a 2400 seat sanctuary.

The Libraries

Southwestern's library system includes the A. Webb Roberts Library, the Kathryn Sullivan Bowld Music Library, the Counseling Center Collection, the World Mission Center Collection, and the library of the Havard School of Theological Studies in Houston. There are also small book collections at the off-campus sites in San Antonio and Little Rock. The staff of 12 librarians, 8 full-time support persons, and 68 part-time workers provide personalized service while developing an expanding collection. In August 2005, the materials in these collections numbered an estimated 1,195,107 items; the libraries' Acquisition and Cataloging Departments add approximately 20,000 items each year. The seminary libraries' catalog has been online since 1982. The current SIRSI Unicorn system enables the library staff to manage the collection efficiently and allows users around the world to search the libraries' holdings. The library augments its holdings with subscriptions to online books and journals.

A. Webb Roberts Library

The A. Webb Roberts Library, opened in 1982, supports the curricula of The College at Southwestern, the School of Theology and the School of Educational Ministries. Almost 60 percent of the books in the general collection relate to theology, church history, and vocational ministry. Other subjects include philosophy, psychology, world religions, archaeology, general history, and Christian art and literature.

The Reference Department staff in Roberts Library offer instruction and other assistance in the use of the library and its resources, including the library catalog and electronic databases. Each year they loan almost 6,000 items to other libraries and receive an equal number for Southwestern students and faculty. The reference librarians offer both credit and non-credit courses in library research.

The Serials Department currently receives 2,200 periodical titles supporting the seminary's curriculum along with a few general interest magazines and newspapers. Here, too, are kept Baptist state convention annuals, Baptist state newspapers, and the SBC annuals. Total periodical title holdings exceed 8,000. The library's extensive microform collection provides primary source materials, including early British Baptist publications, older materials from Yale Divinity School's Day Mission collection, and microprint copies of extant books published in the United States through 1800.

The Charles D. Tandy Archaeological Museum, located on the first floor of Roberts Library, displays exhibits about the archaeological history of Tel Batash in Israel (the biblical Timnah mentioned in Judges 14:1-5). Artifacts, maps, photographs, and models give insight to ancient life from the time of the Patriarchs to the Persian period. It is one of the few archaeological museums in the United States that highlights the results of a single excavation in Israel.

The library's second floor has book shelving for Bibles, commentaries, and other sources for biblical study. The variety of seating arrangements permits several students to use the area at one time.

The J. T. and Zelma Luther Archives houses the seminary archives, original copies of all theses and dissertations completed for advanced degrees, and Special Collections. Among these collections are the Rare Book Collection, the Geoffrey and Beryl Breed Collection (British Baptist history), the William R. Estep Collection (Reformation and Anabaptist studies), the Lonnie Quillen Collection (Christianity in Africa), and historical and missionary artifacts.

The Audio-Visual Learning Center contains more than 46,000 non-print media, including video tapes, spoken audio tapes, CDs, DVDs, kits, transparencies, filmstrips, slides, and games. Thirty-four individual carrels provide the equipment and space to view or hear this media.

The John and Cynthia Thomas Library Computer Learning Center, opened in 1997, provides students computers with high-speed Internet access, the latest Microsoft Office software, and assorted Bible study assisted programs. Most students use the center to complete course related assignments. The center is also used to teach different levels of computer and information literacy.

The John and Vida Cooper Faculty-Doctoral Study Area provides privacy and security for those engaged in sustained research. One hundred forty study carrels are available to doctoral students and others; faculty use one of the twenty-two study rooms.

The third level of A. Webb Roberts Library contains nine miles of shelving with space for more than one hundred thousand added volumes.

Kathryn Sullivan Bowld Music Library

The Kathryn Sullivan Bowld Music Library is located in a three-level building annexed to the southeast side of Cowden Hall. It contains a carefully chosen, well-rounded collection of books, scores and octavos, as well as audio and video recordings. The collection emphasizes church music but contains a large selection of works from the great masters of the past to modern avant-garde and contemporary compositions. Among its resources are the complete works of major composers, scholarly anthologies, church music collections, and worship books. Approximately 400 music periodical titles provide current tools for research. Electronic resources are also available to both students and professors through commercial online databases and multimedia computer software. Because of the school's international connections, there is a significant representation of indigenous Christian music materials that include instruments, recordings, and scores.

The library owns an extensive hymnology collection, housed in the Robert S. Douglass Treasure Room. This room contains over 11,000 titles of rare books, hymnals, and scores, including editions of early 17th- and 18th-century psalters such as the 1629 Sternhold and Hopkings The Whole Booke of Psalmes, shape-note tune books like The Sacred Harp and The Southern Harmony, and gospel songbooks such as Bliss and Sankey's Gospel Hymns and Sacred Songs.

The Treasure Room of the music library also holds several important collections, most notably the George C. Stebbins Collection which contains over 1,100 items and includes hymnals, sacred songbooks, histories, biographies, and scrapbooks related to American and British hymnody dating from the mid-18th century to mid-20th century. The essence of this collection is gospel hymnody of the 19th century revival movements. The William J. Reynolds Collection has more than 1,500 titles, mostly hymnals from various denominations and nationalities and church music books. The James C. McKinney collection contains materials dealing with the life and works of the renowned author, educator, and former dean of the music school.
Two grants from the American Theological Library Association (ATLA) have allowed the library to digitize shape-note tune books and make digital recordings of different Southern Baptist worship services. Anyone may view these collections at the ATLA website. The staff continue to work on other projects as well.

State-of-the-art listening equipment and an electronic piano enable students to listen to some of the more than 19,600 recordings or browse almost 320,000 music scores and octavos. There are also several stations with televisions, VCRs, and DVD players for watching the 1,200 videos and DVDs in its collection. A computer lab located in the library provides new computers equipped with the latest version of Finale software and MIDI keyboards for instruction in composition.

School of Educational Ministries Curriculum Center

The Curriculum Center displays most of the current curriculum materials produced by LifeWay Christian Resources, other SBC agencies, and the WMU. The staff maintain files of other material about practical ministry issues. A computer in the lab gives students access to several Southern Baptist Convention websites. Located in Price Hall and funded by the School of Educational Ministries, any seminary student may browse or review this material.

Other Collections

Southwestern's Libraries have established some smaller specialized collections elsewhere on the Fort Worth campus and at some off-campus centers. These collections at Houston, San Antonio, and Little Rock have major reference works and commentaries. Students enrolled in the Plano, Marshall, and Shawnee programs use the libraries at the host institutions. The Counseling Center collection has materials that support the Baptist Marriage and Family Counseling Center's programs. Books and video recordings in The World Mission Center collection support people group research and planning for short-term mission projects.

The Six Schools of the Seminary and Local Communities

Schools

The College at Southwestern is the newly created undergraduate program that offers a challenging bachelor's degree program focusing on the Bible and the history of Western ideas, with optional concentrations in music and education. The College at Southwestern provides unique preparation for students who wish to engage culture and advance the gospel.

The School of Theology provides foundational theological education for the ever-widening circle of Christian ministry. This training is designed to prepare the student for effective pastoral ministry and other ministries of the church and to correlate the content and practice of the Christian faith.

The Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions is another newly established school of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. This school trains students to share the gospel of Jesus Christ both at home and abroad through degrees focused on evangelism, missions, Islamic studies, and church planting.

The School of Educational Ministries is characterized by an energetic pioneering spirit that seeks to explore new and exciting frontiers in Christian Education. The school sets forth the place of education in the work of the church and emphasizes philosophy and principles of education, psychology, counseling, communications, administration, and other expressions of Christian ministry.

The School of Church Music has led in providing church musicians for the denomination and is firmly committed to the philosophy that the local church is crucial in Christian work. The school emphasizes professional excellence and practical ministry.

The Havard School for Theological Studies, Houston, Texas. In 1975, SWBTS established an extension site for seminary studies on the Houston Baptist University campus as a joint endeavor with Houston Baptist University, and the Correlating Committee of the Colorado, Creath-Brazos, Galveston, Gulf Coast, San Felipe, San Jacinto, Trinity River, Tryon-Evergreen, and Union Baptist Associations. In 2002 the Park Place Baptist Church gave their facilities to the Seminary as a site for extension studies. In October 2003 the trustees named the campus at Park Place the J. Dalton Havard Center in honor of the Houston-based evangelist. In April 2004 they voted to give the center the status of the fourth school of the Seminary and named Dr. Denny Autrey as the first Dean of the new Havard School. At this site students can earn the MDiv and MACE degrees without attending classes at the campus in Fort Worth.
Local Communities

The main campus of Southwestern Seminary is located in Fort Worth, Texas, a city with extensive educational, cultural, and recreational facilities. Fort Worth is known as the city "where the West begins" and is famous for its friendly western hospitality. Together with Dallas, Fort Worth is an integral part of a growing metropolitan and industrial complex. The Fort Worth-Dallas area comprises the sixth largest population center in the nation, with a combined total of approximately four million citizens.

Students at the Harvard School in Houston, Texas enjoy a distinct metropolitan city which is home to more than 4.7 million people. The greater Houston area is the nation's third largest city. The city's strong economy leads to a diverse population with more than 90 language groups represented within the city's population. Houston is located on the upper Gulf Coast, 50 miles from the Gulf of Mexico.

Extension Campuses

Southwestern Seminary offers classes in geographical locations other than Fort Worth and Houston to facilitate the education of pastors and church staff members who desire to pursue a basic seminary degree without having to give up their church staff responsibilities. Currently, the Association of Theological Schools requires that the equivalent of one year of a degree be completed for graduate degrees at the Fort Worth or Houston campuses. These credits may not include Internet courses. Online and compressed video course are considered nonresident hours.

Persons participating in any one of these programs must meet all regular seminary requirements for any student entering or working toward a degree program. Questions should be directed to the Director of Admissions, P.O. Box 22000, Fort Worth, Texas 76122, or the Dean of Extension Education at the same address. You can get more information about Southwestern Seminary Extension Centers by emailing Dr. Deron J. Biles.

Shawnee, OK

Southwestern Seminary in Oklahoma was opened in 1976 on the campus of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, Oklahoma. The program was a joint project of the seminary, the university, and the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. All but one year of study may be completed on the Oklahoma campus for the MDiv and MACE degrees. Required courses for both degrees are scheduled on a three-year rotating cycle. A student pursuing one of the other degrees or concentrations would be able to complete courses common to the MDiv and MACE degrees. Courses not common to the MDiv and MACE degrees can only be taken on the Fort Worth campus. For such degrees, students may be required to attend more than one year on the Fort Worth campus. Classes are offered on Mondays at this location. Undergraduate courses are not offered at any of the extensions centers.

San Antonio, TX, William R. Marshall Center for Theological Studies

Southwestern Seminary in San Antonio began in 1977 through the cooperative venture of the seminary and the Southwestern Baptist Correlation Committee composed of representatives of the Austin Blanco, Coastal Bend, Del Rio Uvalde, Gamburgell, Gonzales, Frio River, San Antonio, San Marcos, and Williamson Baptist Associations. Classes meet at the Park Hills Baptist Church located at 17747 San Pedro Avenue, in the northwest section of San Antonio. In April 2006, the trustees approved the naming of the program in San Antonio as the William R. Marshall Center for Theological Studies and elected Dr. Rudy Gonzalez as the first dean of the Marshall Center.

All but one year of study may be completed on the San Antonio campus for the MDiv and MACE degrees. Required courses for both degrees are scheduled on a three-year rotation cycle. A student pursuing one of the other degrees or concentrations would be able to complete courses common to the MDiv and MACE degrees. Courses not common to the MDiv and MACE degrees can only be taken on the Fort Worth campus. For such degrees, students may be required to attend more than one year on the Fort Worth campus. Classes are offered on Mondays at this location.

Little Rock, AR

All but one year of study may be completed on the Little Rock campus for the MDiv degree and MRE program. Required courses for both degrees are scheduled on a three-year rotating cycle. A student pursuing one of the other degrees or concentrations would be able to complete courses common to the MDiv and MRE degrees. Courses not common to the MDiv and MRE degrees can only be taken on the Fort Worth campus. For such degrees, students may be required to attend more than one year on the Fort Worth campus. Classes are offered on Mondays at this location. Students in the MRE program will be moved into the MACE degree program when they take classes in Fort Worth.

Marshall, TX

Southwestern Seminary in Marshall began in 1999 on the campus of East Texas Baptist University, Marshall, Texas at 1209 North Grove Street.

All but one year of study may be completed on the Marshall campus for the MDiv and MACE degrees. Required courses for both degrees are scheduled on a four-year rotating cycle. A student pursuing one of the other degrees or concentrations would be able to complete courses common to the MDiv and MACE degrees. Courses not common to the MDiv and MACE degrees can only be taken on the Fort Worth campus. For such degrees, students may be required to attend more than one year on the Fort Worth campus. Classes are offered on Mondays at this location. Undergraduate students may not take courses at the Marshall campus.

Plano, TX

Southwestern Seminary in Plano began in the spring of 2003 at Prestonwood Baptist Church located at 6801W. Park Boulevard, Plano, Texas.

All but one year of study may be completed on the Plano campus for the MDiv and MACE degrees. Required courses for both degrees are scheduled on a three year rotating cycle. A student pursuing one of the other degrees or concentrations would be able to complete courses common to the MDiv and MACE degrees. Courses not common to the MDiv and MACE degrees can only be taken on the Fort Worth campus. For such degrees, students may be required to attend more than one year on the Fort Worth campus. Classes are offered on Mondays at this location.

College Station, TX

Southwestern Seminary in College Station scheduled classes in the spring of 2006 for the first time at Central Baptist Bryan located at 1991 FM 158, College Station, Texas. Courses are offered toward an MDiv degree.

Bonn, Germany

In 2005, Southwestern Seminary began offering courses leading to the Master of Arts in Theology degree on the beautiful campus of the Bibelseminar in Bonn, Germany.

Students in Bonn can complete the entire Master of Arts in Theology with a concentration in Pastoral Ministry. Classes are offered in German or in English with German translation by resident and visiting Southwestern faculty on a five week rotating schedule from October to June.

For information on the MATh offered in Germany contact Dr. Friedhelm Jung:

by mail at: Bibelseminar Bonn, Haus Wittgenstein Ehrental 2-4, 53332 Bornheim-Roisdorf by email at: fjung@bsb-online.de or by phone at: +49 (0) 2222.701200

Online Learning Campus

In the fall of 2000 Southwestern began the online campus that allows students to complete master's and undergraduate courses online. A student may complete up to one third of a degree plan online.

Most of the courses are asynchronous which allows the student to log on to the class at the time of one's choice. Students enrolling in an online course should expect to have at least a similar workload as an on-campus class. A student must be accepted to the seminary prior to enrolling in classes. There is a different fee structure for online courses. Currently courses are offered online during the fall and spring semesters for the master's level.
Online learning enriches the educational experience by bringing together in one class students from around the world. In the past individuals living in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Florida, California, Arkansas, New Mexico, Washington, Virginia, South Carolina, Kentucky, Hong Kong, Russia, France, Germany, and The Netherlands have enrolled in online courses.

For more information regarding online learning visit the web site or contact the office of the Director of Distance Learning at DistanceLearningRegistration@swbts.edu.

Purpose and Introduction

The College at Southwestern is the baccalaureate school of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. The College offers the Bachelor of Arts in Humanities, a degree that focuses on the Bible and the history of Western ideas with optional concentrations in music, education, and further study in the history of ideas. This degree is designed to equip students to understand and engage the cultural climate of our day. The degree accomplishes this by introducing the student to the history and development of Western thought, which shapes the culture. All students take a 60 hour core in History, Life and Thought that integrates class lecture with small group breakout sessions along with readings in primary and secondary literature of the period. This degree program also requires all students to complete a 24 hour course of study in Bible and theology with opportunities for focused research in those disciplines. Graduates of the College will be uniquely prepared to address the culture from a sound Biblical world view.

The College baccalaureate program is ideally suited for high school graduates who feel the Lord may be calling them to ministry. The degree presupposes that the student will be firmly committed to the Christian faith and open to God’s leadership in directing his or her life’s work. This degree will also prepare students to continue graduate studies at seminary.

The College BA leads students through a fascinating yet rigorous learning experience. Before arrival students should cultivate a strong spiritual life, emotional stability, a healthy life-style, and a positive attitude toward learning. Students should specifically develop strengths in reading, reasoning, and writing skills. All incoming students are strongly encouraged to take the college preparatory track, or its equivalent, or honors program in their high school studies before enrolling at the College. Students are required to own and be thoroughly comfortable with the use of a personal computer.

The History, Life and Thought major core of the the College BA is truly unique and builds from the beginning to the end of the program. Because philosophical, political, social, scientific and other ideas grow out of earlier concepts the need for a historical sequence is self-evident. As such, students will gain the most benefit from taking these courses in proper sequence. Other courses in the curriculum may be taken at any time provided any prerequisite course work is completed first when applicable.

Freshmen students who are twenty years of age or under may live at home if it is within a fifty mile radius of the College. Those students who do not live in the metroplex and are not married will be required to live on campus and enroll in the school meal plan during their freshman year. All students may apply for student housing throughout the course of their studies at the College. Campus housing is well maintained and costs about 25 percent less than comparable apartments in the community. Students living on campus benefit from a convenient living location, reduced commute time, campus security, billing, and timely maintenance.

The school meal plan will be available for purchase at the time the deposit is made for campus housing. Others may also elect to purchase the school meal plan. The school offers a variety of plans tailored to individual needs. The College insures that all meals will be nutritious, economical, and conveniently located in the Naylor Student Center Cafeteria. Anyone interested in purchasing a meal plan should contact the Housing Office, ext. 2330.

Because the chapel service at Southwestern is central to instilling the Christian qualities becoming to anyone seeking to serve the Lord, college students will participate in the chapel services of Southwestern Seminary. Chapel services are regularly held on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 10:50 to 11:50 a.m. unless otherwise posted. The services are held throughout the semester in Truett Auditorium. Guests and parents are always welcomed.

1 Each IDE ‘History of Ideas’ course will have ‘breakout’ sessions to focus on specific subjects such as Mathematics, Science, Literature, Philosophy, Political Science, and other essentials of a General Education curriculum.

2 In addition, tutorials in word processing, research, and writing will also be provided.

* Twenty-one hours of electives are available. These may be taken as free electives or the student may choose a prescribed concentration. Most concentrations are fifteen hours in length, leaving six hours of free electives. See concentrations.

Bachelor of Arts in Humanities Concentrations

A student may obtain a concentration by using elective concentration hours to complete the requirements described below. Upon completion of a concentration, students will receive a certificate of their work.

History of Ideas

To add depth to the required curriculum, a student may elect a concentration of further study in the history of ideas. A broader scope of primary source readings become available, giving the student an enriched "Great Books" education. This is an excellent choice for all students interested in ministry.

Hispanic Studies Curriculum

Plan de Estudio Hispano

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Southern Baptist of Texas Convention (SBTC) share a vision to create an educational superhighway for equipping the next generation of Hispanic pastors and leaders. To this end, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary offers a program of theological study for Hispanic Baptist ministers. Southwestern offers this program to the general public and students are not required to belong to a SBTC church. Jacksonville College and Criswell College also offer this program and courses in the program are transferable between the institutions.

El Seminario Teológico Bautista del Suroeste (SWBTS) y la Convención Sureste Bautista de Texas (SBTC) comparten la visión de crear una supercarretera educativa para equipar a la siguiente generación de pastores y líderes hispanos. Para lograr este fin, SWBTS ofrece un programa de estudios teológicos para ministros bautistas hispanos. SWBTS ofrece estos cursos al público en general y los estudiantes no necesitan ser miembros de una iglesia afiliada a la SBTC. El Jacksonville College y el Criswell College también ofrecen este programa y se pueden transferir los cursos del programa entre las diferentes instituciones.

The SBTC will confer a Basic Certificate for those who complete the required 24 hours which consist of the first eight biblical content courses listed below. A Distinguished Certificate will be conferred upon those students that take the two additional freshmen level English courses as preparation for entering an associate or baccalaureate program of study at either, Jacksonville College, Criswell College, or the College at Southwestern. Those who are interested in this certificate program should talk with a college advisor.

La SBTC otorgará un “Certificado Básico” para aquellos que completen las 24 horas obligatorias que consisten en los ocho cursos bíblicos descritos a continuación. Un “Certificado de Distinción” se otorgará a aquellos estudiantes que estudien dos cursos adicionales de inglés básico universitario como preparación para ingresar a un programa de asociado o licenciatura (bachillerato) en el Jacksonville College, el Criswell College o el College de Southwestern. Aquellos interesados en este programa de certificado deben dialogar con un consejero universitario en cualquiera de estas instituciones.

About the College at Southwestern:

Question: What makes the College at Southwestern BA unique?

Answer: The College at Southwestern baccalaureate degree is designed to equip the graduate to understand and engage the cultural climate of our day. The degree accomplishes this by introducing the student to the history and development of western thought, which shapes the culture. All students take a 60 hour core in History, Life and Thought that integrates class lecture with small group breakout sessions along with readings in primary and secondary literature of the period. This degree program also requires all students to complete a 24 hour course of study in Bible and theology with opportunities for focused research in those disciplines. Graduates of the College will be uniquely prepared to address the culture from a sound and Biblical world view. Beyond these requirements the degree also allows the student to choose a concentration in one of four areas (History of Ideas, Education, Music, and General Studies)

Question: For whom is the College BA suited?

Answer: The College baccalaureate program is ideally suited for high school graduates who feel the Lord may be calling them to ministry. The degree presupposes that the student will be firmly committed to the Christian faith and open to God’s leadership as to his or her life’s work. The College BA is designed to equip the graduate to understand and engage our post-modern culture. This degree will also prepare the person who wishes to continue graduate studies at seminary.
Question: Is the College at Southwestern accredited?

Answer: The College at Southwestern and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary are accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia, 30033-4097; telephone number 404-679-4500) to award bachelor, master, and doctoral degrees. The seminary is also accredited by the Association of Theological Schools. The School of Church Music is an accredited member institution of the National Association of Schools of Music. The Naylor Children's Center is accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

Uniqueness of the Curriculum:

Question: Is this program essentially a philosophy major?

Answer: No. While the History, Life and Thought core of the BA does have a strong philosophical current it should not be misconstrued as a degree that focuses merely on the abstract. This program also requires a 24 hour biblical and theological component and affords each student the option of taking a concentration in areas of applied ministry such as music, education, or the history of ideas. The degree also requires two years (four semesters) of physical education, thus taking seriously the biblical principle of physical stewardship in ministry.

Question: What kinds of things can I do to prepare for the program?

Answer: The successful student enrolled in the the College BA will come prepared to embark in a fascinating yet rigorous learning experience. Students should generally cultivate a strong spiritual life, emotional stability, a healthy life-style, and a positive attitude towards learning. Students should specifically develop strengths in reading, reasoning, and writing skills. All incoming students are strongly encouraged to take the college preparatory track, or its equivalent, or honors program in their high school studies before enrolling at the College. Students should be thoroughly comfortable with the use of a personal computer (all students will be required to own a personal computer).

Question: Will I have to take classes in sequence?

Answer: Yes. The History, Life and Thought major core of the the College BA is truly unique and builds from the beginning to the end of the program. Because philosophical, political, social, scientific and other ideas grow out of earlier concepts the need for a historical sequence is self-evident. As such, students will gain the most benefit from taking these courses in proper sequence. Other courses in the curriculum may be taken at any time so long as any prerequisite course work is completed first when applicable.

Question: If I miss a course in the sequence can I pick it up later?

Answer: Yes. However, students are encouraged to take the courses in proper sequence as these build a foundation for the courses that follow.

Question: What “concentrations” are available for study?

Answer: The sole major for Southwestern’s baccalaureate degree is in History, Life and Thought. However, within this program the College offers four possible concentrations in the following areas: History of Ideas (15 hours), Education (15 hours), Music (30 hours), and General Studies (15 hours).

Admissions and Orientation:

Question: Are the parents of students welcome at orientation?

Answer: Yes, parents are always welcome at the College and are encouraged to be involved in their children’s education. During welcome weekend parents will have special sessions to address any questions and concerns they may have. Parents wishing to spend a day on campus can secure lodging at the Riley Smith Leadership Development Center. For reservations call 817 923-1921 ext. 8800.

Question: Where should my parents and I park during orientation?

Answer: Family and incoming students should park in student perimeter parking.
Question: How do I get my student ID?

Answer: Students approved for admission can have their ID made at the Registrar’s Office anytime after your approval or you may have it made at the time of registration.

Question: Does the College give credit for advanced placement (AP) courses and exams taken in High School?

Answer: The College strongly recommends that prospective students take AP courses to prepare for their college studies. Students demonstrating an AP test/exam grade of 3 or better in certain AP subject areas may submit them for college credit. Only AP exams will be considered for possible credit and are subject to transcript evaluation. For more information contact the admissions office to request a transfer credit evaluation packet.

Question: Can I transfer credit hours completed at another school?

Answer: Yes. All hours transferred into the BA are subject to transcript evaluation which should be accomplished prior to registration by requesting a transfer credit evaluation through the Admissions Office.

Question: What if I am an International student?

Answer: The College BA degree has now been certified to admit international students on F-1 student visas and is available for Fall 2006. In addition to the requirements listed above, international students (F-1 visas) must supply the following:

- Statement of financial support. The Bureau of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services requires that a student on an F-1 visa provide evidence of adequate financial support during the duration of status as a student.

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). All international students who are not citizens of the United States or where English is not their first language must take TOEFL and have the score sent to the Admissions Office. A minimum score of 213 (computer-based) or 79 (internet-based) is required for undergraduate level.

- Transcript evaluation. All transcripts of academic credit earned outside the United States must be evaluated. A High School diploma or its equivalent is required.

- Alien Registration Receipt Card. All resident alien applicants must provide a copy of their Alien Registration Receipt Card I-551 (green card) with the application.

- Employment Authorization Document (EAD). Applicants with an R-1 status for religious work must furnish a copy of the EAD with the application.

Southwestern provides an International Student Services Office. International students needing additional information or assistance may contact the Director of International Students (Ext. 3970).

Registration:

Question: What is the tuition rate?

Answer: The tuition for the BA is $380.00 per semester hour for all students. However, because of the generosity of Southern Baptist churches, students who are members of a Southern Baptist church receive a Cooperative Program scholarship, which reduces the per hour tuition to $190.00. Students are also required to pay a $35.00 application fee and a student campus fee of $132.00 per semester. Depending on what courses a student may take at any given time other fees may apply.

Question: What scholarships are available for the BA student?

Answer: All students who are members of a Southern Baptist Church benefit from the generosity of Southern Baptist churches that give through the Cooperative Program for the training of ministerial students. As such all Southern Baptist students receive a Cooperative Program scholarship that reduces their personal tuition cost by 50 percent from $380.00 to $190.00 per semester hour. Beyond the Cooperative Program scholarship, students can apply for other financial assistance by contacting the Financial Aid Office (ext. 3080). While the College does not participate in any federal or state-funded student aid programs including PELL grants and Stafford loans, students are eligible to apply for repayment deferments for most federal or state educational loans. incurred while attending other colleges and universities. Veterans enrolled at the College may be eligible to receive VA benefits such as GI Bill and Tuition Assistance.

Question: What tuition payment options are available?

Answer: At registration you will be able to select one of two payment options:

- Payment made in full by cash or check on the day you register.
- Payment made through on-line payment options, courtesy of E-cashier. New students may sign up for E-cashier payment options after registration.

Question: When do classes start?

Answer: Generally, the College BA program will follow the same academic calendar as that of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. For welcome weekend, orientation and registration information please see the College calendar at college.swbts.edu.

Question: When do I register for classes?

Answer: A new baccalaureate student can register for the first time during the orientation process. Returning students may take advantage of early registration (see schedule for dates).

Question: Who is my academic advisor?

Answer: An academic advisor will be assigned to you at orientation. Also, you may be assigned a student leader who will be responsible for your campus orientation.

Question: Can an undergraduate student take graduate level courses to meet the B.A. requirements?

Answer: No. Baccalaureate students will need to take courses required for the program and electives from the undergraduate courses offered during any given semester.

Campus Life:

Question: Will I be required to live on campus?

Answer: Freshmen students who are twenty years of age or under may live at home if it is within a fifty mile radius of the College. Those students who do not live in the metroplex and are not married will be required to live on campus and enroll in the school meal plan during their freshman year. All students may apply for student housing throughout the course of their studies at the College. Campus housing is well maintained and costs about 25 percent less than comparable apartments in the community. Students living on campus benefit from a convenient living location, reduced commute time, campus security, billing, and timely maintenance.

Question: If I do choose to live on campus, when can I move in?

Answer: Generally, a student who has been approved for admission to the College should contact the housing office to secure their housing and meal plan if applicable. See below for housing information:

Housing Office
Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
P.O. Box 22480
Fort Worth, Texas 76122-0480
(817) 923-1921 ext. 2330
A $150 deposit is necessary to secure campus housing. For move in dates see the College calendar at college.swbts.edu.
Question: How are residence hall assignments made?

Answer: Housing assignments are made by the Housing Office. The College has both male and female single residence dorms available, as well as apartments and single family units. The housing office will take individual needs and reasonable requests into consideration when assigning living quarters for incoming students.

Question: Am I required to purchase a meal plan?

Answer: Freshmen students living on campus will be required to enroll in the school meal plan, available for purchase at the time they make their deposit for campus housing. Others may also elect to purchase the school meal plan. The school offers a variety of plans tailored to individual needs. The College insures that all meals will be nutritious, economical, and conveniently located in the Naylor Student Center Cafeteria. Anyone interested in purchasing a meal plan should contact Southwestern Dining Services, ext. 2230.

Question: Is there a charge for parking?

Answer: No. The school issues parking permits at no cost to all registered students with vehicles. You will receive a parking permit for each car you will be driving on campus at the Cashier’s Office when you register. All vehicles must have parking decals to park on campus or in campus housing areas.

Question: How do I receive mail at the College?

Answer: Residence hall students will receive a campus post office box number when they check in to the residence hall. On a space available basis, non-residence hall students may rent a box at the campus post office in the Naylor Student Center.

Question: Does the College have chapel?

Answer: Yes. The chapel service at Southwestern is central to instilling the Christian qualities becoming to anyone seeking to serve the Lord in their life. The College students will participate in the chapel services of Southwestern Seminary. Chapel services are regularly held on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 10:50 to 11:50 a.m. unless otherwise posted. The services are held throughout the semester in Truett Auditorium. Guests and parents are always welcomed.

Question: When can I purchase my textbooks?

Answer: You will have an opportunity to purchase textbooks as listed on the the College calendar at college.swbts.edu. An estimate of cost will be provided so parents can make arrangements for payment in advance.

Admissions Policies and Processes:

Who can (or should) attend the College at Southwestern?

Certain general credentials must be present in a prospective student’s life for admission to the College at Southwestern. In its admission policies the college assumes the student is able to provide testimony of a salvation experience and Christian commitment, has been identified as a prospective minister by announced intent, proven conduct in accordance with Christian standards set forth in the Bible, active church involvement, and unqualified approval from the church where they are currently members. Some of these credentials include:

- Commitment to the Christian faith
- Evidence of a desire to serve the Lord and the church
- Moral integrity
- Emotional stability so as to be able to fill leadership responsibilities in church life
- Potential for responsible Christian ministry
- Record of solid academic achievement
- Promise of continued intellectual and spiritual growth
- Proficiency in English or the language in which the program is taught
Who must apply to attend the College at Southwestern?

Individuals seeking admission into any course of study at the College must submit an application for admission through the Office of Admissions. All supporting documents that are part of the admissions application must be received before an admission decision will be made. Registration for classes will be possibly ONLY after the Admissions Committee has granted approval for admission.

How early must I apply for admission to the College at Southwestern?

Applications may be received up to 12 months prior to the beginning of the semester you intend to enroll. If you delay enrollment for more than one semester, you may be asked to complete an update application before once again being accepted for admission.

What are the application deadlines?

All applications for admission must be fully processed and approved by the Admissions Committee before enrollment in the College is possible. The following deadlines are indicated so you will be aware of the dates for submitting the application and requesting all supporting documents to be mailed to the Office of Admissions. Applications and supporting documents received after the deadlines will be processed as quickly as possible with the intent that the applicant will be able to enroll for the indicated semester but with no guarantee that it will be accomplished.

Who should delay submitting an application to the College at Southwestern?

Persons who have experienced divorce or bankruptcy should wait one calendar year from the date either is resolved before making application for admission.

Individuals who have been convicted of a crime, other than a traffic violation or a similar misdemeanor where only a fine was assessed, should wait a minimum of two calendar years after the sentence has been served (including probation) before submitting an application for admission.

What is included in the application for admission?

The basic application for admission to the College includes:

- Application form which calls for basic demographic information and a statement of Christian commitment, including a 500-800 word essay
- Nonrefundable application fee of $35.00
- Church endorsement form completed by the church where you are currently a member. If the endorsement covers a period of membership for less than one year, an additional church endorsement from a second church is required by the Admissions Committee. For student fee purposes, denominational affiliation is determined by the church endorsement form submitted with the application.
- Personal references must be submitted from a minister of your church and two from persons who have known you for more than one year, such as a teacher, an employer, or a non-family friend.
- Official transcripts from high school and/or college. SAT, ACT, or THEA/TASP scores must be provided separately if they are not included on the high school or college transcript.
- Spouse/fiancé(e) information is required for applicants who are engaged or married.
- Immunization history form is required for applicants who are younger than 20 years of age.
- Any additional information requested by the Office of Admissions will be considered a supporting document and must be received before the application will be considered complete.

Purpose and Introduction

The purpose of the School of Theology of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is to provide graduate theological education for students engaging in Christian ministry. The curriculum is composed of basic biblical, theological, and ministry disciplines, designed to prepare the student for effective pastoral ministry and other ministries of the church. The school seeks to create a context conducive to growth in Christian character and to provide training and resources for a lifetime of continuing theological study.

Degree Overview

Master of Divinity

The Southwestern MDiv prepares students for the broadest range of Christian ministries. Students receive training in classical theological disciplines such as Old Testament, New Testament, church history and historical theology, systematic theology, ethics, and philosophy, as well as applied disciplines such as pastoral ministry, preaching, evangelism, and missions. In addition, students may use elective hours to pursue concentrations in any school at Southwestern in accordance with their ministry goals and academic interests. The MDiv is the only approved first master's degree for a student preparing for a pastoral or preaching ministry, as well as any other ministry largely comprised of biblical teaching.

Advanced Master of Divinity

The Advanced Master of Divinity degree allows students to build upon undergraduate theological training by taking elective courses in place of the introductory courses in the regular Master of Divinity curriculum. This flexible degree ranges from 74 to 86 hours.

Master of Arts in Lay Ministry

The Master of Arts in Lay Ministry provides theological education for lay people, equipping them for competent lay ministry to the church and community.

Master of Arts in Theology

The Master of Arts in Theology is a graduate level degree offering advanced work in the classical theological disciplines.
Master of Theology

The Master of Theology allows students to gain a high level of competency in one major area of study after completion of the Master of Divinity. The Th.M. enhances ministerial practice, preparation for doctoral studies, and further mastery of a specialized discipline.

Doctor of Ministry

The Doctor of Ministry degree is designed to enhance the practice of ministry for those who are currently engaged in positions of ministerial leadership.

Doctor of Philosophy

The Doctor of Philosophy degree prepares persons of exceptional ability and promise to serve as teachers in specialized areas of theology; pastors; chaplains; or denominational leaders in positions such as administrators, editors, authors, in the United States or abroad.

Suggested Pre-seminary Studies

It is advisable for students in college to take courses that will prepare them specifically for their seminary course of study and for their future ministry. For this reason the faculty of the School of Theology has adopted the following statement which is an adaptation of guidelines issued by the Association of Theological Schools:

“It is no longer possible to prescribe one pattern as normative for all pre-seminary education. Church bodies vary in their expectations. Individuals may seek to develop parachurch ministries in which theological study will complement work in other professions. Different ministries demand a variety of patterns of pre-theological studies. The Association therefore finds it increasingly difficult to prescribe or even advise a single pre-seminary curricular model as the ideal.

“One useful approach to designing pre-theological studies is to envisage a number of categories of learning in which it is desired that a student will have developed some in-depth understanding:

1. General Understandings
   a. Understanding of human selfhood and existence
   b. Understanding of modern social institutions and problems
   c. Understanding of science and technology
   d. Understanding of the modes and processes of understanding

2. Theological Understandings
   a. Bible: content and interpretation
   b. History of Christianity
   c. Constructive theological methodology and interpretation

3. Linguistic Skills
   a. Greek or Hebrew
   b. Latin, German, French, or Spanish

“It is desirable to have a reading knowledge of one of the biblical languages and of one classical or modern language. Decisions about additional language skills should be related to their future utility for the individual. Thus, French or German should be included for a person contemplating possible graduate study in academic theology. Spanish or a language of the Third World might be of value for another type of ministry.

“In general, the student should seek to have developed high competence in at least one of areas 1, a, b, or c and moderate competence in one of the other general categories and one of the theological categories. The student should possess a moderate acquaintance broadly across areas 1, a to 3, b. The student should communicate easily, i.e., have the ability to write and speak clear and correct English prose.”
Applied Ministry

Required Courses

Each MDiv student is required to complete 2 credit hours of Applied Ministry (formerly “Field Education”) in the School of Theology. During the fall semester APLMN 4011 Applied Ministry Disciple-Making in the Local Church is offered. In the spring APLMN 4021 Applied Ministry Mentoring is offered. These courses have prerequisites of Spiritual Formation I (SPFTH 3101), Spiritual Formation II (SPFTH 3111), and Contemporary Evangelism (EVANG 3303). It is recommended that APLMN 4011 be taken before APLMN 4021.

Elective Courses

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary through the Applied Ministry Division encourages and assists all students in gaining a variety of Applied Ministry experiences during their seminary years. Participation in Applied Ministry experiences will make students more attractive to potential ministry positions while a student and more appealing to potential employers after graduation.

- Internship - The student works alongside a church leader in a covenant relationship to develop in areas of both competence and character to further his or her readiness for leadership in the local church or other ministry.
  - APLMN 3101 (1 hour)
  - APLMN 3102 (2 hours)
  - APLMN 3103 (3 hours)

- Practicum - A structured and significant educational experience that takes place in a church, institution, or community environment under the supervision of ministry mentors and the guidance of the Applied Ministry Division.
  - APLMN 3201 (1 hour)
  - APLMN 3202 (2 hours)
  - APLMN 3203 (3 hours)

- Mentorship - A relational experience in which one person (mentor) empowers another (mentoree) by sharing God-given resources such as personal strengths, resources, and networks (friendships/contacts) to help the student reach his or her goals.
  - APLMN 3301 (1 hour)
  - APLMN 3302 (2 hours)
  - APLMN 3303 (3 hours)

- Apprenticeship - Usually a longer, more structured learning experience in which the student works with a church or ministry leader to develop a skill or cluster of skills to advance his or her competence in ministry.
  - APLMN 3401 (1 hour)
  - APLMN 3402 (2 hours)
  - APLMN 3403 (3 hours)

- Disciple-Making - Advanced disciple-making practicum. The student works within the context of a local church to broaden their understanding and personal experience in New Testament one-on-one discipline of new or recent believers.
  - APLMN 3501 (1 hour)
  - APLMN 3502 (2 hours)
  - APLMN 3503 (3 hours)

Course Requirements

The division utilizes the following formula for computing 1 hour of academic credit in Applied Ministry:

- 30 hours ministry involvement in a church, institution, mission trip, or community environment
- 15 hours mentoring face-to-face, one-on-one by an experienced ministry mentor
- 300 pages reading average (one book) for each credit hour
- Keep a ministry journal that chronicles your journey through this experience.
- Ministry Reflection paper of approximately 3 pages in length describing the ministry conducted and what was learned from the experiences (plus a “ministry trip log” for all short-term missions experiences)
Duration

Applied Ministry practica may be summer, semester, or year-long experiences and may earn multiple credit hours (see formula above).

- Summer ministries (8-10 weeks) - Credit hours computed using the division's formula.
- Semester positions (14 weeks) - Credit hours computed using the division's formula.
- Year long experiences (9-12 months) - Credit hours computed using the division's formula.
- Special Ministry opportunities - evangelistic meetings, missions trips, practica, etc.

The Division personnel will work with each student to design a program that will best correspond with their professional and academic goals.

The Applied Ministry Division also supervises the zero credit applied practica for PRCHG 3323 and PASMN 4313.

Master of Divinity (MDiv)

The Southwestern MDiv prepares students for the broadest range of Christian ministries. Students receive training in classical theological disciplines such as Old Testament, New Testament, church history and historical theology, systematic theology, ethics, and philosophy, as well as applied disciplines such as pastoral ministry, preaching, evangelism, and missions. In addition, students may use elective hours to pursue concentrations in any school at Southwestern in accordance with their ministry goals and academic interests. The MDiv is the only approved first master's degree for a student preparing for a pastoral or preaching ministry, as well as any other ministry largely comprised of biblical teaching.

Prerequisite

The student must have a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university.

Elementary Greek I and II (GREEK 3313 and 3323, 3 hours each; or GREEK3356, 6 hours) are prerequisite for the degree. Students who have completed equivalent courses should contact the Assistant Dean for Biblical Studies to determine the necessity of completing the courses.

Students will be enrolled in these practica automatically when registering for the parent course above them in the degree plan.

Female students should substitute WOMST 4003.

Students preparing for a ministry which includes preaching must complete PRCHG 3323. The course fulfills 3 hours of concentration and free elective credit.

Students seeking a concentration take specific courses in lieu of elective hours. Some concentrations require more than 18 hours. See concentrations for details.

Students may take up to 4 hours in class piano, class voice, applied music, or ensemble music as elective credit.

Planning Tools

In addition to the official degree plan above, the School of Theology also produces a recommended sequence of courses and a degree checklist for students. Students may also access program evaluations online through WebAdvisor.

Master of Divinity Concentrations

Students may obtain a concentration by using free elective hours to complete the requirements described below. Upon completion of a concentration, students will receive a certificate of their work. MDiv concentrations in Evangelism, Missions, and Church Planting may be found in The Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions.

Administration

Prepares the minister to carry out the leadership and administrative responsibilities of the local church or denominational organization.

Church Music

Prerequisite

A bachelor's degree with a major in music from an accredited college or university and completion of all entrance requirements for the master of music degree. Students must take all auditions and placement examinations given in the School of Church Music and all leveling courses that may be required on the basis of test/audition results. Students without a bachelor's degree in music may qualify themselves for this program by pursuing a course of study in the School of Church Music which will provide them with a background in music equivalent to bachelor's-level study.

1. Competency in the area of voice pedagogy should be demonstrated by all students entering the MDiv with a church music concentration. All incoming students who do not have a voice pedagogy course or its equivalent on their undergraduate transcript will need to take VOICL 4902 Voice Pedagogy as a leveling course. Students who have had such a course will not need to pass a proficiency examination and will automatically be exempt from VOICL 4902.

2. The student who has completed an instrumental concentration in college may be permitted to substitute Organ ORGPR 5742, Piano PIAPR 5842, or Instrument ORINS 5042.

3. The MDiv with a church music concentration requires a combined total of two semesters of Field Education / Supervised Ministry. This requirement may be satisfied by two combinations: FLDTH 3001 Field Education (1st semester) + FLDTH 3001 Field Education (2nd semester) + MUMIN 3351 Supervised Ministry or FLDTH 3001 Field Education + MUMIN 3351 Supervised Ministry.
Ministry + MUMIN 3361 Supervised Ministry. Two of the three semesters satisfy the Applied Ministry component on the MDiv. The third (either MUMIN 3351 or MUMIN 3361) satisfies the requirement on the church music concentration.

Advanced Master of Divinity (Adv. MDiv)

The Advanced Master of Divinity allows students to build upon undergraduate theological training by taking elective courses in place of the introductory courses in the regular Master of Divinity curriculum. The Advanced MDIV requires a minimum number of 74 hours for students who satisfactorily complete proficiency exams in Greek and Hebrew. Students who do not pass all portions of the proficiency exams will be required to complete up to 86 hours.

Entrance Requirements

The student must have graduated with a religion major or minor from an accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 3.0. The student’s undergraduate degree must include 18 hours of courses parallel to courses offered in the School of Theology. The courses should demonstrate a breadth of research in Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, Ethics and Philosophical Studies, Evangelism and Missions Studies, and Preaching and Pastoral Studies.

Degree Requirements

At the beginning of course work for the Advanced MDIV, each student receives a customized degree plan based upon undergraduate courses completed. If a student has satisfactorily completed a course corresponding to a required course in the Advanced MDIV, the student may substitute other hours in the area to meet the requirement.

The following courses are required for the Advanced MDIV unless a student has satisfactorily completed a parallel course during undergraduate work:

Graduate Diploma Students

Graduate diploma students from Southwestern who meet qualifying criteria are eligible for the Advanced MDIV degree.

Transfers

Masters courses from an eligible institution may transfer into the Advanced MDIV. The courses must be comparable to the Southwestern courses for which transfer credit is requested and be completed with a “C” or better. No more than half of the degree may be earned by transfer of credits and no more than half of a completed degree may be used towards a new degree.

Additional Information

For additional information about the Advanced Master of Divinity, contact Dr. Mark Taylor, Associate Dean for Masters Programs:

by mail at: Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
P.O. Box 22696, Fort Worth, Texas 76122

Master of Arts in Theology (MATh)

Purpose

The Master of Arts in Theology is a graduate level degree offering advanced work in the classical theological disciplines.

Entrance Requirements

The student must have an undergraduate degree from an accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 3.0. The student’s undergraduate degree must include courses in the following subject areas:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Prerequisite Courses</th>
<th>Undergraduate Hours</th>
</tr>

</tr>

* Undergraduate survey courses must cover the entire subject (for example, all of the Old Testament) in at least three hours. Admitted students who have not satisfied the prerequisites must do so at the beginning of the program. The prerequisites may be fulfilled by taking bachelors-level courses in the Southwestern College program or master's-level courses in the Seminary program. Typically master’s-level surveys require two courses each (for a total of six hours per survey).

New applicants to the seminary should indicate the desire to pursue the MATh on application materials. Current SWBTS students should fill out a Degree Change Form available in the Registrar’s Office and include an explanation of the reasons for pursuing the MATh.

Degree Requirements

The 50-hour degree includes courses in Spiritual Formation, Biblical Languages, Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, and Ethics and Philosophical Studies. Students may use elective hours to pursue a concentration and/or to complete an optional thesis. Concentrations which exceed 12 hours extend the overall length of the program.

In addition to the two hours of required Spiritual Formation, only courses from Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, and Ethics and Philosophical Studies apply toward the degree. Practicum courses and internet courses do not apply toward the degree.

*Concentrations in Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, or Ethics and Philosophical studies are available on the Fort Worth Campus. For information on the MATh in Bonn, Germany, see below.

Thesis

Students may complete a thesis as part of the elective requirements for the degree. Students who plan to pursue PhD work should complete a thesis. Students who elect to complete a thesis take the Graduate Research Seminar (RSTCH 5552, 2 hours), a directed study in thesis research (MATHE 5001, 1 hour), and Thesis Writing (MATHE 5003, 3 hours).

Transfers

A master's degree student from an accredited institution may transfer up to 25 hours into the MATh. SWBTS students desiring to change from another degree to the MATh may apply eligible courses to the degree.

Bonn Extension Center

In 2005 Southwestern Seminary established an extension center in Bonn, Germany. This extension site is housed on the beautiful campus of The Bibelseminar, Bonn. Students in Bonn complete the thesis track of the Master of Arts in Theology and a concentration in Pastoral Ministry. Southwestern faculty travel to Bonn to teach courses on a five week rotating schedule from October to June. In addition to traveling faculty, Southwestern also employs two full-time faculty on site in Bonn, Dr. Friedhelm Jung and Dr. Helmuth Pehlke. Courses at the Bonn extension center are taught in German or in English with German translation. Application for admission to the Bonn extension center is initiated through the Southwestern Office in Bonn.

Master of Arts in Lay Ministry

Purpose

The Master of Arts in Lay Ministry provides theological education for lay people, equipping them for competent lay ministry to the church and community. Since the M.A. in Lay Ministry degree does not adequately prepare students for any aspect of vocational ministry, those who sense God’s leadership into vocational ministry should normally enroll in the Master of Divinity.

Entrance Requirements

The student must have an undergraduate degree from an accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 2.0. Applicants must be laypersons who do not sense God’s call into vocational ministry but who desire to prepare themselves to know God and to serve Him more effectively.
Degree Requirements

The 48-hour M.A. in Lay Ministry provides students a survey of several foundational theological disciplines. Students select courses from each of the following categories of studies: Faith and Scripture, Faith and Heritage, Faith and Ministry, and electives. Individual course selections within each category depend upon students’ ministry aspirations and need for corresponding skills.

Faith and Scripture (15 hours) courses provide a formal introduction to the study of Scripture. Required courses include: Biblical Hermeneutics (BIBST 3203), Great Themes of the Old Testament (OLDT 3333), and Great Themes of the New Testament (NEWTS 3333). English Bible book courses and Biblical Backgrounds courses satisfy the remaining six hours of electives in Biblical Studies.

Faith and Heritage (12 hours) courses introduce theological disciplines such as systematic theology, church history, historical theology, and women’s studies. Required courses include: Systematic Theology I (SYSTH 3003) and Systematic Theology II (SYSTH 3013). Systematic theology electives, church history, historical theology, women’s studies, philosophy of religion, and ethics courses satisfy the remaining 6 hours of Faith and Heritage requirements.

Faith and Ministry (12 hours) courses sharpen areas of applied studies such as personal evangelism, missions, teaching, and other courses dealing with applied ministry. Required courses include: Personal Evangelism (EVANG 3303, including Evangelism Practicum [EVANG 3000]), Introduction to Missiology (MISSN 3363), and Principles of Teaching (FOUND 4303). Students may select the remaining course requirement from: evangelism, missions, and diverse offerings by the School of Educational Ministries.

Electives (9 hours) give students the opportunity to select courses from the Schools of Theology, Educational Ministries, and Church Music.

Students may take more than two years to complete the M.A. in Lay Ministry.

Transfers

A Master of Arts in Lay Ministry student or graduate who believes that God is leading into vocational ministry and more advanced theological studies may transfer a significant number of hours into the new program of study.

Additional Information

Master of Theology (ThM)

Purpose

The most advanced theological degree at the master's level, the Master of Theology (Th.M.) allows students to gain a high level of competency in one major area of study after completion of the Master of Divinity. The Th.M. enhances ministerial practice, preparation for doctoral studies, and further mastery of a specialized discipline.

Entrance Requirements

The student must have completed a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent from an accredited seminary or divinity school with a minimum GPA of 3.0. The Th.M. assumes exegetical competency in Greek and Hebrew. A student who has not developed exegetical competency in Greek and Hebrew may complete prerequisite language courses at the beginning of work toward the degree.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Theology consists of a 24-hour curriculum including: the Graduate Research Seminar (2 hours), one Ph.D. Reading Seminar (4 hours), three advanced masters electives (4 hours each) in a chosen major, Thesis Research (2 hours), and Thesis Writing (4 hours). A student may complete a 26-hour non-thesis track Th.M. by taking two additional advanced masters electives. Majors available in the School of Theology are:

- New Testament
- Old Testament
- Church History and Historical Theology
- Christian Ethics
- Philosophy of Religion
- Preaching
- Pastoral Ministry

The student must complete the Graduate Research seminar and begin the Ph.D. Reading Seminar during the first fall semester of course work. It is not possible to begin the Ph.D. Reading Seminar in a spring semester. In addition to the normal requirements for each course, the student must prepare a research paper of at least 20 pages.

Thesis

Students pursuing the thesis track select a thesis supervisor at the beginning of the first semester of residence. The Graduate Research Seminar (RSTCH 5552) and Thesis Research must be taken prior to thesis writing. Guidelines for thesis submission may be obtained from the Office of the Associate Dean for Masters Programs. The student should work closely with the thesis supervisor throughout all stages of thesis work.

Time Limitations

All requirements, including the thesis, must be completed within three years of entrance into the program.

Transfers

No courses may be transferred into the Th.M.

Steven W. Smith, Associate Dean for the Doctor of Ministry Degree

Note: Information regarding the Doctor of Ministry Degree for the School of Theology contained in this catalog is an overview of the basic requirements for completing the degree. Students enrolled in the program are accountable for the policies and procedures contained in the most recent edition of the Doctor of Ministry Degree Handbook. Persons interested in additional information regarding entry to the program should contact the Doctor of Ministry Office by email at P.O. Box 22720, Fort Worth, TX 76122-0720, by phone at (817) 923-1921, ext. 6633, or by email at dmn@swbts.edu.

Philosophy & Purpose

The Southwestern Doctor of Ministry degree is designed to enhance the practice of ministry for those who are currently engaged in positions of ministerial leadership.

Admission Requirements & Procedures

Prerequisites for Admission

Prior to admission into the D.Min. program, applicants must have completed the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree or its equivalent from an institution accredited by the American Theological Schools (ATS) or an affiliate of the council of regional accrediting groups. Students must have maintained a 3.00 GPA or higher on a 4.00 scale in master's level studies in religion or theology. Applicants must have served in a vocational ministry position acceptable to the committee for at least 3 years after graduation with the M.Div. or its equivalent.

Applicants must have a minimum grade point average of 3.00 on a scale of 4.00 in Master's level courses. Applicants with less than a 3.00 may be admitted on probation.

Doctor of Ministry Applicants must be approved by the seminary for general admission prior to consideration for the Doctor of Ministry Program.

• Applicants who have previously attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary must contact the Registrar's office to complete the Former Student Enrollment Update Request Form.
• Applicants who have not previously attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary should contact the Admissions Office and comply with current admission standards.

Admission Procedures

• Applicants must be employed or hold an official position in vocational Christian ministry during the time they are enrolled in the degree.
• Applicants must provide a completed D.Min. application form to the D.Min. Office. Please contact the D.Min. Office regarding deadlines and procedures.
• Applicants must provide three evaluative recommendations. Two references must be from individuals who are able to evaluate your present ministry performance. Evaluations are not allowed from individuals over whom you play a supervisory role. One reference is to be from a former master's-level professor who can evaluate your academic potential to do doctoral work. (Forms for these references are included with the D.Min. application packet.)
• Applicants must provide copies of transcripts for all master's level work completed. Those applicants who have not completed a M.Div. degree, but have completed another type of master's, must request a transcript evaluation to determine potential equivalency needs. Some applicants may need to complete leveling work before their master's degree can be considered equivalent to the M.Div. degree. Please note: All leveling work must be completed before applicants can begin seminars.
• Applicants must submit the Statement of Ministry Endorsement Form indicating that the applicant's place of service is supportive of the applicant's intention to pursue doctoral work.
• Prior to final approval, applicants must schedule a personal interview with the Associate Dean of the Doctor of Ministry Program or a member of the Doctor of Ministry Committee.
• Applicants must submit a Personal Essay and a Research Paper according to guidelines established in the latest edition of the Southwestern Seminary Manual of Style. The Personal Essay will be a maximum of 10 pages in length and the Research Paper will be a minimum of 10 pages in length (Times New Roman 12). Both papers will be evaluated for content, grammar, integration of materials, form and style, and the student's qualifications for Doctor of Ministry studies.

The Personal Essay will include:

• primary life events (and the meaning attached to them);
• significant persons and relationships (including role models, the impact of the family of origin, and the nuclear family);
• the minister's understanding of his or her spiritual pilgrimage (particularly focusing on conversation, times of doubt or struggle, and growth experiences);
• the minister's understanding of motivation and call to ministry and significant persons and events in that process; and
• a brief history of both secular and ministry-related experiences (significant difficulties, successes, and “epiphanies” [discoveries] about ministry). The applicant is encouraged to write this essay using the informal (first person) perspective in order to make the paper more personal.

The Research Paper will address the following areas:

• Demonstrate your ability to do research and analysis on a doctoral level;
• As needed, the ability to interact with the original Biblical language(s);
• Clear and succinct skill in developing and proving a thesis statement;

Please note: In the application process the student shall submit the research paper electronically. The student is to submit a research paper in which an argument is made and a research question is pursued. Do not send exegetical papers (or any papers) that are in outline or bullet form and do not show evidence of the studentâ€™s ability to do research.

International Students

For admission, all non-USA citizens will be required to take the internet-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) as an admission requirement. The internet-based required scores are 90-91 (those who score less than 90 may not enter the D.Min. program; those who score between 90-99 may enter the program conditionally; those who score 100 or above may be admitted unconditionally). Citizens of the United Kingdom, Australia, and Canada and other non-USA citizens who have successfully completed an accredited English-language based bachelor's degree from a North American institution are exempt from this requirement.

In addition to a passing TOEFL score, the D.Min. Committee will reserve the right to require additional English proficiency courses taken concurrently with the D.Min. work where deficiencies are found to exist in order to assist students in achieving their potential and to contribute effectively to the seminars. These courses may be taken at Southwestern or in other designated institutions.

Applicants from outside the United States must meet U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Services (INS) regulations to study at Southwestern Seminary in any program. Any approval of the applicant's admission to the D.Min. program is contingent upon the applicant maintaining proper status. The International Student Services Office communicates regularly with the D.Min. program to assure that all INS regulations are followed.
Notification Regarding Admission

Upon receipt of the complete D.Min. application, the D.Min. Office distributes the essays to members of the D.Min. Committee for evaluation. After the transcript(s), reference information, standardized test scores, personal interview and essays have been evaluated, the application will be submitted to the D.Min. Committee for consideration at the regularly scheduled meeting (first Thursday of each month). The committee will either accept an applicant unconditionally, conditionally, or decline the application.

All applicants will be notified of the Committee’s decision in writing by the Associate Dean for the Doctor of Ministry Degree. This notification is usually sent by mail within two weeks of the committee decision. Applicants who are accepted into the program will then receive information regarding registration for the first semester of seminars.

Research and Writing Seminar

All accepted students are accepted provisionally into the D.Min. Program. The provisional status is lifted after successful completion of the Research and Writing Seminar that is conducted via the internet using BlackBoard technology.

The Research and Writing Seminar is a required eight-week internet seminar that is conducted before a student can begin his first year of seminars. The online seminar will be conducted from mid-March to mid-May before the seminar year begins in July. The purpose of the seminar is to both strengthen a student’s writing skill and to facilitate growth in the area of doctoral research. The seminar is graded upon a Pass/Fail basis and students will not be allowed to begin the first year of seminars unless the Research and Writing Seminar has been completed successfully.

Major Areas of Study

The D.Min. curriculum is divided into four areas of vocational interest (majors). Each D.Min. student is required to designate one area as his or her major.

Expository Preaching

The focus of the Expository Preaching major is to train pastors to exegete Scripture accurately, applying biblical truths to culture, training them to communicate skillfully the glory of God.

Thesis Requirements (COLLM 8006 Professional Thesis)

Upon satisfactory completion of all seminar requirements, students are considered in the thesis phase of the D.Min. program and will register for COLLM 8020 Professional Thesis in Progress. Upon satisfactory completion of the thesis and the oral examination students will receive 6 hours credit for COLLM 8006 Professional Thesis.

Termination from the Program

Students may be terminated from the D.Min. program for the following reasons:

1. Failure to complete the program in the allotted time. The program is designed to be completed in four (4) years but the maximum time allotted is six (6) years. This time is calculated from the first semester of enrollment in seminars and terminates the day of graduation for the same calendar semester of the 6th year.
2. Failure to maintain a 3.00 GPA (on a 4.00 scale) throughout the course of the program. Each student is required to maintain a 3.00 GPA (B average) in the D.Min. program.
3. Failure to remain in good standing with the seminary at large. All students of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary are required to adhere to ethical, financial, and academic standards as set forth in the seminary catalog.

Cost of the Program

Due to the Cooperative Program scholarship for Southern Baptist students, the total program cost for Southern Baptists is $8,200.00. The total program cost for non-Southern Baptist students is $11,200.00.

The Program Cost(s) are broken down in the following manner:

A D.Min. student (both Southern Baptist and non-Southern Baptist) will be charged a down payment of $1,000.00 â€“ due by July 1

Year 1 - $2,400.00 per year paid in its entirety by July 11 or divided into twelve monthly payments of $220.00. Note: monthly payments are processed through the FACTS Payment Plan. Additional information is available through the SWBTS Business Office.

Non-SBC students will be charged a yearly payment of $3,400.00 or twelve monthly payments of $311.66.

Year 2 and 3 - $2,400 per year for Southern Baptist students or $3,400 per year for non-Southern Baptist students (due date to be determined).

If a D.Min. student’s program exceeds four years, an additional extension fee of $1,000 per year will be charged to the student. Please note that a student’s program may not exceed six years in total.

Financial assistance is not available through the D.Min. office. Applications for financial assistance may be made through the Student Financial Aid office of the seminary.

All fees and dates are provisional and may be subject to change by the administrative offices of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Graduation Requirements

Students submit professional theses of 100-200 pages in length to the Doctor of Ministry office. The report is to be written in the highest level of professional and academic competence.

This report must be submitted at least 90 calendar days before graduation -- February 1 for Spring commencement and September 1 for Fall commencement. Five copies of the report must be submitted at this time on at least 50% rag cotton acid free paper.

After the report has been read by members of the student's oral exam committee, the student will meet with the oral exam committee (Faculty Supervisor, Field Supervisor, two (2) Faculty Readers).
Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Information regarding the Doctor of Philosophy Degree for the School of Theology which follows is an overview of the basic structure and requirements for completing the degree. Students enrolled in the program follow the current Doctor of Philosophy Degree Handbook, which is provided by the Office of the Associate Dean for the Ph.D. Program.

Purpose

The Ph.D. program prepares persons of exceptional ability and promise to serve as teachers in specialized areas of theology; pastors; chaplains; or denominational leaders in positions such as administrators, editors, authors, in the United States or abroad. Presupposing a general education, the Ph.D. program emphasizes the attainment of expertise in the major, quality research, the development of critical evaluative skills, and significant contribution to the student’s field. Requiring competence in both biblical and non-biblical languages, the program also provides instruction in principles of research and in pedagogy. Doctoral study presupposes a high degree of originality, independence, analytical research, judgment, and skill in articulating findings.

Ph.D. Program Majors

Biblical Studies

- Old Testament
- New Testament

Theological Studies

- Systematic Theology
- Baptist and Free Church Studies
- Reformation Studies

Ethics and Philosophical Studies

- Christian Ethics
- Philosophy of Religion
Preaching and Pastoral Studies

- Preaching
- Pastoral Studies

Ph.D. Program Minors

Ph.D. students in the School of Theology may minor in any area in which the seminary offers majors. Alternatively, Ph.D. students may be allowed to minor in a sub-discipline of their major field. For further information regarding the availability of sub-disciplines, students should contact faculty supervisors who specialize in the area of interest.

All Ph.D. applicants must declare their intended minor at the time of application.

The School of Theology Ph.D. program offers the following minors within its divisions:

Biblical Studies

- Old Testament
- New Testament
- New Testament Theology

Theological Studies

- Systematic Theology
- Baptist and Free Church Studies
- Reformation Studies
- Church History and Historical Theology

Ethics and Philosophical Studies

- Christian Ethics
- Philosophy of Religion

Preaching and Pastoral Studies

- Preaching
- Pastoral Studies

School of Theology Ph.D. majors may minor in an area offered by the School of Evangelism and Missions.

Students must complete the comprehensive bibliography, reading seminars in the minor, and the comprehensive exam in their minor area.

Prerequisites for Admission

Applicants must hold a bachelors degree from an accredited college or university and a masters degree in biblical and theological studies from a regionally accredited college, university, or seminary. Suitable degrees are listed below.

Applicants must have a grade point average of 3.3 or higher in masters-level studies in Bible or theology. If transcripts for completed degree programs are not available, transcripts verifying the possibility of attaining a 3.3 must be submitted before an application will be considered.
Prerequisite Degrees

Acceptable degrees for entrance into the Ph.D. program include the Master of Theology (Th.M.) and the Master of Divinity (M.Div.). The Master of Arts in Theology (M.A.Th.) may be acceptable for some majors depending on the overall content of the degree curriculum in relationship to the desired area of study. All applicants to the program must have attained exegetical competence in Biblical Hebrew and Greek.

Leveling Requirements

Applicants must have completed elective work in their desired field of study beyond the introductory courses required in a standard M.Div. degree. Each applicant’s portfolio will be evaluated by a potential faculty supervisor. Admission decisions rest totally on the strength of the complete portfolio. Those deemed insufficiently prepared will be denied admission. Some may be admitted conditionally on the completion of leveling work prior to matriculation in the program.

In addition to exegetical competence in both Biblical Hebrew and Greek, each division of the School of Theology requires graduate-level preparation that applicants must complete prior to beginning seminars. In such cases, the supervisor over the applicant’s major field, in consultation with the Associate Dean for the Ph.D. Program, determines what leveling course work must be completed on the basis of the applicant’s graduate transcripts.

Modern Language Requirements

Each major in the School of Theology requires modern languages as research tools and determines specific modern language competencies. Most majors require German in addition to another modern language. Applicants who must complete leveling work should pursue modern language studies while doing leveling work.

The Modern Language program at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary offers courses in Theological German, French, Latin, Spanish, and Arabic. The seminary also offers Advanced Logic and statistics.

Incoming students who are missionaries may petition their supervisor and the Associate Dean for the Ph.D. Program to use an appropriate language from their mission field as a research language, provided that the language will serve as a research tool during doctoral studies. Language substitution petitions require the approval of the major supervisor and the Associate Dean for the Ph.D. Program.

The supervisor in the applicant’s major normally assigns two modern languages, based on divisional guidelines, in which the student must attain competency. English may not serve as one of the two research languages. Students are strongly encouraged to follow the “seminar requirements suggested sequence,” completing their research languages at the end of the first year of seminar study. For those who anticipate taking more than three years to complete their seminars, the first research language must be completed at the end of the first year of seminars and the second research language by the conclusion of the second. Normally, students may not enroll in research seminars in the major until both research languages have been completed. Students must document competency either by transcripted hours or a letter from the Director of the Modern Language Program at Southwestern Seminary verifying that the student has successfully passed proficiency examinations. Failure to meet the division’s required modern language competencies results in the student’s termination from the program.

The modern language competencies for each major field include:

Biblical Studies

- German
- French

Theological Studies

- German
- Latin
Ethics and Philosophical Studies

- Intermediate Logic - students must show proficiency in Modal, Symbolic, and Quantification Logic
- German, French, or Latin

Preaching and Pastoral Studies

- German and/or a division approved language related to area of study
- Division approved graduate-level courses in rhetorical theory, public address, or other heuristic discipline

Other Prerequisites

Applicants who have not previously attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary must submit a complete application for admission to the Office of Admissions. All applicants must gain admission to Southwestern Seminary prior to receiving admission to the Ph.D. program.

Current students or alumni of Southwestern Seminary must complete a petition to continue studies or re-enter Southwestern. Petition forms are available from the Office of the Registrar.

Applicants from outside the United States must meet United States Immigration and Naturalization Services regulations to study at Southwestern Seminary. Any approval of the applicant’s admission to the Ph.D. program is contingent upon the applicant maintaining proper status. The International Student Services Office communicates regularly with the Ph.D. program to assure that all INS regulations are followed.

Application Process

Application for admission to the Ph.D. program is made through the Ph.D. Office.

Applicants must submit the following application documents:

- Ph.D. Application Form
- Official Transcripts
- GRE Scores
- TOEFL, TWE, and TSE scores (non-US citizens whose first language is not English)
- Research Document
- Three Academic References

Applicants from institutions outside the United States must submit their transcripts to the World Education Services, P.O. Box 745, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10113-0745; www.wes.org; telephone: 1-800-937-3895; fax: 212-739-6100, for evaluation. The evaluation service sends evaluation results directly to the Ph.D. office.

Each applicant must submit scores from the Graduate Record Exam Standard Examination (GRE). The GRE examination should be taken at least four months prior to the entrance examination and must have been taken no more than five years prior to applying for admission to Southwestern's Ph.D. program. Applicants must take the GRE at a testing center. Southwestern Seminary does not administer the GRE. The GRE may be taken more than once, but only one score will be considered with the application.

For admission, non-US citizens whose first language is not English must take the computer-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the Test of Written English (TWE), and the Test of Spoken English (TSE). The minimum computer-based scores are: TOEFL—250; TWE—5; TSE—50. Non-US citizens who have successfully completed an accredited English-language based undergraduate degree from a North American institution are exempt from this requirement.

Each applicant must submit a research paper on a subject in the student's chosen major either previously prepared (an ungraded copy) or prepared especially for the Doctor of Philosophy application. This paper should be 20-30 pages in length, and should represent the best quality research and writing that the applicant can offer. The form and style should follow the most recent edition of Turabian. The research paper will be used to assess the applicant’s research and writing abilities.
Each applicant must provide three confidential recommendations by former graduate professors. Reference forms are included with the application for the Ph.D. degree. These forms must be submitted separately by the professors or in sealed envelopes over which the professor has signed his or her name across the seal.

Applicants whose application form, research document, standardized test scores, and academic reference forms are posted by the deadline will be invited for an interview and asked to write an examination in the area of their major field. The entrance examination probes the applicant's knowledge in the major field and tests the ability to organize and express those thoughts logically and clearly. The examination essay will be written within a two-hour period in an examination setting. Persons who have completed their application requirements will be notified by the Ph.D. office of the time and date for entrance examinations. Study aids for this exam are available from the office of the Associate Dean for the Ph.D. Program. Professors in the major division will interview all applicants.

Application Timeline

- Preliminary Step
  - Academic year prior to the intended beginning of Ph.D. studies.

- Application Deadline
  - By 5:00 p.m. the last Friday in January. Items mailed must be postmarked by the last Friday in January.

- Intent to Sit for Entrance Exams
  - 2nd Friday in February

- Entrance Exams and Interview
  - Major Exam
    - 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.
  - Interview
    - 10:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
  - Minor Exam
    - 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

  Applicants write the entrance exam in their major field.

  Applicants interview with divisional faculty.

  Applicants write the entrance exam in their minor field.

Admissions Decisions

The applicant's admission to the Ph.D. program does not rest on a single factor but on the strength of the entire portfolio, demonstrating readiness for Ph.D. work. Ph.D. program faculty in the applicant’s major and the Associate Dean for the Ph.D. Program evaluate the applicant’s fitness for doctoral studies. Students will be notified by mail after taking the entrance examinations whether they have been accepted into the Ph.D. program.

Cost of the Program

Each Ph.D. student is required to pay the general matriculation fee and all student fees of the institution as well as the Ph.D. studies fee each semester until the degree has been completed. Non-Southern Baptist students are required to pay an additional fee. Fees are established by the seminary administration, not by the Ph.D. Program, and are subject to change.

Current fees per semester for Ph.D. Students who are Southern Baptist are as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>

Modern language and other leveling courses are not included in this amount. These courses will be billed at the student’s hourly rate.

Financial assistance is not available through the Ph.D. Office. However, a Research Doctoral Grant is provided to Ph.D. and D.M.A. students of good standing during the first eight semesters of their study at Southwestern Seminary. All inquiries regarding the grant or any other financial assistance should be made through the Student Financial Aid Office of the seminary.

Seminar Requirements

At least four research seminars (four hours each) and a major area reading seminar (four hours: two hours per semester for two consecutive semesters) in a particular area of study constitute a major. Two research seminars (four hours each) and a minor field reading seminar (four hours: two hours per semester for two consecutive semesters) in an area of study distinct from the major constitute a minor.

In addition, students take the Graduate Research Seminar (two hours) during the first year of seminars unless they have already taken it as part of masters level study. The Graduate Research Seminar probes the nature and methods of research.

The Teaching in Higher Education Seminar (two hours) falls at the conclusion of seminars. This seminar introduces the standard organization and policies at institutions of higher education. Students also study teaching methods and prepare for practice teaching or tutorial work under the supervision of a professor. Neither the Associate Dean for the Ph.D. Program nor faculty can guarantee that a student will have an opportunity for actual practice teaching or tutorial work.

Comprehensive Examinations

Comprehensive examinations require mastery of the field bibliographies distributed at the beginning of the student’s program. The major and minor supervisors may alter their respective bibliographies throughout the seminar stage, but no later than four months prior to the comprehensive examinations.

Researching and Writing the Dissertation

The Ph.D. dissertation must argue for a clearly articulated thesis which constitutes a contribution to scholarship in its field. It should demonstrate the candidate's ability to design a viable research project, pursue the research in relative independence, and write with clarity and force.

Purpose

The purpose of the School of Evangelism and Missions of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is to provide graduate theological education for students engaging in Evangelism and Missions. To accomplish this task, the curricula are composed of basic biblical, theological, and ministry disciplines in addition to coursework focused specifically on missions and evangelism. These programs are designed to prepare the student for effective ministry both in North America and internationally.

The school seeks to create a context conducive to growth in Christian character, maturity, wisdom, integrity, social awareness, and responsibility. It seeks to strengthen the Christian witness in contemporary society by providing leadership capable of guiding the church in fulfilling its role in the Great Commission.

The school seeks to provide knowledge, skills, and resources for a lifetime of continuing study.

Degree Overview

The Southwestern Master of Divinity with a Concentration in Evangelism, Missions, or Islamic studies is the basic program offered through the School of Evangelism and Missions. This degree program is predicated on a Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent. The Southwestern MDiv prepares students for the broadest range of Christian ministries. Students receive training in classical theological disciplines such as Old Testament, New Testament, church history and historical theology, systematic theology, ethics, and philosophy, as well as applied disciplines such as pastoral ministry, preaching, evangelism, and missions. The MDiv is the only approved first master's degree for a student preparing for a pastoral or preaching ministry, as well as any other ministry largely comprised of biblical teaching.

The Master of Divinity with a concentration in International Church Planting provides a solid foundation of classical studies and a missions focus on church planting. This concentration equips students to start and develop churches abroad. This unique degree allows students to complete their course of study while serving off-campus. The church planting experience occurs under the auspices of the IMB's International Service Corps (2 years) or career apprentice program (3 years). The first-hand ministry experience acquired off-campus aids in fulfilling requirements for IMB missionary candidates.

The Master of Divinity with a concentration in North American Church Planting provides a solid foundation of classical studies and specific training in church planting. The degree equips students to start and develop effective churches in the many contexts of North America. This outstanding degree allows students to complete their course of study while serving off-campus as a church starter. The church planting experience occurs under the auspices of a partnership between the North American Mission Board and Baptist state conventions cooperating with the Southern Baptist Convention. Often, the planter deploys under the Nehemiah Project for Church Planting, a two-year mentored field experience with specific support components designed to ensure maximum learning and success in planting a new church.

The Master of Arts in Islamic Studies seeks to prepare cross-cultural ministers who desire specialized preparation in the area of Islamic Studies.

The Master of Arts in Missiology is an in-service degree designed for missionary practitioners who desire mid-career training in order to develop specialized skills in their particular area of cross-cultural ministry and whose focus is upon fulfilling the Great Commission. A project or thesis related to an important aspect of the ministry of the candidate is required.

The Master of Theology degree allows students to gain a high level of competency in one major area of study after completion of the Master of Divinity. The majors offered in the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions are evangelism, missions, and church planting. The degree, including a thesis, must be completed within three years.

The Doctor of Ministry program is designed to enhance the understanding and practice of ministry in the areas of evangelism and missions for those currently engaged in positions of ministerial leadership.

The Doctor of Philosophy program prepares persons of exceptional ability and promise to serve as teachers in specialized areas of evangelism and missions; pastors; chaplains; or denominational leaders in positions such as administrators, editors, authors, in the United States and abroad.

Master of Divinity

The Southwestern MDiv prepares students for the broadest range of Christian ministries. Students receive training in classical theological disciplines such as Old Testament, New Testament, church history and historical theology, systematic theology, ethics, and philosophy, as well as applied disciplines such as pastoral ministry, preaching, evangelism, and missions. In addition, students may use elective hours to pursue concentrations in any school at Southwestern in accordance with their ministry goals and academic interests. The MDiv is the only approved first master's degree for a student preparing for a pastoral or preaching ministry, as well as any other ministry largely comprised of biblical teaching.

\(^1\)Elementary Greek I and II (GREEK 3313 and 3323, 3 hours each; or GREEK3356, 6 hours) are prerequisite for the degree. Students who have completed equivalent courses should contact the Assistant Dean for Biblical Studies to determine the necessity of completing the courses.

\(^2\)Students will be enrolled in these practicums automatically when registering for the parent course above them in the degree plan.

\(^3\)Female students should substitute WOMST 4003.

\(^4\)Students preparing for a ministry which includes preaching must complete PRCHG 3323. The course fulfills 3 hours of concentration and free elective credit.

\(^5\)Students seeking a concentration take specific courses in lieu of elective hours. Some concentrations require more than 18 hours, see below for details.

\(^6\)Students may take up to 4 hours in class piano, class voice, applied music, or ensemble music as elective credit.
Concentrations in Evangelism, Missions, and Islamic Studies

Master of Divinity with a Concentration in International Church Planting

Purpose

The Master of Divinity with a concentration in International Church Planting provides a solid foundation of classical studies and an international missions focus on church planting. This concentration equips students to start and develop churches abroad. The uniqueness of this degree allows students to complete their course of study while serving off-campus. The church planting experience occurs under the auspices of the Southern Baptist Convention International Mission Board's International Service Corps program or Career Apprentice program. The first-hand ministry experience acquired off-campus fulfills requirements for missionary candidates with SBC mission boards.
Entrance Requirements

The student must fulfill the requirements for admission in the Master of Divinity degree and obtain the approval of the designated faculty advisor (IMB) to be officially admitted in the Church Planting Concentration. Successful completion of the degree presupposes successful appointment by the International Mission Board to do the field portion of the degree.

Educational Method

This Concentration combines a strong theoretical emphasis with practical field-based learning. After completing basic Master of Divinity courses on campus, students complete the field-based portion of the degree, including mentorship courses, while serving on a two or three-year off-campus field assignment abroad under the supervision of a veteran missionary or church planter. Students will complete a maximum of 21 hours of study (including mentorships) during the two or three-year field assignment.

Church Planting Experience

Students must meet the requirements for missionary appointment and be appointed by the IMB. The appointment must involve a minimum of two years of service. The placement in most cases must include: (1) direct involvement with starting new congregations, developing a strategy for a people group, or promoting a church planting movement of multiple congregations, and (2) a carefully monitored supervisory relationship with a veteran church planter or missionary. Students should apply for appointment at least two years before the proposed beginning date of missionary service and should carefully plan the sequence of courses in order to coordinate with the proposed beginning date of missionary service.

\(^1\)Because of the necessity of spending only two years on the Southwestern campus, completion of both biblical languages, while crucially important for Bible study and teaching, poses a significant challenge. Accordingly, the student may, with the permission of the Dean of the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions, complete either four semesters of Greek or three semesters of Hebrew. As incentive and assistance extended to church planters to take both biblical languages using summers and interterm opportunities, Southwestern extends to any student who takes both biblical languages a scholarship to cover the second language plus a scholarship to cover an additional twelve hours of field-based requirements. If the GREEK ONLY option is chosen, then students will add 9 hours of missions electives to their degree plan to equal 92 hours total for the degree. If the HEBREW ONLY option is chosen, students will add 6 hours of missions electives to their degree plan to equal 92 hours total for the degree.

2Elementary Greek is a required pre-requisite. It is considered level Greek. Thus, if a student is admitted who is deficient in this prerequisite, it will be necessary to take first year Greek in addition to the requirements stated here for no graduate level credit. So functionally, the program would entail 92 graduate hours plus 6 non-credit prerequisite hours. 68 hours plus the 6 hours of non-credit Greek are taken PRIOR to field departure. Students are advised to plan carefully and use one of the summer sessions (either before first year of between first and second years) to take the first year of non-credit, prerequisite Greek. If students enter with a year of undergraduate Greek in college, then these classes will not be necessary.

4 Regional Study course is offered the Fall semester of the year BEFORE field deployment and is specific to the area in which students will live and work. NOTE: an international mission trip practicum may be substituted for this course if it is to the region designated for the student's forthcoming deployment and has appropriate reading as well as written assignments.

Students interested in more complete information regarding the program should contact the World Missions Center at (817) 923-1921 extension 7500 or email InternationalCP@swbts.edu.

Master of Divinity with a Concentration in North American Church Planting

Purpose

The Southwestern MDiv degree concentration in North American church planting provides a solid foundation of classical studies and specific training in church planting. The degree equips students to start and develop effective churches in the many contexts of North America. This outstanding degree allows students to complete their course of study while serving off-campus as a church starter. The church planting experience occurs under the auspices of a partnership between the North American Mission Board and Baptist state conventions cooperating with the Southern Baptist Convention. Often, the planter deploys under the Nehemiah Project for Church Planting, a two-year, mentored field experience with specific support components designed to ensure maximum learning and success in planting a new church.

Entrance Requirements

Students must fulfill the requirements for admission into the Southwestern MDiv degree program and obtain approval from the designated faculty advisor to be officially admitted into the North American Church Planting concentration.

Educational Method

This concentration combines a strong theoretical emphasis with practical, field-based learning. After completing the basic master of divinity core on campus, students complete the field-based portion of the degree, including mentorship courses, while serving a two-year or three-year field assignment in North America under the supervision of a veteran missionary or church planter. Students may complete a maximum of 20 hours of study (including mentorships) during the two or three-year field assignment.

Church Planting Experience

Students in most cases must meet the requirements for missionary appointment and be appointed by NAMB, or be approved by the faculty advisor for an equivalent supervised ministry experience. The appointment must involve a minimum of two years of service. The placement in most cases must include: (1) direct involvement with starting a new congregation, developing a strategy for a people group, or promoting a church planting movement of multiple congregations, and (2) a carefully monitored supervisory relationship with a veteran church planter or missionary. Students should apply for appointment at least two years before the proposed beginning date of church planting service and should carefully plan the sequence of courses in order to coordinate with the proposed beginning date of their church planting assignment.
Prerequisite

The student must have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.

\(^1\)Greek 3313 and 3323 (3 hours each) or Greek 3356 (6 hours) are prerequisite for the degree. Greek 3356 (6 hours) may be taken in lieu of the two 3 hour courses. Students who have completed equivalent courses should contact the Assistant Dean for Biblical Studies to determine the necessity of completing the courses.

\(^2\)Students must enroll in this practicum during the same semester as EVANG 3303.
Female students should substitute WOMST 4003 Women's Ministries in the Local Church. Students who have completed a 3-hour university-level Christian Ministry course with a minimum grade of "B" may substitute a three-hour Pastoral Ministry elective with prior approval of the Assistant Dean for Preaching and Pastoral Studies.

Students normally take MISSN 3000 during the semester immediately preceding the beginning of the missionary assignment. The course is a non-credit prerequisite for MISSN 5602.

The NAMB requires MISSN 4393 and MISSN 5353 for students serving in the Nehemiah Project church planting program.

Students interested in more complete information regarding the program should contact Dr. Dan Morgan at dmorgan@swbts.edu or call (817) 923-1921 extension 6600.

Master of Arts in Islamic Studies

Purpose

The Master of Arts in Islamic Studies is designed to prepare cross-cultural ministers who desire specialized preparation in the area of Islamic Studies. Degree candidates will obtain more effective skills for reaching and making Christian disciples of people with an Islamic background.

Admissions Requirements

To be admitted as a candidate for the M.A. in Islamic Studies, a student must fulfill the following requirements:

Thesis

The thesis must be a formal research paper of no less than 80 and no more than 100 pages on a topic relevant to ministry among people with an Islamic background. It must be approved by the Program Director. In consultation with the Program Director, a student may propose specialized study in courses related to future ministry needs. Instead of a thesis, a student may engage in a supervised ministry project and report the results of a ministry to Islamic people.

- A bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or its equivalent;
- Experience in ministry to persons of Islamic background or a clear statement of purpose to do so in the future; and
- Academic approval by the Director of the Islamic Studies program.

Master of Arts in Missiology

Purpose

The Master of Arts in Missiology is designed with a specialized approach to practical ministry for students who need to develop effective skills for fulfilling the Great Commission. The degree allows missionary candidates to integrate their concentrated theological preparation and direct missionary service. The degree will prepare prospective missionaries who will incorporate two years of service into their program of studies. The degree is of particular interest to missionaries who have completed 20 to 30 hours of graduate theological studies, served on the field for two years, and need to complete a Master's degree in order to serve with a missions sending agency.1

Admission

To be admitted to the degree, a student must fulfill the following prerequisites:

- A bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or equivalent.
- A clear statement of intent to serve in a missions-related ministry.
- A minimum of two years of missionary experience, or a written commitment to complete such experience before graduation.2

Integration of Theory and Practice

The degree requires students to integrate academic inquiry and missions practice in the exercise of a cross-cultural ministry. Candidates with prior experience evaluate their missions service under faculty supervision. Candidates without prior experience complete three semesters of field ministry with a mentor. Any student who discovers that the two years of missionary service requirement cannot be fulfilled must transfer to another degree program.

Academic Advising

The flexible degree requirements allow each student to develop an academic program to meet specific needs relevant to a particular ministry setting. In consultation with academic advisors, each student constructs a plan of study that addresses anticipated needs in practical ministry. The academic advisor guides the student in course selection and supervises the thesis, project, or equivalent specialized courses. The role of faculty in academic advising allows for a mentored approach to seminary education, as each candidate stresses development in areas relevant to anticipated ministry needs.

Thesis, Project, or Specialized Courses

The degree promotes original academic and field-based research in the field of missiology through the thesis/project requirement. The thesis must be a formal research paper of 80 to 100 pages. A written report on a ministry project should be of similar length. The topic for a thesis or project requires the approval of the academic advisor on the basis of a 5-10 page prospectus with outline and bibliography.

In consultation with the academic advisor a student may choose to substitute six credit hours of classes that provide specific skills useful to the student’s ministry setting.

1 Total for MA in Islamic Studies with Specialized Courses will be 70 hours. Must have supervisor approval.

2 Candidates with previous seminary studies can apply up to 27 credit hours toward the degree in consultation with the Program Director.

Purpose
The most advanced theological degree at the master's level, the Master of Theology (Th.M.) allows students to gain a high level of competency in one concentrated area of study after completion of the Master of Divinity. The Th.M. enhances ministerial practice, preparation for doctoral studies, and further mastery of a specialized discipline.

Entrance Requirements
The student must have completed a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent from an accredited seminary or divinity school with a minimum GPA of 3.0. The Th.M. assumes exegetical competency in Greek and Hebrew. A student who has not developed exegetical competency in Greek and Hebrew may complete prerequisite language courses at the beginning of work toward the degree.

New applicants to the seminary should indicate the desire to pursue the Th.M. on application materials. Current SWBTS students should fill out a Continuing Studies form available in the Registrar's office and include an explanation of reasons for pursuing the Th.M.
Degree Requirements

The Master of Theology consists of a 24-hour curriculum including: the Graduate Research Seminar (2 hours), one Ph.D. Reading Seminar (4 hours), three advanced masters electives (4 hours each) in a chosen major, Thesis Research (2 hours), and Thesis Writing (4 hours). A student may complete a 26-hour non-thesis track Th.M. by taking two additional advanced masters electives. The major includes courses from one study area in the School of Evangelism and Missions. All course work must be completed with a B- or better. No course with a grade of below B- will count toward the degree.

Thesis Track

Graduate Research Seminar - 2 hours
Ph.D. Reading Seminar in the Major Area - 4 hours (2 hours in fall and 2 hours in spring)
Advanced Masters Electives - 12 hours (three 4-hour courses)
Thesis Research - 2 hours
Thesis - 4 hours
Total: 24 hours

Non-Thesis Track

Graduate Research Seminar - 2 hours
Ph.D. Reading Seminar in the Major Area - 4 hours (2 hours in fall and 2 hours in spring)
Advanced Master's Electives - 20 hours (five 4-hour courses)
Total: 26 hours

The major includes courses from one of the areas in the School of Evangelism and Missions: Evangelism, Missions, or Islamic Studies.

The student must complete the Graduate Research seminar and begin the Ph.D. Reading Seminar during the first fall semester of course work. In addition to the normal requirements for each course, the student must prepare a research paper of at least 20 pages in each advanced masters electives.

Thesis

The Th.M. thesis should demonstrate the student's ability to design a viable research project, pursue the research in relative independence, and write with clarity and force. An acceptable thesis should go beyond the description of data and include critical evaluation and interpretative judgment. The thesis must address a topic in the student's concentration. The Southwestern Seminary Manual of Style serves as the style guide for the thesis.

During the semester in which the student registers for Thesis Research, the student selects a thesis supervisor and completes a thesis prospectus. The prospectus, not to exceed ten pages, must be approved by the thesis supervisor before the student begins to write the thesis. The approved prospectus must be submitted to the Associate Dean's office. The student must work closely with the thesis supervisor throughout all stages of thesis work.

The student must submit the thesis at least 60 days prior to the anticipated date of graduation. The thesis supervisor and second reader will evaluate the thesis and determine the grade (passing grades: B- and above). A student who receives a failing grade will have an opportunity to revise and resubmit the thesis during the following semester provided that the time limitation has not expired.

Maintaining Status/Time Limitations

The Th.M. is offered only on the Fort Worth campus. All requirements, including the thesis, must be completed within three years of entrance into the program.

Transfers

No courses may be transferred into the Th.M.
A Th.M. graduate who pursues a Ph.D. in the School of Evangelism and Missions may apply the Graduate Research Seminar and the Ph.D. Reading Seminar toward requirements for the Ph.D. degree. The thesis may also apply toward requirements for the Ph.D. degree.

Additional Information

For additional information about the Master of Theology, contact the Associate Dean for Masters Degrees by phone at (817) 923-1921 ext. 6750, by email at dsanchez@swbts.edu, or by mail at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, P.O. Box 22356, Fort Worth, Texas, 76122.

Doctor of Ministry

Information regarding the Doctor of Ministry Degree for the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions which follows is an overview of the basic structure and requirements for completing the degree. Students enrolled in the program follow the current Doctor of Ministry Degree Handbook, which is provided by the Office of the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs.

Purpose

The Doctor of Ministry program of the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions is designed to enhance the understanding and practice of ministry in the areas of evangelism and missions for those currently engaged in positions of ministerial or missions leadership. The course of study will broaden the historical perspective, deepen the theological reflection, and develop the professional skill of both pastoral and mission leaders to a high degree of competence and excellence; preparing them to take major roles in leadership development and strategic expansion of the Kingdom in their sphere of service. The program is designed for students with academic ability that gives promise of excellence in ministry. It is structured to allow students to continue their present ministry while pursuing the D.Min. degree.

Special Features of Southwestern’s D.Min. Program

Collegial Support

Southwestern’s program emphasizes the importance of a relational or cohort system of education. A student will be assigned to a cohort based upon the individual’s field of service and geographical proximity to encourage interaction and mutual accountability throughout the program cycle.

Current Technology

Southwestern utilizes the internet through educational programs such as Blackboard, which allows the students in an individual cohort to maintain contact with each other as well as the professor of the seminar. A computer with internet access is a required component of Southwestern’s D.Min. program.

Educational Mentoring

During the first or second year of seminars, each student will select a faculty mentor who will also serve as the thesis supervisor. The supervisor’s role will include the evaluation of a student’s prospectus and thesis report as well as providing additional consultation on various ministry issues as needed. The supervisor should also be an individual who has specific expertise in the thesis area.

Ministry Applications

One of the purposes of receiving a Doctor of Ministry degree is to enhance an individual’s skills and resources in the actual field of ministry. Students will utilize the lessons taught in the classroom and develop them into skills in their ministry location. Therefore, the program requires students to remain in active ministry while they pursue their degree.

Admission
Prerequisites

Individuals desiring application in the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions Doctor of Ministry program at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary must meet the following requirements before they are eligible to apply to the D.Min. Program.

Applicants who have not previously attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary must submit a complete application for admission to the Office of Admissions. General admission application forms can be found online at www.swbts.edu. All applicants must gain admission to Southwestern Seminary prior to receiving admission to the D.Min. program.

Current students or alumni of Southwestern Seminary must complete a Continued Studies Request or a Former Student Enrollment Update Request. These forms are available from the Office of the Registrar.

All D.Min. applicants must have a Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree or its equivalent from a regionally or Association of Theological Schools (ATS) accredited institution. A Masters of Arts in Christian Education may be considered if the student has completed the theological core requirements of the Master of Divinity degree from an accredited seminary. All students not meeting the M.Div. requirements are invited to submit their transcripts for evaluation and determination of any additional course work necessary to satisfy the requirements for admission.

The academic preparation of M.A. graduates seeking entrance to the program will be examined and determined on an individual basis as to whether M.Div. equivalency has been achieved. Applicants with a B.A. degree in religious studies, Bible, or a similar field may also submit a transcript of that coursework in order to provide a more complete picture of their academic preparation, but in no instance may courses taken toward an undergraduate degree be counted toward the three years of masters work. A student not meeting equivalency requirements may take additional masters-level coursework to achieve this equivalency. Such coursework will be considered leveling work. Students may not enroll in a doctoral seminar in a discipline in which leveling work is incomplete.

ATS guidelines state that the prerequisite for entry into a D.Min. program is completion of an ATS accredited M.Div. or its equivalent.

Three years (72 semester hours minimum) of masters-level work, including the following five areas, satisfy equivalency for an M.A. degree.

All Required Language Work as Specified by Southwestern Seminary

The course work in the Master of Divinity or other masters-level work must meet the following language requirements – one full year of Hebrew and two years of Greek (Elementary and New Testament). Please note, however, that an applicant without the minimum language requirements may complete the requirements by taking additional hours in the Biblical languages that they are lacking.

Applicants must have a minimum grade point average of 3.00 on a scale of 4.00 in masters-level courses. Applicants with less than a 3.00 may receive conditional admission, at the discretion of the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs. Applicants wishing exception to the required 3.00 GPA rule must submit a letter to the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs asking for the exception and explaining any unusual circumstances that contributed to the low scholarship level attained during their masters-level work. The applicant will also need, in addition to the letter requesting an exception, to submit original copies of MAT and/or GRE test scores to the Doctoral Programs office.

The applicant must have demonstrated vocational competencies through acceptable work experiences. Persons seeking admission must have served in an acceptable vocational ministry position for at least three years after graduation with the M.Div. degree or its equivalents.
Applicants must be employed or hold an official position in vocational Christian ministry during the time they are enrolled in the degree. Exceptions can be made for special circumstance, such as missionaries on furlough or international students who will return to their home countries to complete the Thesis.

Application Process

When to Apply

Applicants must submit all required documents for D.Min. application to the Doctoral Programs office in the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions by February 1. Applications are good for one year from the date received.

How to Apply

- Applications for the D.Min. program may be requested by contacting the Doctoral Programs office, SWBTS, Box 22667, Fort Worth, Texas 76122, 817-923-1921, ext. 6476, or evang&missndocumentalprogram@swbts.ed

- Applicants are required to submit official transcripts for all masters-level degrees and coursework that has been completed. The official transcript should be sent directly to the Doctoral Programs office.

- Applicants must submit an Autobiographical Essay (10 pages maximum) and a Research Paper (10 pages minimum), which will be used to evaluate the applicant’s qualifications for doctoral work in areas of writing and reflective ability, personal background, and ministry experience.
  - Each paper should be formatted according to The Southwestern Seminary Manual of Style. Current SWBTS students may receive this document from the Gold Card office. Other applicants may request examples from the Doctoral Programs office. Both of these papers will be evaluated with regard to their content, grammar, integration of materials, and form. It is suggested that students who are unfamiliar with the style requirements or for whom English is not their native language, have their essays proofread for English grammar, form, and style by someone experienced in such matters.
  - The autobiographical essay will include:
    - primary life events (and the meanings attached with them);
    - significant persons and relationships (including role models, the impact of the family of origin, and the nuclear family);
    - the minister's understanding of his or her spiritual pilgrimage (particularly focusing on conversion, times of doubt or struggle, and growth experiences);
    - the minister's understanding of motivation and call to ministry (include significant persons and events in that process);
    - a brief history of both secular and ministry-related experiences (significant difficulties, successes, and “epiphanies” about ministry).
  - Please note: The applicant is encouraged to write this essay using the informal, first person point-of-view in order to make the paper more personal.
  - The research paper will address the following areas:
    - ability to do research and analysis;
    - ability to interact with the original language(s);
    - clear and succinct skill in developing and proving a thesis statement.
  - Please note: The research paper may be from a previous masters-level assignment (i.e., exegetical paper)

- Applicants must provide three confidential recommendations. Two references must be from individuals who are able to evaluate the applicant's present ministry performance. Ministry references are not allowed from individuals over whom the applicant plays a supervisory role. One reference is to be from a former masters-level professor who has personal knowledge of the applicant’s academic abilities. These forms must be submitted separately by the recommenders or in sealed envelopes with the recommender’s signature across the seal.

- Applicants must submit the Statement of Ministry Endorsement Form indicating that the applicant's place of service is supportive of the applicant's intention to pursue doctoral work.

- Applicants must also include a non-refundable application fee of $20.00. Make checks payable to Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. A letter acknowledging receipt of the application materials will be sent to the applicant along with the application fee receipt.
Prior to final approval, applicants must schedule a personal interview with the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs. The applicant’s spouse (if applicable) should also attend this interview.

International Students

For admission, all non-US citizens are required to take the internet-based Test of English as a Foreign Language. The internet-based required score is 90. Those who score less than 90 may not enter the D.Min. program, those who score between 90 and 99 may enter the program conditionally, and those who score 100 or above may be admitted unconditionally. Non-US citizens who have successfully completed an accredited English-language based bachelor’s degree from a North American institution are exempt from this requirement.

In addition to a passing TOEFL score, the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs will reserve the right to require additional English proficiency courses taken concurrently with the D.Min. work where deficiencies are found to exist in order to assist students in achieving their potential and to contribute effectively to the seminars. These courses may be taken at Southwestern or in other designated institutions.

Applicants from institutions outside the United States must submit their transcripts to the World Education Services, PO Box 745, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10113-0745; www.wes.org; telephone: 1-800-937-3895; fax: 212-739-6100, for evaluation. The evaluation service sends evaluation results directly to the Doctoral Programs office.

Applicants from outside the United States must meet U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Services (INS) regulations to study at Southwestern Seminary in any program. Any approval of the applicant's admission to the D.Min. program is contingent upon the applicant maintaining proper status. The International Student Services office communicates regularly with the D.Min. program to assure that all INS regulations are followed.

Consideration Process

Upon receipt of the complete D.Min. application, the Doctoral Programs office distributes the essays to the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions faculty for evaluation. After the transcript(s), reference information, standardized test scores, personal interview, and essays have been evaluated, the application will be considered. The faculty will either recommend declining, conditionally accepting, or unconditionally accepting the applicant to the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs. While the faculty’s recommendation is normally accepted, should the Associate Dean decide not to accept their recommendation, he should do so only after further consultation with the supervisors and the approval of the Dean.

The Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs will notify all applicants in writing of the decision. This notification is usually sent by mail within two weeks of the decision. Applicants who are accepted into the program will then receive information regarding registration for the first semester of seminars.

Conditional Admission

Occasionally applicants may be admitted to the D.Min. program conditionally with the understanding that their conditional status will be reviewed at a later date to remove the condition or terminate the student’s further participation in the program. Circumstances for conditional admittance include such things as a marginally acceptable Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score or a lower than required grade point average (GPA).

Curriculum

Overall Program Curriculum

Students participate in three year-long seminars and one year of Thesis development and writing. Prior to beginning seminars, students participate in an orientation to the D.Min. program and training in research, writing, and prospectus development.

Each seminar is structured for a variety of interaction in order to give a comprehensive and exhaustive examination of a particular issue of study. Typically students meet on-campus in July for two weeks of lectures and coursework with a selected cohort. This session may be preceded by online Blackboard instruction and assignments. The on-campus segment of a seminar is followed by readings and other assignments throughout the year, including participation in two, week-long, off-campus learning activities (one in fall and one in spring). These activities are arranged between the student, faculty supervisor, and Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs. These activities are integrated into a cycle of pre-event readings, post-event research papers, and critical review/comment by others in the cohort or sub-cohort. Coursework and dialogue throughout the year is primarily maintained through online interaction.

Students successfully completing the three years of seminar study progress to the thesis stage. The three years of seminars are designed to prepare the student for the actual task of preparing a Thesis prospectus; during the second and third years, students, with the help of their supervisors, should identify possible Thesis topics, research, and develop the Thesis outline. Students should submit a prospectus for approval at the end of the third year. The fourth year focuses on conducting, writing, and defending the final Thesis.

Majors of Study

North American Evangelism and Missions

Designed for advanced training in vital facets of contemporary evangelism and missions. This major enables students to translate academic and professional insights into skills for intercultural service, cutting-edge outreach, healthy church growth, church planting, and strategy development in North America. Contemporary challenges call for well informed, experienced and responsible church leadership, in addition to new strategies for responding to the Great Commission.

Cost of the Program

Due to the Cooperative Program scholarship for Southern Baptist students, the total program cost for Southern Baptists is $8,200.00. The total program cost for non-Southern Baptist students is $11,200.00.
The Program Costs are broken down in the following manner:

- A first-year D.Min. student (both Southern Baptist and non-Southern Baptist) will be charged a down payment of $1,000.00 - due by July 1.
- Year 1, 2, and 3 - $2,400.00 per year paid in its entirety in July or divided into twelve monthly payments of $200.00.
  Note: Monthly payments are processed through the FACTS Payment Plan. Additional information is available through the SWBTS Business Office.
  - Non-SBC students will be charged a yearly payment of $3,400.00 or twelve monthly payments of $283.33.

If a D.Min. student's program exceeds four years, an extension fee of $1,000 per year will be charged to the student. Please note that a student's program may not exceed six years in total.

Financial assistance is not available through the Doctoral Programs office. Applications for financial assistance may be made through the Student Financial Aid office of the seminary.

All fees and dates are provisional and may be subject to change at any time by the administrative offices of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Additional Information

Students interested in more complete information regarding the program should contact the Doctoral Programs office, SWBTS Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions, PO Box 22667, Fort Worth, TX 76122-0667, email evang&missndoctoralprogram@swbts.edu, or call (817) 923-1921 extension 6476.

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Information regarding the Doctor of Philosophy Degree for the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions which follows is an overview of the basic structure and requirements for completing the degree. Students enrolled in the program follow the current Doctor of Philosophy Degree Handbook, which is provided by the Office of the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs.

Purpose

The Ph.D. program in the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions prepares persons of exceptional ability and promise to serve as teachers in specialized areas of evangelism and missions; pastors; chaplains; or denominational leaders in positions such as administrators, editors, authors, in the United States or abroad. Presupposing a general education, the Ph.D. program emphasizes the attainment of expertise in the major, quality research, the development of critical evaluative skills, and significant contribution to the student’s field. Requiring competence in both biblical and non-biblical languages, the program also provides instruction in principles of research and in pedagogy. Doctoral study presupposes a high degree of originality, independence, analytical research, judgment, and skill in articulating findings.

Admission

Prerequisites

Applicants must have a grade point average of 3.3 or higher in master's-level studies in Bible or theology. If transcripts for completed degree programs are not available, transcripts verifying the possibility of attaining a 3.3 must be submitted before an application will be considered.

Applicants must hold a bachelors degree from an accredited college or university and a master's degree in biblical and theological studies from a regionally accredited college, university, or seminary. Suitable degrees are listed below.

Prerequisite Degrees

Acceptable degrees for entrance into the Ph.D. program include the Master of Theology (Th.M.) and the Master of Divinity (M.Div.). The Master of Arts in Theology (M.A.Th.) may be acceptable for some majors depending on the overall content of the degree curriculum in relationship to the desired area of study. All applicants to the program must have attained exegetical competence in Biblical Hebrew and Greek.
Leveling Requirements

Applicants must have completed elective work in their desired field of study beyond the introductory courses required in a standard M.Div. degree. Each applicant’s portfolio will be evaluated by a potential faculty supervisor. Admission decisions rest totally on the strength of the complete portfolio. Those deemed insufficiently prepared will be denied admission. Some may be admitted conditionally on the completion of leveling work prior to matriculation in the program.

Application Process

Doctor of Philosophy applicants must gain admission to Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary prior to receiving admission to the Ph.D. program. Application for admission to the Ph.D. program is made through the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions Doctoral Programs office. Applicants must submit the following:

- Ph.D. Application Form
- Official Transcripts
- GRE Scores
- TOEFL, TWE, and TSE scores (non-US citizens whose first language is not English)
- Research Document
- Three Academic References

Each applicant must submit scores from the Graduate Record Exam (GRE). The GRE should be taken at least four months prior to the entrance examination and must have been taken no more than five years prior to applying for admission to the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions, Ph.D. program. Applicants must take the GRE at a testing center. Southwestern Seminary does not administer the GRE. The GRE may be taken more than once, but only one score will be considered with the application.

Each applicant must submit a research paper on a subject in the student's chosen major either previously prepared (an ungraded copy) or prepared especially for the Doctor of Philosophy application. This paper should be 20-30 pages in length, and should represent the best quality research and writing that the applicant can offer. The form and style should follow the most recent edition of Turabian. The research paper will be used to assess the applicant’s research and writing abilities.

Each applicant must provide three confidential recommendations by former graduate-level professors. Reference forms are included with the application for the Ph.D. degree. These forms must be submitted separately by the professors or in sealed envelopes over which the professor has signed his or her name across the seal.

International Students

For admission, all non-USA citizens whose first language is not English must take the computer-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) (minimum score 233), the Test of Written English (TWE) (minimum score 5), and the Test of Spoken English (TSE) (minimum score 50). Non-US citizens who have successfully completed an accredited English-language based undergraduate degree from a North American institution are exempt from this requirement.

In addition to a passing TOEFL score, the Associate Dean for Doctoral Programs will reserve the right to require additional English proficiency courses taken concurrently with the Ph.D. work where deficiencies are found to exist in order to assist students in achieving their potential and to contribute effectively to the seminars. These courses may be taken at Southwestern or in other designated institutions.

Applicants from institutions outside the United States must submit their transcripts to the World Education Services, PO Box 745, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10113-0745; www.wes.org; telephone: 1-800-937-3895; fax: 212-739-6100, for evaluation. The evaluation service sends evaluation results directly to the Doctoral Programs office.

International students must meet U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Services (INS) regulations to study at Southwestern Seminary in any program. Any approval of the applicant's admission to the Ph.D. program is contingent upon the applicant maintaining proper status. The International Student Services Office communicates regularly with the Ph.D. program to assure that all INS regulations are followed.
Entrance Examination and Interview

Applicants whose application form, research document, standardized test scores, and academic reference forms are posted by the deadline will be invited for an interview and asked to write examinations in the area of their major and minor fields. The entrance examinations probe the applicant's knowledge in the major and minor fields and test the ability to organize and express those thoughts logically and clearly. The examination essays will be written within a two-hour period in an examination setting. Persons who have completed their application requirements will be notified by the Doctoral Programs office of the time and date for entrance examinations. Study aids for this exam are available from the office of the Associate Dean for the Doctoral Programs. Professors in the major division will interview all applicants.

Application Timeline

At the time of publication, application dates were under review. Please contact the Evangelism and Missions Doctoral Programs Office at 817-923-1921 ext. 4355 for more details.

Degree Requirements

The Ph.D. program is a 44 hour program comprised of reading seminars, research seminars, a comprehensive examination, and the submission and defense of a dissertation. Students select a major and minor at the time of application.

Majors

The Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions Ph.D. program offers the following majors:

- Evangelism
- Missions

Minors

Ph.D. students in the Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions may minor in an area offered by the School of Theology or any other area in which the seminary offers majors. Alternatively, Ph.D. students may choose to minor in a sub-discipline of their major field (Evangelism or Missions). For further information regarding the availability of sub-disciplines, students should contact faculty supervisors who specialize in the area of interest.

Required Seminars

- Graduate Research Seminar (2 hours)
- Reading Seminar in Major Area (4 hours over two semesters)
- Reading Seminar in Minor Area (4 hours over two semesters)
- Six Research Seminars (4 hours each, normally 4 research seminars in the major and 2 research seminars in the minor)
- Teaching in Higher Education (2 hours)

Comprehensive Examinations

The comprehensive examinations require mastery of the field bibliographies distributed at the beginning of the student's program. The major and minor supervisors may alter their respective bibliographies throughout the seminar stage, but no later than four months prior to the comprehensive examinations. Students are expected to continually prepare for the comprehensive examination throughout the program.

Dissertation

The Ph.D. dissertation must argue for a clearly articulated thesis which constitutes a contribution to scholarship in its field. It should demonstrate the candidate's ability to design a viable research project, pursue the research in relative independence, and write with clarity and force.

Additional Information

Students interested in more complete information regarding the program should contact the Doctoral Programs, SWBTS Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions, P.O. Box 22667, Fort Worth, TX 76122-0667, email evang&missndoctoralprogram@swbts.edu, or call (817) 923-1921 extension 6476.

Purpose

The purpose of the School of Educational Ministries is to develop spiritual leaders who will fulfill the Great Commission by equipping and mobilizing people to worship, evangelize, disciple, and minister through the educational ministries of the church.

The school finds its charge in Ephesians 4:11: “It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God’s people for works of service so that the body of Christ may be built up.” Christian education is equipping and mobilizing God’s people to serve Him.

To accomplish this task, the school provides a Christ-centered, biblically-based education that enables students to integrate faith and practice. The talented faculty of the School of Educational Ministries brings to the classroom a rich background of effective ministry in local churches, mission fields, and counseling practices. Teaching is practical and experiential. Faculty members are actively involved in ministry, continuing to serve in church staff and ministry positions.

We are committed to equip students for lives of spiritual growth and moral integrity. Our graduates serve faithfully in a variety of leadership roles in the church, in denominational agencies and institutions, and on national and international mission fields.

We believe personal relationships are essential for spiritual growth and effective ministry. In a community of faith, students are encouraged to develop mentor relationships with faculty, staff, and ministers in the area. Supervised experiences provide practical training that enables students to learn innovative strategies for evangelizing and ministering to a changing world.

Degree Overview

The Master of Arts in Christian Education is the basic degree program offered by the School of Educational Ministries. It is primarily for those persons preparing for Christian educational ministry in a church setting. It is a 64-hour program with 26 hours of theological studies. Elective hours may be taken in any of several concentration areas: Administration, Childhood Education, Church Recreation, Collegiate Ministry, Communications, Counseling, Hispanic Studies, Missions, Student Ministry, Teaching and Women's Ministry.

The Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Counseling degree is a 62-hour degree program. It includes 14 hours of theological studies, 6 hours of educational ministries studies and 42 hours of psychology and counseling courses. One may also pursue a combined MACE/MAMFC degree consisting of 92 hours. This degree provides the academic and practicum requirements to prepare for state licensure.
The Master of Christian Counseling degree offers a heavy theological component in addition to advanced work in the psychology and counseling disciplines. It is a 92-hour degree and provides the academic and practicum requirements to prepare for state licensure.

The Master of Arts in Christian School Education is for teachers and administrators in Christian Schools (K-12). Certification by a state agency or Association of Christian Schools International is a requirement for admission into this program. The 47-hour degree includes 21 hours of theology, 18 hours of Christian School courses, three hours of research and a thesis for five hours of credit. Courses in the MACSE block are offered during the summer in one-week class formats (3 classes each summer).

Any student desiring to change degrees should fill out a Change of Degree Request form and submit it to the Associate Dean for Masters' Programs. Forms are available in the Registrar's office, the EM School Dean's Office or the office of the Associate Dean for Masters' Programs.

The Doctor of Educational Ministry degree exists to enhance the practice of ministry for those who are presently involved in educational ministry leadership. This degree is designed to build upon the education base of the Master of Arts in Christian Education degree or its equivalent. It combines practical ministry with the classic skills of the Christian educator. It is intended for students with academic ability who show promise of ministerial excellence. It is structured so that students can attend seminars while continuing to work in the ministry setting.

The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree in the School of Educational Ministries is designed specifically for various aspects of leadership in the Christian Education field. The program is designed to discover and nurture sound scholarship, meaningful research and the interdependence of theory and practice. The Ph.D. degree is conferred on the basis of high scholarship and research skill as demonstrated by the student's resident work, examinations, dissertation and vocational experience.

Suggested Pre-Seminary Studies

The following subjects are suggested as college prerequisites for those planning to seek professional training for service in the field of Christian education. A range of several subjects should be taken in each of the four fields rather than limiting the study to any one.

1. Physical Sciences. The student should select such studies as physics, chemistry, geology, botany, and zoology. These studies will assist in gaining familiarity with the natural world and achieve some facility with the scientific method. Some laboratory experience should be included.
2. English. The student should select such courses as composition, literature, and speech. This work should help develop some of the basic skills essential for professional service in Christian education.
3. Humanities. Under this heading are included such subjects as: philosophy, history, foreign languages, fine arts, and biblical studies. These help the student acquire an understanding of the world of ideas and a sense of values.
4. Social Sciences. Here are included such subjects as: economics, sociology, political science, personal and social psychology, education, guidance, and applied religion. Through these studies, the student becomes familiar with human affairs and develops sensitivity in relationships.

Interactive Learning

Recent technological advances in instructional media are incorporated into classroom procedures. Students are encouraged to learn through a variety of formats including video tapes, computers, the Internet, simulation games, computer slide show presentations, micro-teaching, classroom observation, and CD ROMs. Through compressed interactive video, students can collaborate with ministry leaders from around the globe. Students are encouraged to produce practical, creative products such as drama scripts, articles, curriculum, learning packages, radio shows, teaching and training materials, and video segments. This technology coupled with a knowledgeable, caring faculty provides a stimulating and challenging learning experience.

Field Experience and Internships

Field Experience

The purpose of field experience is to provide opportunities for students to develop ministry skills by working alongside a mentor or practitioner in a church, institution, or other ministry setting. Students will gain insights on their spiritual gifts, calling, and competencies for ministry.
After completing at least 24 credit hours in educational ministries, the student must confer with the Field Experience professor in the division of his or her vocational ministry area and make formal application to the Field Experience course in that division. Pre-enrollment consultation with the appropriate professor is required prior to the semester in which the student plans to register for Field Experience. Pre-enrollment consultation must be done by October 15 for Field Experience in the Spring Semester and by March 15 for Field Experience in the Summer or Fall Semester. Failure to follow this procedure may hinder the fulfillment of the Field Experience requirement.

5902 Field Experience (On-the-Job-Training)
For students employed as education staff members in churches. This course deals with discovering inner resources, job expectations, determining ministry objectives, identifying and solving problems, and synthesizing training with career goals. One hour in class and seven hours in field-based experience per week required. Prerequisite: pre-enrollment counseling in division one semester in advance of course registration. Two hours.

5912 Field Experience (Adjunct)
In addition to one hour per week in class, the student will schedule a minimum of seven hours of field-based experience per week in a local church or religious institution under the direction of a qualified supervisor. Task assignments, program observations, and performance evaluations are included. Prerequisite: pre-enrollment counseling in division one semester in advance of course registration. Two hours.

5922 Field Experience (Contract)
The student negotiates a contractual agreement with a local church or religious agency to perform a function equivalent to a staff position. Contract must be approved before course registration. Weekly requirements are one hour in class and a minimum of seven hours in field-based experience. Prerequisite: pre-enrollment counseling in division one semester in advance of course registration. Two hours.

5932 Field Experience (Summer Project)
A student employed as a full-time church staff member (40 hours per week for 10 weeks, minimum) may receive two hours credit. Requirements are: application to division by March 15, summer job description, approval of division, a two-hour briefing before beginning registration for summer term, and debriefing session following completion. Prerequisite: pre-enrollment counseling in division at least 30 days prior to registration. Two hours.

Internships
Internships provide for professional training through experiential learning. Specific intern programs are developed by divisions of instruction and involve selected job responsibilities. Two hours in the internship may be applied to field experience requirements with the remaining hours applied to the elective requirements. Prerequisites: 30 hours completed toward the master’s degree (24 hours of educational ministries courses), commitment to the area of discipline, and any other prerequisites established by the division of instruction. Application must be made two months prior to the experience.

Plan A
Student may choose to do two separate internship programs during a degree program. However if a student chooses 5326 (six hours), a maximum of six additional hours may be concurrently earned in the same semester. During another semester a student may choose to do another internship under the same conditions. All prerequisites must be met before either program can be selected.

Plan B
A student may choose to take both internship courses in the same semester (5326 and 5336). This internship program would earn a student 12 semester hours credit. Because of the intensity of this program, the student would not be permitted to take concurrent courses at this institution or at another accredited graduate school. The workload at the sponsoring institution would be full time (40 hours minimum per week). All prerequisites must be met before this program can be selected.

For additional information, see the Associate Dean for Masters’ Programs in the School of Educational Ministries.

5303 Supervised Internship
Three hours. (minimum of 12 hours on the field)
5313 Supervised Internship
Three hours. (minimum of 12 hours on the field)

5326 Supervised Internship
Six hours. (minimum of twenty hours on the field)

5336 Supervised Internship
Six hours. (minimum of twenty hours on the field)

Missions Mentorships

With approval from a faculty advisor, students may take Missions Mentorships (MISSN 5602, 5612, 5622, 5632, 5643, 5654) for elective credit. Refer to the Missions Mentorships section in the School of Evangelism and Missions.

Master of Arts in Christian Education

The School of Educational Ministries provides a 64-hour program of study leading to the M.A. (C.E.) (or MACE) degree. This basic degree program is designed primarily for the person who plans to perform various educational ministries in the church. The basic M.A. (C.E.) degree has several concentrations (see concentrations on the following pages) available for specialized study in the particular field of Christian education. Many who choose this degree may serve in denominational agencies and on mission fields. A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university is a pre-requisite. Students enrolled in this degree must maintain at least a "C" average for graduation.

\(^1\) EVANG 3000 is to be taken in conjunction with Contemporary Evangelism.

\(^2\) Students who have completed Old Testament or New Testament introductory courses in their undergraduate work with a grade of A or B may be eligible to bypass OLDTS 3313 and 3323 and/or NEWTS 3313 and 3323, enrolling in other OLDTS and NEWTS courses instead. An evaluation of the undergraduate transcript must be performed or the student will not be eligible to bypass Basic Old and New Testament. The student must complete an "Intent to Bypass" application and have a transcript evaluation by the Office of the Registrar.

\(^3\) Students seeking a concentration will take specific courses in lieu of elective hours and may be required to take specific Field Experience courses in that division. See Concentrations.

Master of Arts in Christian Education Advanced Track

The Advanced Track is a flexible degree program that encourages students to take elective courses in the various educational ministries and theological disciplines, thereby bypassing many of the introductory courses in the basic MACE curriculum. The Advanced Track requires a minimum number of 55 hours.

Entrance Requirements

The student must have graduated from an accredited college or university with a Christian Education major or minor, with an overall minimum GPA of 3.0.

The student's Christian Education major must include the following courses completed with a grade of B or above: Six hours of Biblical Studies (courses such as New Testament, Old Testament) and six hours of Christian Education Studies (courses such as Church Administration, age group studies, or life span development).

Application Process

An application to Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary must be on file with the Admissions Office before applying to the EM School for acceptance into the Advanced Track program. Formal acceptance to the program is contingent upon acceptance to Southwestern. Following acceptance into the Advanced Track program a request for change of degree form should be filed in the Registrar's Office.

The student must complete an Advanced Track application, provide two letters of recommendation from college Christian Education or religion professors, and provide a research paper or project that demonstrates the ability to prepare a high quality research project in the field of Christian Education or religion.

Any student desiring to change degrees should fill out a Change of Degree Request form and submit it to the Associate Dean for Masters' Programs. Forms are available in the Registrar's office, the EM School Dean's Office or the office of the Associate Dean for Masters' Programs.

Degree Requirements

At the beginning of course work for the Advanced Track, each student will receive a customized degree plan based upon undergraduate courses completed. If a student has satisfactorily completed a course corresponding to a required course in the Advanced Track, the student may substitute other hours in the same division to meet the requirement. Advanced Track students will meet with the Associate Dean for Masters' Programs in the School of Educational Ministries to discuss course schedules for each semester.

The following courses are required for the Advanced Track:

Master of Arts in Christian School Education (MACSE)

The Master of Arts in Christian School Education (MACSE) is for individuals desiring a ministry in a Christian school (K-12). Curriculum for the degree is flexible to allow for emphasis in teaching or administration. Graduates with this degree may expect to serve as a teacher or in an administrative position within a Christian school. Students desiring to serve on a church staff should pursue the Master of Arts in Christian Education.

Since certification of teachers and administrators is essential for the Christian school desiring accreditation, admission to this degree will be restricted. An individual applying for admission into this degree program must: (1) meet the requirements for admission to the seminary, (2) have a bachelor's degree from an accredited undergraduate school, (3) possess teacher or administrator certification from a state agency or ACSI.

The Christian School Education curriculum block is designed to allow students currently working full-time in a Christian school context, to complete the requirements during two summers, plus an internship at their school. Students will be required to complete a research project or thesis.

Strong emphasis is placed on internships and mentoring within the degree program. During the internship the student will be assigned a faculty and field supervisor. Both supervisors and the Associate Dean for Master's Programs must approve the internship proposal.

A biblical foundation is essential for the Christian educator. Courses in the Theology block may be taken at SWBTS or other accredited graduate institutions. The Theology courses must be at the master's level.

Upon completion of all requirements for the MACSE the student will receive his or her degree and be eligible to apply for appropriate certification from the Association of Christian Schools International. Students must apply with ACSI for the certification. ACSI requires work experience as partial requirement for advance certification.

Master's Programs in Psychology and Counseling

The Division of Psychology and Counseling provides training for students who are called to a ministry of counseling in a broad spectrum of areas, including the local church, the mission field, denominational agencies, Christian counseling centers, private practice, and social service agencies. The mission of the division is to train men and women to apply the gospel of Jesus Christ to people in need, using the disciplines of psychology and counseling.

Five track options are offered to meet the various ministry interests of students: (1) the Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Counseling (MAMFC), (2) the Master of Arts in Christian Counseling (MACC), (3) the Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Counseling/Master of Arts in Christian Education (MAMFC/MACE), (4) the MACE with Counseling Concentration, and (5) the MDiv with Counseling Concentration is available in the School of Theology. Due to the number of courses that are common to both the MACC and MAMFC, it will not be possible for students to earn both degrees.

The MAMFC, MACC, and MAMFC/MACE degree plans all provide preparation for counseling licensure. The MAMFC/MACE degree plan will meet the academic entrance requirement for the Ph.D. in psychology and counseling. This means, among other things, that these programs include clinical training as an integral part of their program. The practicum and clinical courses are designed to provide practice and experience in counseling under the direction of the division faculty and other supervisors.

The MACE with Counseling Concentration is designed for students who are called to a church staff or educational ministries position requiring limited responsibilities in counseling. This concentration will not prepare a student for state licensure and the practicum and clinical courses are not included in the degree requirements (see MACE sections in the catalog for requirements and admission procedures for this counseling concentration).

A counseling concentration for the MDiv degree is designed for students who are interested in increasing their knowledge in counseling as a part of their call to church staff positions. This track does not prepare students for state licensure in counseling. Practicum and clinical training courses are not included in the degree requirements. More information on the MDiv with Counseling Concentration may be found in the School of Theology section of the catalog.
Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Counseling

The Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Counseling (MAMFC) is best suited for students who will not be working on a church staff, but are called to minister in such areas as a Christian counseling center, private practice, agency work, agency administration, work in a children’s home, hospital and health care delivery services, and Christian ministries requiring counseling skills. The degree provides a theoretical foundation and practical training in counseling along with the seminary and educational ministries core courses.

Requirements for the MAMFC

1. Regular seminary admission requirements must be met.
2. Students must satisfactorily complete the required course work including the practicum/clinical portion of the training.
3. Students must maintain a GPA of 3.25 in psychology division courses and an overall GPA of 3.00.
4. Students must demonstrate that they meet the Christian and professional standards appropriate for a Christian counselor.

Master of Arts in Christian Counseling

The Master of Arts in Christian Counseling (MACC) provides students with the opportunity to do additional theological studies within a counseling program. This degree is suitable for students called to work in the local church, teaching field, health care delivery services, mission field, and Christian service organizations. The MACC contains the same courses as the MAMFC. These are however supplemented by additional courses in the School of Theology and thus the degree is stronger in its biblical and theological component.

Requirements for the MACC

1. Regular seminary admission requirements must be met.
2. Students must satisfactorily complete the required course work including the practicum/clinical portion of the training.
3. Students must maintain a GPA of 3.25 in psychology department courses and an overall GPA of 3.00.
4. Students must demonstrate that they meet the Christian and professional standards appropriate for a Christian counselor.

Doctor of Educational Ministry (D.Ed.Min.)

Dr. Robert Vaughan, Associate Dean for the Doctor of Educational Ministry

Purpose and Design

The Doctor of Educational Ministry degree exists to enhance the practice of ministry for those who are presently involved in educational ministry leadership. Goals include an advanced understanding of the nature and purposes of educational ministry, an enhanced capacity to reflect theologically on issues and practices related to educational ministry, the acquisition and refinement of skills and competence for more effective ministry, an understanding of developing models in educational ministry, and continued growth in spiritual maturity.

The Doctor of Educational Ministry degree is designed to build upon the education base of the Master of Arts in Christian Education degree or its equivalent. It combines practical ministry with the classic skills of the Christian educator. It is intended for students with academic ability who show promise of ministerial excellence. It is structured so that students can attend seminars while continuing to work in the ministry setting.

Application

At the time of publication, application dates were under review. Please contact the Doctor of Educational Ministry Program Office at 817-923-1921 ext. 3540 for more details.

Students may only enter the program in the Spring semester, and must attend a one-day orientation in January. D.Ed.Min. applicants must complete and submit all application materials by the fourth Monday in October, although applications are accepted year-round.

General Seminary Admission

Applicants entering the seminary for the first time are required to complete all SWBTS admission application procedures with the Office of Admissions. General admission application forms may be obtained from the Office of Admissions, SWBTS, Box 22740, Fort Worth, TX 76122, (800) 792-8701. All returning Southwestern students must submit a Former Student Enrollment Update Application to the Office of the Registrar.

The Office of Admissions and the D.Ed.Min. Office work closely together to accomplish both the general seminary admission process and the admission process into the D.Ed.Min. program. The Director of Admissions will not clear the applicant for admission until the Associate Dean of the D.Ed.Min. program has notified the Director of Admissions of the applicant’s acceptance into the program.

D.Ed.Min. Program Admission

Application for admission to the Doctor of Educational Ministry program is directed to the D.Ed.Min. Committee. All application materials are due to the D.Ed.Min. Office by 5:00 pm on the fourth Monday in October.

The following month (November), the D.Ed.Min. Committee will evaluate the student’s application packet for approval. Applicants will be notified by mail of the decision of the D.Ed.Min. Committee. If accepted by both the D.Ed.Min. Committee and the SWBTS Office of Admissions, the applicant will be given registration materials for doctoral seminars for the following year.

See Summary of Application Materials for more details.

Educational Foundation

Applicants must have completed a M.A.R.E. or M.A.C.E. degree or its equivalent from an Association of Theological Schools (ATS) accredited school. The D.Ed.Min. Committee will determine if leveling work needs to be completed to meet this requirement before application can be made to the program.
Minimum Academic Ability

In order to apply for the program, the student must have earned an overall 3.0 minimum grade point average (GPA) on the master’s degree. GPA is based on a four-point scale. Applicants with less than a 3.0 GPA may be admitted on a probationary status if they take the Miller Analogy Test (MAT) and score a minimum of 50. If the student earns a 3.0 GPA during the first eight hours of seminars, full acceptance into the program will be granted.

Ministry/Vocational Experience

Applicants must have a minimum of three years experience in educational ministry following the awarding of the master’s degree before applying to the program. In addition, applicants must be involved in full time vocational Christian educational ministry during the time they are enrolled in the degree.

Personal/Professional References

Using the forms provided by the D.Ed.Min. Office, applicants must submit three reference forms from persons familiar with the applicant’s ministry work. At least one of the references should be from a person who has had a supervisory role in the applicant’s ministry.

Ministry Reflection Paper

Applicants must submit a ministry reflection paper of fifteen pages in length (double spaced), which describes the applicant’s major life events, philosophy and practice of ministry (including leadership style), reflection on ministry, and motivation for seeking the degree. This paper should demonstrate the ability of the applicant to write at the doctoral level. It should be written according to the guidelines provided by the latest edition of the Southwestern Seminary Style Manual. This paper will be evaluated on formal style, grammar, and content.

International Students

An applicant whose first language is not English will be required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a minimum score of 600. If other English deficiencies are discovered, proficiency courses may be required. An applicant whose master’s degree is from an institution of higher learning in the United States is not required to take the TOEFL.

Summary of Application Materials

Applicants must obtain the D.Ed.Min. application and recommendation forms from the D.Ed.Min. Office. It is the applicant’s responsibility to verify with the D.Ed.Min. Office that materials (recommendation forms, transcripts, test scores, etc.) are being received.

All application materials must be submitted to the Doctor of Educational Ministry Office, SWBTS, P.O. Box 22248, Fort Worth, TX 76122. Applicants may use the application checklist as a personal guide for their application progress. The application materials are as follows:

1. Applicants must submit the D.Ed.Min. application form.
2. Applicants must submit a current resume, including information supporting the applicants’ ministry experience (see the ministry requirements outlined in Ministry/Vocational Experience).
3. Applicants must submit official transcript(s) for all master’s degree course work. If an applicant’s graduate degree was obtained from a non-ATS accredited institution, the applicant should submit course descriptions of completed courses which may be considered for equivalency with the M.A.C.E. or M.A.R.E. Applicants may be required to complete additional courses to complete equivalency requirements.
4. Applicants must submit three D.Ed.Min. reference forms from persons familiar with the applicant’s ministry work. At least one of the references should be from a person who has had a supervisory role in the applicant’s ministry.
5. Applicants must submit a fifteen page personal ministry reflection paper, written according to the guidelines provided by the latest edition of the Southwestern Seminary Style Manual. This paper will be evaluated on formal style, grammar, and content. It should include:
   A. Major life events (family, spiritual pilgrimage, and vocational interests)
   B. Philosophy and practice of ministry, including leadership style
C. Reflection on ministry
D. Motivation for seeking the degree (how the program will benefit the applicant’s ministry)

6. Applicants who have not earned a 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale during master’s work should take the MAT and have the score sent to the D.Ed.Min. Office.
7. Applicants whose first language is other than English should take the TOEFL and have the score sent to the D.Ed.Min. Office.
8. Applicants whose bachelor’s and/or master’s degree was obtained outside of the United States should be aware that their transcripts are subject to evaluation prior to general application by the World Education Services (WES), P.O. Box 745, Old Chelsey Station, New York, NY 10113-0745 (phone 900-937-3895).

Program Guide

The degree is focused on leadership in educational ministry. Students will select a concentration of study.

Goals

1. Christian formation from theological and historical perspectives as well as behavioral and social science perspectives.
2. Organizational and leadership development and the social contexts for ministry.
3. Educational theory and practice as it relates to congregational and other ministry contexts.
4. Professional development, research, planning, and evaluation of the practice of educational ministry in congregations and other settings.

Program Overview

- One required seminar in general educational leadership (8 hours).
- One required seminar in focused educational leadership (8 hours).
- One seminar in the selected concentration (8 hours).
- Successful completion of the project in ministry (6 hours).

Program Composition

The four-year program consists of 30 credit hours: 24 hours of seminars and 6 hours for the project. Students take the seminars over the course of three years, and each of the years is worth 8 hours of credit. The years are divided into three categories: General Leadership, Focused Leadership, and Concentration. On the fourth year, students will complete a project by applying the information learned from the seminars to their current ministry setting.

Each year-long seminar includes attendance at a one-week class in January and at least two additional weeks of classes later in the year. Throughout the year, students will complete assignments related to all of the classes offered. Assignments may include reading, research, postings on Blackboard (a web-based learning center), and writing papers.

Upon satisfactory completion of all seminar requirements, students are considered in the project phase of the D.Ed.Min. program. Six hours of credit will be given for satisfactory completion of the project, project report, and the oral assessment.

With prior approval of the D.Ed.Min. Committee, up to six hours may be taken in other accredited doctoral degree programs.

Our degree requirements are currently under review and subject to change pending approval. Prospective students are encouraged to contact the D.Ed.Min. Office at (817) 923-1921 ext. 3540 for the latest updates.

Concentrations

The concentrations offered in the program include:
- Ministry with Families
- Childhood Education
- Teaching-Learning
- Counseling Ministry
- Administrative Leadership
Christian School Administration

Vocational Ministry Requirement

All D.Ed.Min. students must be involved in full-time vocational Christian educational ministry during the time they are enrolled in the degree. International students attending seminars on an F-1 VISA will be required to maintain an adequate involvement in a church/ministry setting, as determined by the D.Ed.Min. Committee, during the tenure of the degree.

Location

Seminars will be offered on the main Southwestern campus in Fort Worth in one-week formats. In addition, seminars will meet in locations where there is a cluster of students, with effort made to provide learning experiences in leadership centers and professional meeting contexts in various locations.

Cost

A flat program cost will be set each year. If a student completes the degree within four years, there will be no increase in the seminar and project cost. Fees include a program entry fee, graduation fee, and program extension fee. Other appropriate fees may be charged. Contact the Business Office for the current rate.

Due to the Cooperative Program scholarship for Southern Baptist students, the total program cost for Southern Baptists is $8,200. The total program cost for non-Southern Baptist students is $11,200.

The Program Cost(s) are broken down in the following manner:

- A D.Ed.Min. student (both Southern Baptist and non-Southern Baptist) will be charged a down payment of $1,000 due by January 1.
- Year 1: $2,400 per year paid in its entirety by January 1 or divided into twelve monthly payments of $220. Monthly payments are processed through the FACTS Payment Plan. Additional information is available through the Business Office. (Non-SBC students will be charged an annual amount of $3,400 or twelve monthly payments of $311.66.)
- Years 2 and 3: $2,400 per year for Southern Baptist students due by January 1. (Non-SBC students will be charged $3,400 per year.)
- If a D.Ed.Min. student’s program exceeds four years, an additional extension fee of $1,000 per year will be charged to the student. Please note that a student’s program may not exceed six years in total.

Financial assistance is not available through the D.Ed.Min. Office. Applications for financial assistance may be made through the SWBTS Student Financial Aid Office.

All fees and dates are provisional and may be subject to change by the administrative offices of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Categories Concerning Academic Status

Inquirer

An inquirer refers to a person who has contacted the D.Ed.Min. Office about the possibility of entering the D.Ed.Min. program and who has begun to complete the necessary provisions to make application (transcripts, references, etc.).

Applicant

An applicant refers to a person who has submitted an application for consideration with all necessary attachments (references, paper, etc.) before the fourth Monday in October. The application process is conducted during the Fall semester.

Pre-Doctoral
Pre-doctoral refers to an applicant who has completed all entrance requirements, but has leveling work to complete.

Seminar Phase Student

A seminar phase student refers to a student who has completed all requirements for entering the D.Ed.Min. program and has no graduate leveling work to complete.

Continuous Enrollment Student

A continuous enrollment student refers to a student who has been granted permission to conduct studies at an approved institution other than Southwestern; or, a student who has completed all the requirements of the seminar phase but has not submitted an approved project prospectus and/or project.

Project Phase Student

A project phase student refers to a student who has completed all seminars, has submitted an approved project prospectus, and is currently working toward the project.

Leave of Absence (LOA)

Leave of absence refers to a student who has been granted permission by the D.Ed.Min. Committee to suspend studies/project for a period of time. The LOA student may or may not have to pay continuous enrollment fees as determined by the D.Ed.Min. Committee at the time of granting the absence. Unless otherwise specified, LOA status will be limited to one year.

Leave of Absence Missionary Status

Leave of absence missionary status refers to a student who is a missionary and is automatically granted leave of absence when the student fulfills an appointment by the International Mission Board or the North American Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, or other missionary agencies. Individuals in this status are exempt from paying continuous enrollment fees for any semester they are not actively pursuing the degree. If, however, they are on the mission field and are actively working on the degree (taking seminars, creating a prospectus or working on project research and writing with their Faculty Advisor and/or Field Consultant), they will be expected to pay the standard enrollment fees.

Ethical and Academic Concerns

The Doctor of Educational Ministry Committee and the faculty of the School of Educational Ministries reserve the right to decline to admit, or to continue as a student, a person who fails to meet any established qualification or for any other reason is deemed to be inconsistent with the qualifications or conduct becoming a minister.

Moral concerns, as determined solely by the committee, will be referred to the Ethical Conduct committee of the Seminary for disposition in its customary way. Academic concerns, as determined by the committee, will be addressed and a final decision will be made by the committee according to established, published protocol. Matters that are, in the judgment of the committee, neither solely moral nor solely academic, will be addressed by the committee in consultation with any appropriate Seminary office and the final decision will be made by the committee.

Note:

Information regarding the Doctor of Educational Ministry degree contained in this catalog provides an overview of the basic requirements for completing the degree. Students enrolled in the program are accountable for the policies and procedures contained in the most recent edition of the Doctor of Educational Ministry Handbook. Persons interested in additional information regarding entry to the program should contact the Doctor of Educational Ministry Office by phone at 817-923-1921, ext. 3519, by email at dedmin@swbts.edu, or by mail at P.O. Box 22248, Fort Worth, TX 76122-0248.
Doctor of Philosophy

The Doctor of Philosophy degree of the School of Educational Ministries began in 1924 and is one of the oldest and largest of its kind in the nation. The Ph.D. degree is designed specifically for the preparation of highly specialized and competent professionals for various aspects of leadership in Christian Education. The program is designed to discover and nurture sound scholarship, meaningful research, and the interdependence of theory and practice. The Ph.D. degree is conferred on the basis of high scholarship and research skill demonstrated by the student’s resident work, examinations, dissertation and vocational experience.

The Ph.D. degree is supervised by the Ph.D. Committee in the School of Educational Ministries. All decisions related to the entrance, discipline and continuance of a student are made by the committee. This committee and the faculty of the School of Educational Ministries reserve the right to decline any applicant or to dismiss any resident or candidate for the degree who cannot qualify on the stated prerequisites or for any reason the committee deems valid.

The degree represents advanced training for such fields of endeavor as:

- Professors and administrators in institutions of higher education.
- Specialists in Christian Education in churches, denominational agencies and schools
- Specialists in counseling and educational programming in marriage and family, community development and program evaluation
- Home and foreign missionaries working in any of the previously mentioned fields

Majors are selected at the time of application from the following list:

- Administration
- Childhood Education
- Church Growth
- Foundations of Education
- Psychology/Counseling
- Student Ministries

Application must be made first to the Director of Admissions for general admission to the Seminary, then to the Ph.D. Committee for admission to the program. If the applicant does not begin seminars within one year from the date of approval, a new application must be submitted. Students are expected to enroll in the fall and spring semesters each year and pay the enrollment fee from the time residency begins until the degree is conferred.

Application

A. Entrance Requirements

1. General Seminary Admission: Applicants entering the Seminary for the first time are required to complete all general admission application procedures with the Office of Admissions. General admission application forms may be obtained from the Office of Admissions, SWBTS, Box 22740, Fort Worth, Texas 76122, (800) 792-8701. All returning Southwestern students must update personal information with the Office of the Registrar. Applicants must be approved for seminary admission prior to consideration by the Ph.D. Committee. The Office of Admissions and the Ph.D. Office work closely together to accomplish the general admission process and the admission process for the Ph.D. program concurrently, if possible. The Director of Admissions will not clear the applicant for admission until the Associate Dean of Ph.D. Studies has notified the Director of Admissions of the applicant’s acceptance into the Ph.D. Program and/or any special instructions or conditions that must be met.

2. Educational Foundations: An earned bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university (which would include those individuals that have completed the previously-offered Graduate Diploma Studies Program at Southwestern Seminary); and a master's degree or its equivalent from an accredited seminary or university must have been completed by the time the individual commences resident study. The applicant must have a minimum of 24 credit hours in Educational Ministries courses on the master's level including the five core subjects of the MACE degree as offered by Southwestern. Individuals who desire to major in the area of psychology and counseling must have completed additional course work in marriage and family counseling from an accredited seminary or university. A minimum of 14 credit hours in biblical, theological and historical studies on the graduate level will be required for admission to resident study. If an individual is accepted in provisional status, these hours must be completed the first year before residency seminars commence. The designation of courses will be made by the major division and cannot be applied toward the student’s doctoral program.

3. Scholarship: In order to apply for the program, an individual must have maintained an overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 in all graduate-level work and a GPA of 3.5 in Educational Ministry courses. GPA is based on a four-point scale.

4. Academic Potential Examinations: During the pre-application phase, the inquirer must complete the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) with an expected score of 500 on the verbal section, 500 on the quantitative section and a score of 4 on the analytical writing assessment. The GRE must have been taken within the past five (5) years. The inquirer may choose to take the Miller Analogy Test (MAT) instead of the GRE. The expected score for the MAT is 50 or higher.

5. International Students: International inquirers whose first language is something other than English will be required to take the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) with a minimum computer-based score of 246 (written score of 575), the TSE (Test of Spoken English) with a minimum score of 50, and the TWE (Test of Written English) with a minimum score of 5. These standards are subject to change in light of the announced introduction of the new Internet Based TOEFL. Please check with the Ph.D. Office for the latest information regarding required standards for the TOEFL.

6. Language Competency: Before application can occur, the individual will be expected to demonstrate graduate level competency in the language areas of Research Design and Statistical Analysis via completion of a graduate level course with a grade of B or better or by passing a proficiency examination. Three opportunities will be given to achieve a score of 75% on the proficiency examination. Those inquirers who fail to achieve a passing score by the completion of the third examination will not be given the opportunity to proceed with an application for Ph.D. studies. Examinations are administered by the Ph.D. Office.

7. Ministry/Vocational Goal: The applicant must have demonstrated vocational intent as validated through study or work experiences accepted by the division of the chosen major field of study. In nearly every instance, the student is expected to be involved in ministry-related activities either in a paid or volunteer position during the period of study.

8. Church Relationship: The applicant must be an active participant in a local church.

9. Personal Attributes: The applicant must possess a well-balanced personality as evidenced by satisfactory characteristics in appropriate attitudes, moral conduct and good physical health.

B. Application Process

1. When to Apply: To begin resident work in the fall semester, all application materials should be submitted no later than the second Monday of January during the same calendar year. To begin resident work in the spring semester, an application should be submitted no later than the second Monday of August during the preceding calendar year. If the applicant does not begin doctoral resident study within a year from the date of approval, a new application must be processed.

2. How to Apply: Request an application form from the Associate Dean for Ph.D. Studies, SWBTS, P.O. Box 22278, Fort Worth, Texas, 76122-0278. Individuals entering the Seminary for the first time shall also submit a general admissions form to the Director of Admissions, SWBTS, Box 22740, Fort Worth, Texas 76122. SWBTS graduates must update their general seminary application with the Office of the Registrar.
   - Select a major area of desired study and confer with the Assistant Dean of that division. See “Fields of Study” in the Residency section.
   - Provide official transcripts of all college, university, and seminary work to the Ph.D. Office.
   - Submit acceptable GRE/MAT, Research/Statistics Proficiency, TOEFL/TWE/TSE scores to the Ph.D. Office.
   - For Southwestern graduates: provide personal recommendations from three individuals who will attest to the call to ministry and Christian character.
   - For applicants who are not Southwestern graduates: provide two personal recommendations attesting to a call to ministry and Christian character and two academic references (professors or teachers from graduate-level study) who will attest to one’s capability for pursuing doctoral work. Recommendations will not be accepted from someone who is a SWBTS faculty member, or a member of the immediate family.
   - An applicant whose master’s degree was obtained from an institution other than Southwestern must request a transcript evaluation. The applicant should submit to the Ph.D. Office official transcripts and course descriptions of completed courses which may be considered for equivalency as Educational Ministries course work.
   - Applicants with bachelor's and/or master's degrees obtained outside the United States should be aware that their transcripts are subject to evaluation prior to general application by the World Education Services (WES), Bowling Green Station, P.O. Box 5087, New York, NY 10274-5087, telephone: 212-966-6311; fax: 212-739-6100; e-mail: info@wes.org.
   - Applicants may be required to complete additional courses to meet equivalency requirements. See provisional acceptance below.
   - Submit the completed application along with a research paper of at least 25 pages on a subject related to the applicant’s requested major field of study. This paper becomes a part of the applicant’s portfolio. The paper should be an original work, and should give evidence of highly developed research and writing skills. The form and style shall follow the most recent edition of The Southwestern Seminary Style Manual.
3. Interviews: The applicant may be invited for a formal interview with the chosen major division. The division reserves the right to require additional coursework or language testing as appropriate before approval will be granted for continuation of the application process. An applicant must be recommended by a major division before consideration will be made by the Ph.D. Committee.
   - If tentative approval is given to the applicant by the major division and the Ph.D. Committee accepts that recommendation, the applicant will be asked to come to Fort Worth for an interview with the Ph.D. Committee. The purpose of this interview is to give the Committee an opportunity to further evaluate the applicant’s potential for advanced degree studies. This formal interview focuses on concerns such as Christian experience, call to ministry, family relationships and reasons for pursuing a doctorate. The Committee requests that, when possible, married applicants be accompanied by a spouse.

4. Academic Entrance Requirements: Upon approval of the Ph.D. Committee, the applicant shall be accepted to the program following the interview, or invited to take the Preliminary Examinations.
   - Individuals who have completed a MACE, MARE or other equivalent graduate level Christian Education degree will not have to take and pass preliminary examinations over the core Christian Education areas. These courses will be determined by the Ph.D. Office and the major division and may be taken simultaneously with preparation for the preliminary examinations. The examinations are graded pass/fail. An applicant must pass all areas of the exam before beginning seminar work. Should there be a failure, the applicant may, upon recommendation of the major division, be permitted one retake of the failed area. Applicants will be allowed to retake these November/April examinations only once before the application is withdrawn from consideration. In the event an applicant passes an examination in the major area of proposed study and at least three of the five Educational Ministries core examinations, then the applicant will be allowed a retake three months later of those failed areas in either the subsequent February or July. Upon passing the retake, the applicant will be able to move into the Ph.D. residency the next semester. This immediate retest will be considered the second opportunity for passing. If failure occurs, then the applicant will be removed from consideration for Ph.D. studies.
   - Individuals who have graduate degrees other than Christian Education degrees will be required either to complete leveling courses in the core course areas of the MACE degree (Teaching and Administration in the Church, Administrative Leadership for Ministry, Teaching Ministry of the Church, Human Growth and Development, and Human Behavior), or to complete and pass preliminary examinations.
   - Written preliminary examinations are given in April and November over a two-day period. Preliminary Examinations test the applicant's competencies and graduate-level understanding of the essential core areas of study in the Educational Ministries Program: Administration, Foundations of Education, Human Growth and Development, Behavioral Sciences. Also, the major division may require an applicant to test in the area of the proposed major. Applicants may obtain study guides and reading lists from the Ph.D. Office to assist in preparation for the preliminary examinations. The examinations are graded pass/fail. An applicant must pass all areas of the exam before beginning seminar work. Should there be a failure, the applicant may, upon recommendation of the major division, be permitted one retake of the failed area. Applicants will be allowed to retake these November/April examinations only once before the application is withdrawn from consideration. In the event an applicant passes an examination in the major area of proposed study and at least three of the five Educational Ministries core examinations, then the applicant will be allowed a retake three months later of those failed areas in either the subsequent February or July. Upon passing the retake, the applicant will be able to move into the Ph.D. residency the next semester. This immediate retest will be considered the second opportunity for passing. If failure occurs, then the applicant will be removed from consideration for Ph.D. studies.

5. Change of Majors: Before applicants or residents may change majors, they must be evaluated by the prospective division and must meet any requirements for entrance that may be imposed.

6. Provisional Acceptance: Applicants may be admitted into residency in a provisional status if they have passed all requirements for acceptance as outlined above, but do not possess certain qualifying courses that would equate to the Master of Arts in Christian Education (MACE) degree, or who do not have certain courses specified by the major division. This provisional acceptance may require leveling courses in two areas: Christian Education or theological studies.

   Christian Education--Courses in Educational Ministries subjects may be required as: a) As a prerequisite to doctoral seminars; b) To complete Educational Ministries work to 24 hours or meet MACE requirements; c) To meet special requirements of a major division as supplemental course work.

   These courses will be determined by the Ph.D. Office and the major division and may be taken simultaneously with doctoral level work.

   Theological Studies--Individuals who are accepted into provisional status must complete any deficiencies in the requirement of 14 hours of theological studies before they may commence Ph.D. residency work.
   - Courses taken as provisional leveling work must be taken from 3000, 4000, 5000 or 6000 level coursework.

7. Categories of Students:
   - Inquirer: A student who has contacted the Ph.D. Office about the possibility of entering the Ph.D. program and has begun to complete the necessary provisions to make application (requesting of test scores, transcripts, references, etc.). The Registrar's Office will classify this person as a Special Status - Educational Ministries Student.
   - Applicant: A student who has completed and reported all preliminary testing and has submitted an application for consideration with all necessary attachments (references, paper, etc.) before Monday of the second week of either January or August. The application process is conducted during the Spring and Fall semesters. The Registrar's Office will classify this person as a Pre-Doctoral Student.
   - Provisional: A student who has completed all requirements, but who does not have 14 hours of theological studies.
o Provisional Resident: A student who has completed all requirements for entry into residency, but who has leveling work in Educational Ministries subjects to complete.

o Resident: A student who has completed all requirements for entering the Ph.D. program, and who has no graduate leveling work to complete; and who is about to begin or has begun taking seminars.

o Continuous Enrollment Student: A resident that has been granted permission to conduct studies at an approved institution other than Southwestern (Continuous Enrollment R; RSRCH 8000); or, a student who has completed all the requirements of the residency program, but has not submitted an approved dissertation prospectus (Continuous Enrollment P; RSRCH 8040). Continuous enrollment students will be required to pay doctoral enrollment fees until graduation, whether or not they are enrolled in courses of study at Southwestern.

o Candidate: A student who has passed all language and comprehensive examinations, has submitted an approved dissertation prospectus, and who is working toward the dissertation.

o Leave of Absence: A student who has been granted permission by the Ph.D. Committee to suspend studies/dissertation for a period of time. Unless otherwise specified, LOA status will be limited to one year. LOA status does not stop the seven year period allotted for completion of the program.

o Leave of Absence--Missionary Status: A special status of the leave of absence nomenclature that is granted automatically for any missionary currently appointed by the International Mission Board or the North American Mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Individuals in this status are exempt from paying continuous enrollment fees for any semester they are not actively involved in pursuing the degree (this includes residency, proposal preparation or dissertation). If, however, they are on the mission field and are actively working on the degree (taking courses, creating a proposal for study, or working on dissertation research and writing with their Guidance Committee), then they will be expected to pay enrollment fees.

8. Program of Studies: The student will move through two phases of academic activity in pursuit of the PhD in Educational Ministries. The program of study must be completed in seven years from the end of the first semester of study.

Residency

The student will complete 44 hours of academic work above the Master's Degree level:

- 20 hours of study in a Major field
- 8 hours of study in a minor field
- 8 hours in elective study or second minor
- 8 hours in research languages

Upon completion of residency, the student will be required to complete successfully two proficiency examinations: (1) Barrier examination in the doctoral languages, and (2) Comprehensive examinations in the major and minor areas of resident study. Students are expected to prepare for the comprehensive examinations throughout the program. This ongoing preparation is noted on the transcript by enrollment in DOCTR 7000, Comprehensive Exam Preparation. After these proficiency examinations have been completed, the student will present to the Ph.D. Committee, a proposal for dissertation research that has been chosen in concert with his or her guidance committee and the faculty of the major area of study.

Candidacy

Upon successful presentation and defense of a program of dissertation research before the Ph.D. Committee, the individual will enter into candidacy. The student is expected to remain in Candidacy a minimum of one year from acceptance of dissertation proposal to date of graduation.

Graduation

The award of the Ph.D. Degree is made at the discretion of the Ph.D. Committee, the faculty in general and the administration of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Approval for graduation is contingent upon completion of all academic seminar requirements, successfully passing all proficiency examinations, and the writing and oral defense of the dissertation of research study that demonstrates a high level of competence and professionalism.

Purpose

The purpose of the School of Church Music of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is to provide graduate professional education in church music for individuals engaging in Christian ministry.
The School of Church Music seeks to provide competent music leadership for churches, colleges, denominational agencies, and mission fields. Specialized church music courses and general music instruction are made available for students in the School of Educational Ministries and the School of Theology.

A consistent effort is made to provide an educational environment conducive to spiritual growth and deepening awareness of the scope of the ministry of music, promoting a harmonious understanding of the relation of this ministry to all other aspects of Christian ministry.

Contributions are made by the school to the knowledge of the church music field through performances, research, writing, and music composition.

Degrees

The School of Church Music offers five programs of study.

The Master of Music in Church Music degree is designed to give the basic skills needed in the ministry of church music and to bring the graduate student to an advanced level of performance and scholarship in church music.

The Master of Arts in Church Music is designed to prepare the student for comprehensive local church music ministry by providing undergraduate training equivalent to a music major as well as graduate-level training.

The Master of Arts in Worship is a specialized degree designed to provide the basic skills needed to lead worship in a variety of settings.

The Doctor of Musical Arts in Church Music and the Doctor of Philosophy in Church Music degrees are designed to bring the student to the highest levels of development in church music. The emphasis on the Ph.D. is creative scholarship; the emphasis on the D.M.A. is performance.

Accreditation

The School of Church Music is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (11250 Roger Bacon Drive, Suite 21, Reston, Virginia, 20190, Telephone 703-437-0700). The School of Church Music is also a member of the Texas Association of Music Schools.

As a unit of Southwestern Seminary, the School of Church Music is also accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Application for Admission

Application for Admission to the School of Church Music, accompanied by transcripts in duplicate, must be filed with the Office of Admissions. Students planning to enter a doctoral program must file an additional application to the Advanced Studies Committee which may be obtained from the office of the Associate Dean, Academic Division.

Students wishing to enter a doctoral program must take the Graduate Record Examination General Test prior to applying for admission. Test results must be submitted with the application for admission. It is the responsibility of each individual applicant to make arrangements to take the GRE, either at the applicant’s own institution or at another institution; it is not available at Southwestern.

Orientation

Prior to registration for the fall and spring semesters, a time of general seminary orientation is held. The School of Church Music also provides an orientation period during which entering students take placement auditions in applied music and certain placement tests in music theory and music history. The Profiles of Ministry program sponsored by the Association of Theological Schools is also begun at this time. This orientation is required and is administered as a course (ORIEN 3000) for which students register during their first semester and pay a course fee of $60. Registration in music courses is not permitted unless music school orientation has been satisfactorily completed.
Students entering during the summer session will attend orientation before the following fall semester and register for ORIEN 3000 during that semester.

Placement Auditions and Examinations

Every new music student will take placement tests and auditions prior to registering for the first semester. Students beginning in a summer session will take placement tests and auditions at the fall semester orientation and testing time. Students should refer to their respective degree program listings for further test and audition procedures.

 Normally students are not excluded on the basis of these auditions and examinations; appropriate leveling work will be assigned as needed. Continuation in the music school is, however, subject to faculty review and approval. New students will receive notification by mail of the date of their auditions and tests.

Former students who have not been enrolled in music courses for more than five years will also take placement auditions and examinations.

Piano Proficiency

All students in all programs must pass the piano proficiency during their first semester of study if not enrolled in a Functional Piano course in preparation for the proficiency. If a student is allowed by the piano faculty to prepare for the proficiency through independent study and a failure results, that student must enroll the following semester in an assigned Functional Piano course. The following skills are required: sight reading of a four-part open score in choral style, scales, arpeggios, and cadences of I-IV-I-V-I in all major keys and white-tonic minors (cadences must be played in root position and inversions); transposition at sight of a single voice part up or down a whole step; supplying a chordal accompaniment to a melody at sight; and a memorized performance of two hymns, one Bach chorale, a homophonic piece, and a polyphonic piece.

Those students not certified by audition as ready to prepare independently must prepare through Functional Piano courses; they may not prepare through private piano. Students are discouraged from withdrawing from a Functional Piano course or from the proper sequence of courses once their initial enrollment has been processed. Students who are prepared in all areas may pass the proficiency at the time of the audition. All students taking the piano proficiency receive credit through the course PIACL 4870.

Performance Laboratory is required for students in the M.A.C.M. program. Students in the M.M. and M.A. in Worship programs must also take two semesters.

Piano concentration students on the Master of Music degree must pass the practical technical examination, demonstrating skills in the following areas: scales, arpeggios, sight reading, and transposition. This must be accomplished the semester before the recital semester.

Jury Panels

All applied music students appear before a departmentaljury panel at the end of each semester. Each student is expected to perform from memory the repertoire required for the semester.

Performance Laboratory

Weekly performance laboratory clinics are scheduled for the purpose of experience in public performance, listening experience on the part of the audience, and an opportunity for the music faculty to evaluate the performance and progress of the participants.

During the year, there are two attainment recitals which are devoted to those students who have attained a certain standard of excellence in performance as judged by the music faculty.

Performance Laboratory is required for students in the M.A.C.M. program. Students in the M.M. and M.A. in Worship programs must also take two semesters.

In addition to recitals, Performance Laboratory includes guest lectures and seminars related to various aspects of church music and music ministry. Seminars use a variety of formats, including faculty/student forums, guest speakers, case studies, and laboratory experiences. Students are required to attend a certain percentage of these seminars. Students in their first semester of Performance Laboratory also complete an interpretation of the Profiles of Ministry, administered during ORIEN 3000 (or ORIEN 1000) Orientation. An interpretative interview is held with an assigned faculty interpreter, specially trained in this procedure. The interview is a course requirement and failure to have the interpretative meeting will result in the withholding of a grade for the semester.
Graduation Recitals

A student scheduling a graduation recital must present an acceptable preliminary performance before the applied music department at least two weeks before the recital date. In the event the audition is unacceptable, the student will repeat the previous semester’s course of study in the applied field.

Teacher Certification for Music Students

Through a cooperative agreement between Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Dallas Baptist University, students having a recognized music degree can complete certification course work through Dallas Baptist University and receive a Texas public school teaching certificate. This agreement has been established to help students who are interested in bivocational music ministry to obtain a teaching certificate, enabling them to work in a home missions area as a full-time public school teacher while serving as a part-time or volunteer minister of music.

The Texas Department of Education requires that certain courses be completed before a student is awarded a teaching certificate. The DBU College of Education will evaluate the student’s transcripts to note deficiencies in general studies, music, and professional development. Music courses completed on the undergraduate level and validated by placement tests and auditions upon entrance to SWBTS will be accepted by DBU. Students will be required to complete between eighteen and twenty-one hours of course work, including student teaching. Students interested in pursuing a teaching certificate by this means should contact the Associate Dean, Academic Division, or the Chair of the Music Ministry Department.

Ensembles

Collegium Musicum

This ensemble exists primarily to perform early music as closely as possible to the original practices.

Handbell Ensemble

This group seeks to demonstrate excellence in the art of handbell ringing, and includes in its repertoire representative literature available to this rapidly growing medium of expression. Membership includes eleven ringers chosen by audition in the fall semester each year.

Men’s Chorus

Membership in the Men’s Chorus is by audition only. The chorus appears regularly in chapel services and concerts, and makes an annual tour.

Oratorio Chorus

Participation to varying extents is required of all music students, but is open to all persons of the seminary family who wish to participate.

Seminary Choir

This organization is for the seminary family and other interested persons who are unable to enroll in other ensembles. Rehearsals are held every Monday during the evening class schedule.

Southwestern Singers

An a cappella choir selected by audition on the basis of musicianship and voice. The choir appears regularly in chapel services and concerts, and makes an annual tour.

String Ensemble

An auditioned group which is open to all students of the seminary who are acceptably proficient on their instrument. The String Ensemble performs in chapel and in concert. Members are utilized in smaller ensembles, and some may be invited to participate. with professional musicians of Fort Worth in providing orchestral accompaniment for the seminary’s Oratorio Chorus performances. Students must arrange an audition with the director before enrolling.

Wind Ensemble

A group which is open to all students of the seminary who are acceptably proficient on their instrument. The Wind Ensemble performs regularly in chapel, for special school functions, on tour, and in concert. Members are frequently utilized in smaller ensembles, and some may be invited to participate with professional musicians of Fort Worth in providing orchestral accompaniment for the seminary’s Oratorio Chorus performances. Since an effort is made to achieve a balanced instrumentation, interested students should contact the director of the Wind Ensemble before enrolling.

Some of the ensembles perform in either robes or formal dress. When performing in formal dress it is the student’s responsibility to acquire such.

Organizations

Hymn Society in the United States and Canada

Students in the School of Church Music are encouraged to join more than 3,000 ministers, organists, choir directors, worship leaders, poets, hymn writers, and composers who are interested in and concerned with writing, choosing, and singing hymns.

Music Educators National Conference

The School of Church Music has established a student chapter of MENC, the primary organization of music education in the United States. Membership in this organization entitles a student to both the state and national publications, and admittance to meetings and clinics of the Texas Music Educators Association and the Music Educators National Conference. Upon graduation, the student is eligible for full membership.

Baptist Church Music Conference

An organization of some 1,000 Southern Baptist church musicians, the BCMC is made up of 1) the local church division, which includes full and part-time ministers of music and persons in combination positions; 2) the denominational division, which is made up of state and denominational personnel; and, 3) the educators division, which is made up of teachers in colleges and seminaries. The Baptist Church Music Conference meets annually and publishes The Journal and Newsletter.

Zimrah

A service organization which sponsors extracurricular musical activities of the School of Church Music, Zimrah provides opportunities for fellowship, recreation, and cultural and spiritual development. Activities of the organization also include the presentation of music programs for the student body and other organizations. Membership is open to all students of the seminary.

Scholarships and Awards

Kathryn Sullivan Bowld Organ Scholarships are offered annually to two or more students in the organ concentration upon the recommendation of the faculty of the Organ Department.

Academic Achievement Awards are awarded each semester to graduating persons in each degree program with a grade point average in total seminary work of at least 3.85.

Performance scholarships are available in each of the following areas: conducting, piano, orchestral instruments, voice, and selected ensembles. Only students with documented and demonstrable performance skills need apply. Inquiries should be addressed to the chair of the applied department or the director of the ensemble.

Special Events

Held early in the spring semester each year, the Church Music Workshop gives students opportunity to sit in classes under outstanding choral, voice, keyboard, worship, and graded choir clinicians as well as to enjoy invaluable association with successful church musicians who assemble from all over the country for the event. Attendance is required of all music students, and other students may attend by paying the student registration fee of $65. The 2006 workshop is scheduled for February 2-4.

Church Music and Other Curricula

The seminary receives a large number of requests for church staff members who can combine the ministry of music with leadership in some phase of Christian education. The School of Church Music and the School of Educational Ministries jointly offer programs which will meet these needs. The student may receive degrees in both church music and Christian education.
The Master of Music and Master of Arts in Church Music degrees with a minor in other fields are offered and are described elsewhere in the Church Music section.

The Master of Arts in Christian Education with a church music minor is described in the Educational Ministries section of this catalog.

The Master of Divinity with a church music concentration is described in the Theology section of this catalog.

Master of Music in Church Music

The Master of Music in Church Music is designed to give the basic skills needed in the ministry of church music and to bring the graduate student to an advanced level of performance and scholarship in church music.

Entrance Requirements

1. Bachelor’s degree with a major in music from an accredited college or university.¹
2. Students lacking any of these prerequisite courses may complete them at Southwestern Seminary but may not count them for degree credit.

3. Voice pedagogy, voice literature, or voice performance students are required to have undergraduate courses in choral or English diction, foreign language diction, and voice pedagogy.
4. Due to the number of courses that are common to both the MM and MACM, students desiring to complete both degrees should work in close consultation with the School of Church Music.

¹Students who were not music majors in college should turn to the M.A.C.M. program described following the Master of Arts in Worship program.

²Composition concentrations must have the equivalent of VOICL 3912, 3922; and PIAPR 1812,1822; or ORGPR 1712,1722.

³Must include both sixteenth- and eighteenth-century styles.

Auditions and Placement Examinations

During orientation week of the first semester, the M.M. student will perform an audition in each of the following areas: the applied field, basic piano and voice, and conducting. Leveling courses in the applied fields, piano, voice, and conducting may be assigned on the basis of these auditions and they will be taken without graduate credit.

M.M. students will also take a musicianship placement examination and a theory placement examination. The musicianship examination consists of two parts: ear training and sight singing. Students not passing the musicianship exam will be assigned a two-hour review course for no graduate credit (MUTHY 2492 Musicianship Review).

The theory placement examination will include advanced tonal harmony, 16th- and 18th-century counterpoint, form in music, instrumentation, and twentieth-century theory. The student should expect to spend at least two hours on the theory exam. Students not earning a score of at least 80% will be assigned a three-hour review course for harmony, counterpoint, form and instrumentation (MUTHY 2483 Comprehensive Theory Review). No graduate credit will be given for this course, and it must be taken in the first semester. The twentieth-century review course is MUTHY 1462. MUTHY 1462, if required, must be taken before the end of the first year.

New M.M. students will take a written examination in music history and literature. A student should demonstrate knowledge of the characteristics of each period in music history, representative composers and their works from each period, and appropriate musical terminology of forms, genres, and techniques. Where needed, elective courses for graduate credit may be assigned and must be taken as early in the program as possible, but in no case during the final semester.

The student will not be admitted to candidacy until all leveling requirements have been satisfied. Required leveling courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or better. Grades below "C" will not satisfy the requirements.

Concentrations

Although church music is the major on the M.M. degree, students will choose an area of concentration from the fields of accompanying, composition, conducting, music education, music history, music ministry, music missions, music theory, orchestral instrument, organ performance, piano performance, piano pedagogy, voice performance, voice pedagogy/literature or worship. This is the equivalent of a second major.

Normally, the student preparing for ministry in the local church will choose the Music Ministry concentration. Students who expect their ministry to be in the music departments of denominational agencies or colleges may select those concentrations which meet their individual needs and skills.

A student with highly developed performance skills on an orchestral instrument, organ, piano, voice, conducting, or composition may, with faculty approval, elect to concentrate in one of these areas.

Students concentrating in accompanying should request a list of requirements for the accompanying auditions from the chair of the Piano Department before arriving on campus.

The student choosing the voice concentration should arrive on campus in time to secure an adequate accompanist and have sufficient time to prepare the songs intended for performance for the audition before the voice faculty. The student will choose and sing from memory three selections from art song literature, opera, and oratorio. One of these must be sung in English.

Students desiring to concentrate in music theory must be approved by that department. The decision to approve or disapprove will be made no earlier than the end of the first year. Formal application by a letter to the chair of the department may be made at that time. Evaluation will be based on placement test scores, college and seminary grades, and other evidence of ability to do graduate work in music theory.

Ensembles

All students in the M.M. program are required to enroll in a fall semester and the following spring semester of an auditioned ensemble in addition to the two-semester Oratorio Chorus requirement. The ensembles which qualify for this requirement are Collegium Musicum, Handbell Ensemble A, Men’s Chorus, Southwestern Singers, String Ensemble, and Wind Ensemble.

(Note: Students entering in the spring semester may audition for and be accepted into ensembles, but should be aware that the spring semester’s participation will not count toward the two-semester ensemble requirement unless the director of that ensemble specifically allows it.)

Theses, Documents, and Recitals

Students concentrating in music history, music theory, or composition must present a thesis as part of their degree requirements. The student will prepare a prospectus of the thesis showing the tentative title, general statement of purpose and need for the study, scope and limitations, methodology, specific problems anticipated, outline, and a selected bibliography. The prospectus will be submitted through the appropriate department chair to a faculty committee of that department. Upon departmental approval, the prospectus will be reviewed by the Curriculum Committee. Upon acceptance of the prospectus by the Curriculum Committee, first and second readers will be assigned to supervise the thesis.

Students concentrating in music ministry, music education, or music missions may write a thesis to substitute for four hours of course work in their concentrations. The substitution must be approved by the ministry department.
The student concentrating in composition must present an extended composition for a large instrumental and/or choral ensemble as a thesis. (See composition course description for COMPN 4592.)

At least sixty days before graduation, four copies of the thesis or document must be submitted through the chair of the Curriculum Committee. All copies will be submitted to Roberts Library for binding following the comprehensive examinations and before graduation.

Students concentrating in organ performance, piano performance, piano pedagogy, voice performance, voice pedagogy/ literature, or orchestral instruments must present a graduate recital as described in ORGPR 4792, PIAPR 4892, VOIPR 4932, VOIPR 4982, or ORINS 4092, and will prepare acceptable program notes.

All costs such as binding and microfilming of theses, documents, and compositions and the cost of recitals, including programs, performers, technical personnel, and tape-recording, will be borne by the student.

Grades

M.M. students must maintain an overall grade point average of 2.75 (B-).

Time Limit

The Master of Music degree must be completed within a period of seven years from the time of admission. Extension may be granted in the case of foreign missionaries.

Comprehensive Examinations

Written and oral comprehensive examinations are given by a committee of the faculty normally about four to six weeks before graduation.

To be permitted to take comprehensive examinations, the M.M. student must satisfy several requirements prior to the examinations:

1. Satisfactory completion of all leveling courses
2. Passing of all proficiencies (piano, voice, conducting)
3. Satisfactory completion of all music courses (or concurrent enrollment in all remaining courses)
4. Attainment of required grade point average (2.75 or B-)
5. Completion of thesis or recital (if applicable)
6. Enrollment in M.M. Comprehensive Examinations (MUMIN 4990)

The oral examinations are administered individually and are scheduled following the written examinations. The student’s committee usually consists of a professor from the department of the student’s concentration and three other faculty members representing both academic and performance divisions. If the student fails the comprehensive examinations they may be retaken.

Other Requirements

The Master of Music degree normally requires at least four semesters for completion. All music courses must be numbered 3000 or 4000.

*Thesis-track students will substitute MUMIN 4294 for four hours from the above course list with prior departmental approval.

NOTE. Competency in the area of voice pedagogy should be demonstrated by all students entering the M.M. with Ministry Concentration. All incoming ministry students who do not have a voice pedagogy course or its equivalent on their undergraduate transcript will need to take VOICL 4902 Voice Pedagogy as a leveling course. Students who have had such a course will not need to pass a proficiency examination and will automatically be exempt from VOICL 4902.

$^1$Must be completed during the first year of study. M.M. students not completing it during the first year will not be allowed to register for any further music courses until the course is completed.

$^2$Should be completed during the first year of study.

$^3$Composition concentrations must have the equivalent of VOICL 1912,1922, and PIAPR 1812,1822 or ORGPR 1712,1722.

$^4$Should be completed before the semester in which comprehensive examinations are taken.

$^5$Applied Music concentration students who did not present an undergraduate recital will be required to do so during the first year of study.
All Orchestral Instrumentation concentration students may be expected to play in the accompanying ensemble for Oratorio Chorus performances.

Must be completed before VOIPR 4932 Graduate Voice III is taken.

Master of Arts in Worship

The Master of Arts in Worship is a specialized degree designed to provide the basic skills needed to lead worship in a variety of settings.

Entrance Requirements

1. Bachelor’s degree with a major in music from an accredited college or university.\(^1\)
2. Completion of the following music courses or their equivalents:

Students lacking any of these prerequisite courses may complete them at Southwestern Seminary but may not count them for degree credit.

\(^1\)Students who were not music majors in college should turn to the M.A.C.M. program described immediately following.

\(^2\)Must include both sixteenth- and eighteenth-century styles.

Auditions and Placement Examinations

During orientation week of the first semester, the M.A. in Worship student will perform an audition in each of the following areas: the applied field, basic piano and voice, and conducting. Leveling courses in the applied fields, piano, voice, and conducting may be assigned on the basis of these auditions and they will be taken without graduate credit.

M.A. in Worship students will also take a musicianship placement examination and a theory placement examination. The musicianship examination consists of two parts: ear training and sight singing. Students not passing the musicianship exam will be assigned a two-hour review course for no graduate credit (MUTHY 2492 Musicianship Review).

The theory placement examination will include advanced tonal harmony, sixteenth- and eighteenth-century counterpoint, form in music, instrumentation and Twentieth-Century theory. The student should expect to spend at least two hours on the theory exam. Students not earning a score of at least 80% will be assigned a three-hour review course for harmony, counterpoint, form and instrumentation (MUTHY 2483 Comprehensive Theory Review). No graduate credit will be given for this course, and it must be taken in the first semester. The Twentieth-Century review course is MUTHY 1462. MUTHY 1462, if required, must be taken before the end of the first year.

New M.A. in Worship students will take a written examination in music history and literature. A student should demonstrate knowledge of the characteristics of each period in music history, representative composers and their works from each period, and appropriate musical terminology of forms, genres, and techniques. Where needed, elective courses for graduate credit may be assigned.
The student will not be admitted to candidacy until all leveling requirements have been satisfied. Required leveling courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or better. Grades below "C" will not satisfy the requirements.

Ensembles

All students in the M.A. in Worship program are required to enroll in a fall semester and the following spring semester of an auditioned ensemble in addition to the two-semester Oratorio Chorus requirement. The ensembles which qualify for this requirement are Collegium Musicum, Handbell Ensemble A, Men’s Chorus, Southwestern Singers, String Ensemble, and Wind Ensemble. A Worship Leadership Team (MUMIN 4161) is available to M.A. in Worship students and may be substituted for the auditioned ensembles listed above. Enrollment in Worship Leadership Team is limited to six to eight students and is contingent upon an audition and interview with the director.

(NOTE: Students entering in the spring semester may audition for and be accepted into ensembles, but should be aware that the spring semester’s participation will not count toward the two-semester ensemble requirement unless the director of that ensemble specifically allows it.)

Grades

M.A. in Worship students must maintain an overall grade point average of 2.75 (B-).

Time Limit

The Master of Arts in Worship degree must be completed within a period of seven years from the time of admission. Extension may be granted in the case of foreign missionaries.

Comprehensive Examinations

Written and oral comprehensive examinations are given by a committee of the faculty normally about four to six weeks before graduation.

To be permitted to take comprehensive examinations, the M.A. in Worship student must satisfy several requirements prior to the examinations:

1. Satisfactory completion of all leveling courses
2. Passing of all proficiencies (piano, voice, conducting)
3. Satisfactory completion of all music courses (or concurrent enrollment in all remaining courses)
4. Attainment of required grade point average (2.75 or B-)
5. Enrollment in M.A. in Worship Comprehensive Examinations (MUMIN 4970)

The oral examinations are administered individually and are scheduled following the written examinations. The student’s committee usually consists of three professors, at least one from the ministry department and two other faculty members representing both academic and performance divisions. If the student fails the comprehensive examinations they may be retaken.

Advanced Study

The M.A. in Worship degree is not considered preparation for advanced study. The M.A. in Worship student wishing to pursue a doctoral degree at Southwestern Seminary will be expected to complete the requirements for the Master of Music degree.

NOTE: Competency in the area of voice pedagogy should be demonstrated by all students entering the M.A. in Worship degree program. All incoming students who do not have a voice pedagogy course or its equivalent on their undergraduate transcript will need to take VOICL 4902 Voice Pedagogy as a leveling course. Students who have had such a course will not need to pass a proficiency examination and will automatically be exempt from VOICL 4902.

\(^1\)Includes Worship Lab

Master of Arts in Church Music

The Master of Arts in Church Music is designed to prepare the student for comprehensive local church music ministry by providing undergraduate training equivalent to a music major as well as graduate-level training.

Entrance Requirement

Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university. A major in music is not expected but students may have received college credit in music courses. Students with such credits may qualify for advanced standing in the M.A.C.M. program on the basis of placement tests and auditions. (See below.) Due to the number of courses that are common to both the MM and MACM, students desiring to complete both degrees should work in close consultation with the School of Church Music.

Placement Examinations and Auditions

During the orientation and registration period, the M.A.C.M. degree student will perform an audition to demonstrate basic skills in voice and keyboard to enable the faculties of these departments to determine appropriate placement in the sequence of applied study. Students without college-level harmony and musicianship studies will normally be placed at the beginning of the course sequence in these areas. Students who have undergraduate credit in theory may qualify for advanced standing in harmony and basic musicianship studies and should consult the chair of the Theory Department about the possibility of taking the placement test administered to M.M. students.

Concentrations

Although Music Ministry is the only concentration on the M.A.C.M. degree, students will choose a Primary Applied Area and a Secondary Applied Area from voice, piano, organ, or orchestral instrument. Normally, the primary applied will be voice and the secondary applied will be piano.

Students with a strong background in piano, organ, or an orchestral instrument may, on the basis of audition before the appropriate faculty, be permitted to make that performing area the primary applied. All students, regardless of primary or secondary applied, will be required to pass both a voice proficiency and a piano proficiency as soon as possible in their course of study.

Ensembles

All students in the M.A.C.M. program are required to enroll in a fall semester and the following spring semester of an auditioned ensemble in addition to the four-semester Oratorio Chorus requirement. The ensembles which qualify for this requirement are Chamber Winds, Collegium Musicum, Consort Singers, Handbell Choir A, Men’s Chorus, Southwestern Singers, String Ensemble, and Wind Ensemble.

(Note: Students entering in the spring semester may audition for and be accepted into ensembles, but should be aware that the spring semester’s participation will not count toward the two-semester ensemble requirement unless the director of that ensemble specifically allows it.)

Recitals

At the conclusion of their sequence of primary applied study, M.A.C.M. students will present a twenty-five minute Senior Recital as described in VOIPR 1962, or a forty-five minute Senior Recital as described in PIAPR 1862, ORGPR 1762, or ORINS 1062.
Program notes are not required for these recitals, but a preliminary recital before the appropriate applied faculty will be required no less than two weeks before the scheduled date of the recital.

Grades

M.A.C.M. students must maintain an overall grade point average of 2.75 (B-).

Time Limit

The Master of Arts in Church Music degree must be completed within a period of seven years from the time of admission. Extension may be granted in the case of foreign missionaries.

Comprehensive Examinations

Written and oral comprehensive examinations are given by a committee of the faculty normally about four to six weeks before graduation. These may not be taken before Admission to Candidacy and the approval of the faculty supervisor of the recital. A three-hour written examination in the ministry area will be given followed by a one-hour oral examination before a committee of three faculty members. The focus of the oral examination will be ministry, but questions regarding theory, history, and conducting may be asked.

Other Requirements

The Master of Arts in Church Music normally requires a minimum of eight semesters for completion. Some students with undergraduate music credits who achieve advanced standing may require somewhat less. Students who are not able to devote full time to the pursuit of the degree can expect to spend more than eight semesters.

Advanced Study

The M.A.C.M. degree is not considered preparation for advanced study. An M.A.C.M. student wishing to pursue a doctoral degree at Southwestern Seminary will be expected to complete the requirements for the Master of Music degree. This will involve satisfying all course differences between the M.A.C.M. and the M.M. and completing the M.M. Comprehensive Examinations instead of the M.A.C.M. Comprehensive Examinations. Students who have completed an M.A.C.M. and wish to earn the M.M. may complete an additional twenty hours (to include all course differences between the M.A.C.M. and the M.M., plus electives) and the full set of M.M. Comprehensive Examinations.

1 For most M.A.C.M. students, the primary applied will be voice (12 hrs) and the secondary applied will be piano (8 hrs). All M.A.C.M. students, regardless of primary and secondary applied areas, must pass the voice and piano proficiencies. These are usually passed by the end of the fourth semester. Applied study should begin the first semester of enrollment.

2 To use instrument as the primary applied field, a student must demonstrate the ability to perform the level of literature in ORINS 1012. To use organ or piano as the primary applied field a student must demonstrate the ability to perform the level of literature in ORGPR 1712 or PIAPR 1812. To use voice as the primary applied field, a student must demonstrate the ability to perform standard solo songs with acceptable tone quality, musicianship, and musical understanding.

3 If the secondary area is voice, no 4000-level voice is required. Instead, those whose primary applied is Instrument will take MUMIN 3342 and two hours of music electives; those whose primary applied field is piano will take PIAPR 5831, 5841, and PIACL 4802; those whose primary applied field is organ will take ORGCL 4711, 4721, and 4731.
4 Recommended for the first year of study.

5 If a hymnology or congregational song course has been taken on the undergraduate program, one of the following may be substituted: MUMIN 4242 or 4262.

6 May not be taken until the first two semesters of Theory and Musicianship studies have been completed.

7 Recommended for the second or third year of study.

8 Should be taken during the third year of study.

9 Students with instrument as their primary applied field will take only two semesters of Oratorio Chorus. For the other two hours they will substitute the appropriate instrumental ensemble (Wind Ensemble ENSEM 3611 or String Ensemble ENSEM 3691).

Master of Music, Master of Arts in Worship, or Master of Arts in Church Music with Communication Arts Minor

Course requirements on M.M. degree, 47-52 hrs.

Courses in Communication Arts 18 hrs.

Communication Strategies for Church Ministry CMMAR 3153 - 3 hrs.

The final 15 hours of the minor may be selected from the following areas:

- Writing
- Drama
- Speech
- Radio/Television/Film
- Public Relations
- Visual Arts
- Multi-Media

Total 65-70 hrs.

1Students in the Master of Arts in Worship will follow the M.A. in Worship program with the appropriate adjustment of total hours.

2Students who were not music majors in college would follow the M.A.C.M. program with the appropriate adjustment of total hours.

Doctor of Musical Arts in Church Music¹ / Doctor of Philosophy in Church Music¹

The purpose of the Doctor of Musical Arts in Church Music and the Doctor of Philosophy in Church Music degrees is to bring the doctoral student to the highest levels of development in church music. The emphasis on the Ph.D. is creative scholarship; the emphasis on the D.M.A. is performance.

Admission Requirements

Prerequisites

A prerequisite for either doctoral degree is a master’s degree from an accredited college, university, or seminary whose requirements approximate those of the Master of Music degree at Southwestern Seminary, and a minimum grade point average of 3.0.

The doctoral applicant is encouraged to have had at least two years of full-time practical or professional experience in the field of music after master’s-level work and before formally beginning work toward the doctoral degree. Some departments within the school may insist on this experience.

Application

Prospective doctoral students who have never attended Southwestern Seminary or who have not been enrolled in at least five years will make application to the Director of Admissions for general seminary admission. This will require church endorsement, evidence of a call to ministry, and references to confirm the moral and spiritual aptitude of the student.

In addition, the prospective student must file a separate application with the Committee on Advanced Studies. This application will allow the Committee on Advanced Studies of the School of Church Music to consider the student’s academic and emotional readiness for the rigors of intense graduate study. For entrance in a fall semester the application must be received by February 1 and supporting documents must be received by March 1. For entrance in a spring semester the application must be received by September 1 and supporting documents must be received by October 1.

The Director of Admissions will not clear the applicant for admission until the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies has notified the Director of Admissions of the applicant’s acceptance by the School of Church Music.

GRE

Formal application (not inquiry) must be accompanied by recent reports (within five years) of the Graduate Record Examination General Test. The applicant is expected to have a score of 500 in the verbal area and a score of 500 in the quantitative area or analytical area on the General Test. An applicant will not necessarily be denied admission if scores are lower, but the Committee on Advanced Studies may require courses which will improve the applicant’s readiness for doctoral study before formal acceptance into the program. Information about the GRE test may be obtained from the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 6014, Princeton, NJ 08541-6014. No application will be considered until GRE scores are on file.

English Requirements

International students applying to the Ph.D. or D.M.A. degree must submit scores of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), Test of Spoken English (TSE), and Test of Written English (TWE). Minimum expected scores are a computer-based score of 233 (written score of 575) on TOEFL, 50 on TSE and 5 on TWE.
Interview and Entrance Examinations

Applicants for either the D.M.A. or the Ph.D. degree are required to schedule an interview with the Committee on Advanced Studies and take music aptitude and concentration examinations administered by the appropriate departments before final approval for admission can be granted. The concentration examination includes historical and theoretical questions in the area of concentration. For an applicant with a degree in church music, church music and ministry will be included; an applicant without a church music background will take church music courses on the M.M. level as required by the Committee on Advanced Studies. The examinations may be taken at the time the applicant is on the Southwestern campus for the interview or at a later time, but in no case may they be taken later than sometime during the semester before first enrollment as a doctoral candidate. An applicant not scoring sufficiently high on the examinations will be granted only one opportunity to retake after no less than six months.

Applicants earning the Master of Music degree from Southwestern within five years prior to doctoral application will not be required to take examinations, provided that: 1) their proposed doctoral concentration is the same as that on their master’s degree; and, 2) their scores on M.M. Comprehensive Examinations are acceptable to the Committee on Advanced Studies. Southwestern graduates of more than five years will be required to take examinations.

Auditions/Evidence of Scholarship

Applicants for the D.M.A. degree will perform an audition before the faculty of the proposed department of concentration. This audition may be performed at the time the applicant is on campus for the interview and the concentration exam. Applicants for the Ph.D. degree will submit evidence of their research and writing.

Concentrations

As part of the application procedure and prior to acceptance, each doctoral prospect will apply to a department of the School of Church Music for permission to enroll in a particular concentration. The following concentrations are available on the D.M.A.: composition, conducting, organ performance, piano pedagogy/literature, piano performance, voice pedagogy/literature, and voice performance. The following concentrations are available on the Ph.D.: music ministry, musicology, and music theory. Specific courses for each concentration are listed in the Manual for Doctoral Studies in Music.

Auditions and Recitals

The D.M.A. student who expects to concentrate in piano or organ will be required to play a thirty- to forty-minute entrance audition. The repertoire should represent a contrast of styles and should reflect a level of achievement which is equal to a master’s degree recital.

The D.M.A. student who expects to concentrate in voice should arrive on campus in time to confer about an accompanist and have sufficient time to prepare the literature for the audition before the voice faculty. The audition material will consist of six songs from memory: three art songs (one in German, one in Italian, and one in French), one contemporary art song in English, one opera aria in its original language, and one oratorio aria in English. If approval is granted, a thirty-minute jury performance at the end of the first semester will qualify the student for continuation in the voice concentration on the D.M.A. degree.

The D.M.A. student who expects to concentrate in conducting may be required to give an entrance recital of varied choral music within the first fifteen hours of course work if the master’s degree did not include a master’s-level recital.

The D.M.A. student who expects to concentrate in composition will submit to the chair of the composition department a list of compositions completed and a representative group of scores and tapes to be evaluated by the department. These materials should be received at least six weeks before the enrollment date.

Each applicant for the Ph.D. will be required to submit a research document either previously prepared or prepared especially for the Ph.D. application. This document should be representative of the applicant’s highest level of scholarship and must conform to the standards of scholarly presentation in Kate L. Turabian’s A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (latest edition).
Continuation in the Program

The Committee on Advanced Studies and the faculty of the School of Church Music reserve the right to decline to admit, or to continue as a student, any person who fails to meet established qualifications or who for any other reason is deemed to be inconsistent with the qualifications or conduct becoming to a Southern Baptist minister. Ethical and moral concerns, as determined solely by the Committee on Advanced Studies, will be referred by the Committee on Advanced Studies to the Ethical Conduct Committee of the seminary for disposition in its customary way. Academic concerns, as determined solely by the Committee on Advanced Studies, will be addressed by the Committee on Advanced Studies and a final decision made by the Committee on Advanced Studies according to the established, publicized protocol. Matters that are, in the judgment of the Committee on Advanced Studies, neither solely ethical and moral nor solely academic will be addressed by the Committee on Advanced Studies in consultation with any seminary officer(s) deemed appropriate by the committee. The Committee on Advanced Studies will make the final decision.

The Committee on Advanced Studies of the School of Church Music publishes a Manual for Doctoral Studies in Music which provides detailed information about the D.M.A. and Ph.D. programs. Doctoral students are required to follow the most recent edition of the manual.

Registration

All new seminary students meet at an announced time for orientation and pre-registration advising. As part of that orientation, entering students will participate in the Profiles of Ministry program sponsored by the Association of Theological Schools. Registration in ORIEN 3000 and payment of a course fee of $60 will be required.

Each doctoral student has the chair of the department of concentration as advisor and the doctoral student and the advisor will work out the first semester’s schedule. Doctoral students must have their course request forms signed by the advisor. Any subsequent requests for changes must also be signed by the advisor.

In subsequent semesters, the student and advisor will review the student’s degree proposal (see below under “Course Work”) during the pre-registration period.

Continued Enrollment

Doctoral students must enroll in the fall and spring semesters each year and pay their enrollment fees from the time they begin their program until they graduate or are no longer in the program. Doctoral students who are not enrolled for regular course work, Doctoral Research and Writing, or doctoral examinations must enroll in MUMIN 8100, Doctoral Continued Enrollment. Students should be aware that tuition costs are underwritten by the Cooperative Program of the Southern Baptist Convention at a rate in excess of $2,000 per year for each student in the doctoral program.

Time Limit

The D.M.A. or Ph.D. degree must be completed within a period of seven years from the time of admission. Extension may be granted in the case of foreign missionaries.

Review of Status

The total record of a student is subject to review each semester of enrollment. After fourteen hours of graduate course work, the Committee on Advanced Studies will officially review the status of the student’s course of study to determine whether or not that student may continue in the doctoral program.

Course Work

As with most university doctoral degrees, the D.M.A. and the Ph.D. require about 100 hours of course work beyond the baccalaureate degree. The Doctor of Musical Arts degree (42-46 hours) and the Doctor of Philosophy degree (41-42 hours) are based upon the seminary Master of Music degree (47-52 hours), for a total of 88-98 hours beyond the bachelor’s degree.

Degree Proposal
A degree proposal is to be developed by the student during the first semester in the doctoral program. The student will submit the proposal to the chair of the department for the department’s approval. The student will then submit ten copies of the proposal to the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies for the committee’s approval. Students who do not submit a degree proposal by the end of their first semester in the doctoral program will be limited to Continued Enrollment (MUMIN 8100).

Grades

Doctoral students must maintain an overall grade point average of 3.0 (B).

Language Requirements

All doctoral students must show satisfactory ability to translate German and any other language which might be required by the field of the dissertation. Courses are available to prepare the student for the doctoral German reading examination. Students who have not passed the German reading examination by the time they have completed fourteen hours of doctoral seminars will not be permitted to enroll for further doctoral seminars. Such a student may enroll only for Continued Enrollment (MUMIN 8100) until the German language requirement has been satisfactorily completed. The German reading examination may be taken any number of times that the committee feels is within reason.

Ph.D. students are required to pass a reading examination in a second foreign language. In most cases, this will be French, but may, by approval of the Committee on Advanced Studies, be another language more appropriate to the student’s area of dissertation research. This second language exam must be passed before the Committee on Advanced Studies gives approval to the dissertation prospectus.

Residence Requirements

Two consecutive semesters in which the student satisfactorily completes a specified number of hours of graduate course work will satisfy the residence requirements of the institution. For academic concentrations, this is 18 hours; for performance concentrations, it is 16 hours.

Qualifying Examinations

Students register for the Doctoral Qualifying Examinations (MUMIN 8080) at the beginning of the semester in which they are to be taken. The schedule for the examinations is established through the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies. The examinations may not be taken until all leveling requirements are satisfied, the German reading examination is accepted, all 7000-level music seminars are completed, and at least thirty hours of doctoral work have been completed. No appreciable amount of course work should be lacking, and in practice, students usually have completed everything but the dissertation before applying to take the examinations. The exams are designed to assure the committee that it is justified in qualifying the student as a candidate for a doctoral degree.

In addition to the examinations described below, a student concentrating in conducting presents a qualifying recital after thirty hours of doctoral work.

Qualifying Examinations for the D.M.A. consist of two parts, one written and one oral. The written qualifying examinations are usually taken over four days, one exam per day, and include 1) music ministry, 2) music history, 3) music theory, and 4) the student’s performance area (composition, conducting, organ, piano pedagogy/literature, piano, voice, or voice pedagogy/literature). The written examination in the student’s area of concentration will be three hours long. Each of the others will be two hours long.

Qualifying Examinations for the Ph.D. also consist of written and oral parts. Three three-hour written exams are given, one each in ministry, history, and theory. In addition, a three-hour exam in the department of concentration is given. These exams will be taken over a four-day period, one each day.

The written examinations generally focus on the areas of the student’s 7000-level seminars, but may range through the whole field of study, and are designed to explore the breadth and depth of the student’s total musical personality. Doctoral students are strongly cautioned against the commonly held notion that qualifying examinations are merely examinations over their doctoral seminars at Southwestern. The oral examination for both the D.M.A. and the Ph.D. is scheduled to take place following the written examinations. It is designed to occupy a two-hour period.
The committee for the oral examination may include any personnel desired by the Committee on Advanced Studies. Normally those present will be the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies, the department chairs (or others) who submitted and evaluated the written examinations, and one additional member from the department of concentration.

The student is judged on the correlation and integration of knowledge from different fields, the mental organization of the knowledge, and the clear oral presentation of responses to the questions. The qualifying examinations are designed to be passed by students who have thoroughly prepared themselves. Scheduled examinations may be postponed. A student who fails any of the written examinations will not be allowed to take the oral examination. If the qualifying examinations are failed, they may be retaken after a period of six months. The examinations may not be taken more than twice. After two failures, the student will not be permitted to continue in the doctoral program.

Dissertation

After successful completion of Qualifying Examinations, the final stage of the degree consists of the preparation of a dissertation. The subject matter of the dissertation must be examined and approved by the Committee on Advanced Studies in a prospectus to be prepared and submitted by the student before significant work on the document is accomplished.

Prospectus: After deciding upon the general form and content of the dissertation, the student will prepare a prospectus for the Committee on Advanced Studies. The subject matter is decided upon, and the prospectus prepared in consultation with the department chair and, in the case of performance concentrations on the D.M.A., also with the applied teacher.

The prospectus should establish the purpose, need, and feasibility of the study. Scope and limitations should be made clear, together with reasons for the boundaries. The title should reflect these ideas in as succinct a form as possible. The prospectus should also address methodology as well as approaches to anticipated problems.

For dissertations, documents, compositions, and documented recitals, the student must establish a clear relationship of the chosen subject with church music. A probable outline will be projected which will include a title and the content of each chapter. A bibliography will be appended which is extensive enough to demonstrate that sources not only exist, but are available to the student.

Writing style in the prospectus is considered to be a reflection of the student’s writing ability and will be evaluated as such.

The student will work with the chair of the department of concentration in preparing the prospectus and will then submit the prospectus to the chair of the department for the department’s approval and to the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies. The student will then submit ten copies of the prospectus to the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies for that committee’s approval. The student will retain one copy.

It is generally not necessary for the student to meet with the committee concerning the prospectus. The professor who worked with the student in developing it will meet with the committee, and is normally assigned as first reader. The committee selects a second reader according to any special demands of the dissertation.

D.M.A. Dissertations

Organ, Piano, Voice Performance, or Piano Pedagogy/Literature

The dissertation for these areas consists of three recital performances covering the literature of the applied field, one documented by a research paper which treats thoroughly the performance practices or pedagogical aspects involved. This will be a lecture-recital. All three recitals require program notes.

The eight hours of credit for the dissertation are contained in the research document and in the recitals. Each department has its own numbering for these four courses.

The documented recital may not be performed until its document is accepted by the first and second readers. “Acceptance” in this case means that the document in its final form is entirely approved. The additional copies will be made following the final oral examination.

The document demonstrates the depth of investigation that the student has made of literature selected for the performance. The performance is to reflect the knowledge gained, and should in no way disagree with the findings in the document. The recital is to be a lecture-recital in which the student apprises the audience, which has not had the benefit of the document, of the high points of the investigation. Detailed program notes are required.
Voice Pedagogy/Literature:

The D.M.A. dissertation in voice pedagogy/literature carries six hours of credit and demonstrates the depth of investigation which the student has made of the pedagogical aspects of the literature selected. The dissertation is validated through the presentation of a lecture-recital (two hours credit) in which the student apprises the audience, which has not had the benefit of the document, of the high points of the investigation. The performance is to reflect the knowledge gained, and should in no way disagree with the findings in the document. Detailed program notes are required.

The recital may not be performed until the document is accepted by the first and second readers. “Acceptance” in this case means that the document in its final form is entirely approved. The additional copies will be made following the final oral examination.

Conducting

The dissertation for this area consists of three public performances (one of which is the qualifying recital) in which the student conducts works from differing periods. The student must work closely with the department chair in selecting music, recruiting performing forces, organizing rehearsals, and mounting the performances. All expenses are borne by the student.

The eight hours of credit for the dissertation are divided into four units: i.e., three performances and one document. The documented performance may not take place until its document is accepted by the first and second readers. “Acceptance” in this case means that the document in its final form is entirely approved. The additional copies will be made following the final oral examination.

The document should highlight the problems of performance practices of the period, particular problems anticipated in rehearsals and performances, and the problems of modern performance of older music. While structure, medium, texture, melodic, harmonic, and rhythmic elements must be discussed in light of performance, the paper is not to take the form of a theoretical analysis.

The documented performance and one other recital performance require an oral lecture, with comments useful for an audience which has not had the benefit of the document. Detailed program notes approved by the first reader are required for all three recitals.

Composition

The dissertation for this area is normally a large work of the scope of an oratorio, calling for orchestral accompaniment. The composition will be supported by a public performance conducted by the composer. The recital may not be performed until the dissertation is accepted by the first and second readers. “Acceptance” in this case means that the dissertation in its final form is entirely approved. The additional copies will be made following the final oral examination. At the discretion of the committee, the dissertation may comprise two shorter works differing in character, the more elaborate of which will be performed publicly.

Each composition will be accompanied by a short literary explanation of the composer’s intent, approach, and any particular problems and conclusions that developed during the course of composing the work.

Ph.D. Dissertation

For the Ph.D., a traditional literary dissertation is required in the area of the concentration, music ministry, musicology, or music theory, related to church music. Guidance of the literary dissertation will be by the Music Ministry, Music History and Literature, or Music Theory department.

The student must determine that the precise topic has not been treated in published works (in whatever language), or in dissertations either completed or in progress. Abstracts and listings of dissertations are available in the Bowld Music Library.

There is no maximum or minimum length established for the dissertation. It must exhaust the topic as presented in the prospectus and accepted by the Committee on Advanced Studies. The dissertation must be a distinct contribution to scholarly knowledge in music. Whereas the master’s thesis is primarily for the student’s benefit, the doctoral dissertation is for the benefit of the larger academic and musical community.

Extremely broad topics are rejected, as are very limited topics. The literary dissertation normally requires research not only in books and periodicals about music, but also in music itself. The student must demonstrate adequate facility in related disciplines required by the topic. These may include theology, philosophy, psychology, acoustics, archaic instruments, or languages other than English, German, or French.

Mechanics of Dissertations and Documents

The student should read and observe carefully the requirements of the mechanics of the dissertation as set out in Southwestern Seminary's style manual. The Norton Manual of Music Notation by George Heussenstamm has been adopted as the official music notation standard by the Advanced Studies Committee. However, computer-based music notation software such as Finale and Sibelius will generate score and parts print-outs acceptable to the Advanced Studies Committee. The student is held responsible for the acceptability of every facet of the dissertation even if a professional typist is utilized. Any deviation from the requirements must be cleared with the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies of the School of Church Music.

Submission of Dissertation

The dissertation, essentially in its final form (including copyright permissions), must be approved by the first and second readers, then submitted in multiple copies to the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies no fewer than sixty days before the anticipated date of graduation. This is to allow sufficient time for the dissertation to be circulated among the committee members. The committee will then have opportunity to make notes for minor corrections before the final oral. Discovery of any major faults will mean that the dissertation is unacceptable, and such faults must be corrected before the final oral examination will be allowed. At least thirty days after submission of the dissertation, and at least thirty days before graduation, the final oral examination will be scheduled by the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies.

After the final oral, but before graduation, the student will secure the appropriate faculty signatures on the signature page of the final corrected copy. This copy (and five additional copies) will include an abstract of not more than 350 words summarizing the research and findings. The student will deliver the dissertation to the Dean of Libraries for binding. Each of the copies should be in a separate box with the author’s name on the outside. Pages should be checked carefully to be sure that they are in order for binding. The University Microfilm Dissertation Agreement should be signed and delivered with the dissertation along with one extra abstract and abstract title page. The student will need to fill out a dissertation mailing sheet in the office of the Dean of Libraries.

All costs for any form of the dissertation will be borne by the student and paid to the seminary business office before graduation. These include expenses for such items as:

1. Producing, binding, and microfilming the required copies of compositions, documents, and literary dissertations.
3. Securing performing forces for the performances.
4. Furnishing performing scores and parts for performances.
5. Printing programs.
6. Tape-recording performances through the facilities and engineers of the seminary.

Final Oral Examination

The final oral examination is the point at which the committee accepts or rejects the dissertation. It carries a regular course number, and the student registers for it at the beginning of the semester of expected graduation.

The examination covers the dissertation and its general relation to the field of music. It is scheduled by the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies upon the request of the student and normally is one hour in length.

The student will submit to the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies completed copies of the Survey of Earned Doctorates and, if appropriate, the RILM Abstracts of Music Literature forms, and any other similar forms that apply to the particular concentration. The student should also provide the Church/Minister Relations Office with appropriate information regarding placement.

Upon completion of the final oral examination, the chair of the Committee on Advanced Studies will certify the student for graduation.
Approval for Graduation

The Committee on Advanced Studies and the general faculty each reserve the right and authority to refuse to approve a candidate for graduation for reasons the committee or the general faculty, in the sole discretion of each, deems valid, even though the candidate has met the other requirements for the degree.

Purpose

The purpose of the J. Dalton Havard School for Theological Studies of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is to develop spiritual leaders for Houston, the surrounding metropolitan area, and the world by providing quality educational experiences for the glory of God.

Degree Overview

The Master of Divinity. The Southwestern MDiv prepares students for the broadest range of Christian ministries. Students receive training in classical theological disciplines such as Old Testament, New Testament, church history and historical theology, systematic theology, ethics, and philosophy, as well as applied disciplines such as pastoral ministry, preaching, evangelism, and missions. In addition, students may use elective hours to pursue concentrations in any school at Southwestern in accordance with their ministry goals and academic interests. The MDiv is the only approved first master's degree for a student preparing for a pastoral or preaching ministry, as well as any other ministry largely comprised of biblical teaching.

The Master of Arts in Christian Education is designed primarily for the person who plans to perform various educational ministries in the church. A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university is a prerequisite.

The Master of Arts in Theology is a graduate level degree offering advanced work in the classical theological disciplines.

The Master of Arts in Lay Ministry provides theological education for lay people, equipping them for competent lay ministry to the church and community. Since the M.A. in Lay Ministry degree does not adequately prepare students for any aspect of vocational ministry, those who sense God's leadership into vocational ministry should normally enroll in the Master of Divinity.

A student may obtain a concentration in either the MDiv or the MACE by using free elective hours to complete the requirements described below. Upon completion of a concentration, students will receive a certificate of their work.

Admissions Policies and Processes

Are you ready to apply to Southwestern?

If you plan to become a student of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary within the next 12 months, please visit our web site at www.swbts.edu and complete the application for admission. You may also contact the Admissions Office to request that we mail you an Application for Admission. Former students of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary should contact the Office of the Registrar for readmission.

Frequently asked questions:

Following are answers to the most often asked questions regarding admission to Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. The answers to these questions represent the official admission policies and procedures.

What is Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary?

The seminary is an institution of the 16 million-member Southern Baptist Convention and has as its basic purpose to provide theological education for individuals engaging in Christian ministry. The Christian ministry includes the numerous ministries which have emerged in the churches and the denomination for which theological education is necessary or desirable. Training for these ministries is provided in the six schools of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary: The College at Southwestern, School of Theology, School of Evangelism and Missions, School of Educational Ministries, School of Church Music, and Havard School for Theological Studies.
What is the Southwestern MDiv?

The Southwestern Master of Divinity prepares students for the broadest range of Christian ministries. Students receive training in classical theological disciplines such as Old Testament, New Testament, church history and historical theology, systematic theology, ethics, and philosophy, as well as applied disciplines such as pastoral ministry, preaching, evangelism, and missions. In addition, students may use elective hours to pursue concentrations in any school at Southwestern in accordance with their ministry goals and academic interests. The MDiv is the only approved first master's degree for a student preparing for a pastoral or preaching ministry, as well as any other ministry largely comprised of biblical teaching. The Southwestern MDiv can be pursued through three schools: the School of Theology, the Fish School of Evangelism and Missions, and in Houston through the Havard School for Theological Studies.

Who can (or should) attend Southwestern?

In its admission policies the seminary assumes the student has been identified as a prospective minister by announced intent, proven conduct in accordance with Christian standards set forth in the Bible, active church involvement, and unqualified approval from the church where they are currently members. Some of the required credentials include:

- a mature Christian character
- evidence of a divine call to the Christian ministry (shown through the application process)
- a record of active church service
- a record of solid academic achievement
- promise of continued intellectual and spiritual growth
- a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 2.0, is prerequisite to all graduate degrees. (Persons who do not have a baccalaureate degree may apply to enroll in the Bachelor of Arts program through The College at Southwestern.)
- a good credit rating
- proficiency in English or the language in which the program is taught

As a Southern Baptist educational institution, the seminary is redemptive, but not rehabilitative, in nature. Therefore, a person should not come to seminary with serious family, health, emotional, or financial problems. The pressures of study, church participation, family, finances, and other such factors weigh heavily upon the seminary student and the student's family. These pressures can be a vital factor affecting the well-being, physical and mental health of the student.

Who must apply to attend Southwestern?

Individuals seeking admission into any course of study resulting in earned academic credit must submit an application for admission to the Office of Admissions. All supporting documents that are part of the admissions application must be received before an admission decision will be made. Registration for classes will be possible only after the Admissions Committee has granted approval for admission. Appropriate application forms and supporting documents are linked to the specific course of study on the seminary's web site at www.swbts.edu. These are also available by calling the Office of Admissions.

Who should delay submitting an application?

Persons who have experienced divorce or bankruptcy should wait one calendar year from the date either is resolved before making application to enroll.

Individuals who have been convicted of a crime, other than a traffic violation or a similar misdemeanor where only a fine was assessed, should wait a minimum of two calendar years after the sentence has been served (including probation) before submitting an application.

How do I apply to attend Southwestern?

All inquiries regarding admission to the seminary should be addressed to the Director of Admissions, P.O. Box 22740, Fort Worth, Texas 76122-0740, by e-mail at admissions@swbts.edu or by web access at www.swbts.edu.

The application for admission includes:
• Official Application for Admission form. It should include a non-refundable application fee, basic demographic information, and a statement of call and commitment to Christian ministry. The written statement should document: 1) conversion experience; 2) family background; 3) spiritual development; 4) call to ministry; 5) vocational/ministry goals; and 6) educational goals.

• Financial statement. This section, completed by the applicant, asks for brief information on financial obligations.

• Medical/Emotional/Social information. This section, completed by the applicant, asks for a brief medical and social history.

• Spouse/Fiancé(e) information form. This form, completed by the spouse or fiancé(e) of the applicant, asks for biographical information as well as a description of present Christian service and understanding of the commitment to vocational Christian ministry.

• Church Endorsement form. This form, completed by the church where the applicant is currently a member, gives evidence of the applicant's sincere commitment to Christian ministry. Where possible the church endorsement should be affirmed at a regular business meeting as the recommendation of a body of believers, not the recommendation of denominational leadership. The current pastor should provide reference information on the church endorsement form. If the endorsement covers a period of membership for less than one year, an additional church endorsement from a second church is required by the Admissions Committee. For student fee purposes, denominational affiliation is determined by the church endorsement form submitted with the student's application to Southwestern Seminary.

• Personal Reference Forms. Three personal references are required from persons other than relatives who have known the applicant rather intimately for at least two years. One reference should come from someone in ministry. The other two references should come from additional sources such as the business and professional or educational sectors.

• Official transcripts of college credits earned at post-high school institutions. Official transcripts are those forwarded from the academic institution directly to the Director of Admissions at SWBTS. The transcript from the institution granting the baccalaureate degree is necessary for all applicants (including doctoral). If the degree program is incomplete when application is filed, a transcript of work to that date must be submitted, and after graduation from college a final official transcript must be furnished indicating the degree received.

• Any additional information as requested. For example, if an applicant or applicant's spouse has been divorced, a divorce statement will be requested.

• Additional documents for permanent residents and international students. See next section regarding international student requirements.

The responsibility for approving or rejecting an application for admission belongs to the Admissions Committee. In order to protect the interests of the applicant, the persons supplying references, the Southern Baptist Convention, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, the proceedings of the committee cannot be shared with the applicant or other interested persons.

When an applicant's file is completed, the applicant will be notified promptly by the Admissions Committee concerning action taken. The seminary reserves the right to require a personal interview before a final decision is reached.

Applications are valid for one year from the date filed. An update application may be required if a student does not enroll within a year.

All documents contained in the applicant's file are the property of the seminary and will not be returned or reproduced for the applicant or other interested persons.

What if I am a permanent resident or an international student?

International students on F-1 visas must contact the International Student Office to comply with the proper admissions procedures for internationals. International students are allowed to attend only the Fort Worth campus. New international students may begin only during the fall or spring semesters. In addition to the requirements listed above, international students (F-1 visas) must also supply the following:

• Statement of Financial Support. The United States Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services requires that students on F-1 visas provide evidence of adequate financial support for the entire period of stay in the United States while pursuing a full course of study.

• Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). All permanent residents and international applicants who are citizens of a country where English is not their first language must take the TOEFL and have the score sent to the Admissions Office. A minimum score of 213 on the computer-based exam or 79 on the internet-based exam is required for master level applicants. Southwestern's institutional code is 6668. Doctoral requirements may be higher; please consult the section of this catalog pertaining to the specific degree in question.

• Transcript Evaluation. All transcripts of academic degrees earned outside the United States must be evaluated by a recognized credentials evaluation service such as World Education Services (WES), PO. Box 5087, New York, NY
A baccalaureate degree equivalency is required for entry into a master level program. If the applicant has post-baccalaureate work in theological study for transfer, it must be at the master level and include subject breakdown. A copy of the evaluation results should be sent directly to Southwestern from the evaluation service. This transcript evaluation is to be requested and paid for by the applicant.

- Alien Registration Receipt Card. All resident alien (permanent resident) applicants must provide a copy of their Alien Registration Receipt Card I-551 (green card).
- Applicants classified as R-1 visa status for religious work must furnish a copy of their R-1 visa accompanied by an employment verification letter from their current employer.

What are the application deadlines for the next academic year?

All applications for admission must be fully processed and approved by the Admissions Committee before enrollment in seminary classes is possible. The following deadlines are indicated so you will be aware of the dates for submitting the application and all supporting documents. Applications and supporting documents received after the deadlines will be processed as quickly as possible.

What if my undergraduate degree is not regionally accredited?

Applications for admission from prospective students whose degrees are from institutions that are not regionally accredited may request consideration for conditional acceptance. This conditional acceptance will be based on review of the completed admissions application (including all supporting documents such as church endorsement, transcripts, and references) by the dean of the school offering the degree program to which the prospect is applying. Students who are conditionally accepted may enroll for no more than twelve hours and must achieve a GPA of 2.000 during their first term.

What if I have not earned an undergraduate degree?

Applicants who desire to pursue a master's degree without the prerequisite baccalaureate degree are strongly encouraged to apply to The College at Southwestern. In rare circumstances it may be possible to apply for admission to a graduate program without the prerequisite baccalaureate degree. For more information please contact the Admissions Office.

What if my undergraduate degree was completed outside the United States?

If the baccalaureate degree is from a college or university outside the United States, the degree must be evaluated by a recognized credentials evaluation service such as World Education Services (WES), PO. Box 5087, New York, NY 10274-5087. The evaluation must show that the work is equivalent to an accredited baccalaureate degree earned in the United States. The credentials evaluation is the responsibility of the applicant. Check with the Office of Admissions for a list of other recognized credentials evaluation services.

When may I apply for campus housing?

Once your application for admission has been completed and you have been accepted for admission, you may contact the Housing Office at 817-923-1921, ext 2330 to make arrangements for housing.

Are students ever dismissed from the seminary?

The total record of the student is subject to review each semester the student enrolls. The seminary reserves the right to discontinue at any time the enrollment of any student whose quality of performance, active church involvement, conduct, or financial status is deemed unsatisfactory. In addition to academic requirements, the standards of ethical conduct outlined in the Catalog are applicable.
Is church attendance required to attend seminary?

Applicants must demonstrate church membership and active church involvement to apply for admission to the seminary. Active membership and involvement in a local church is also required of all students for continued enrollment.

What if I am a former student wanting to attend seminary again?

Former students who wish to return to Southwestern for enrollment must contact the Office of the Registrar. An Enrollment Update Request Form must be submitted at least 60 days before enrollment starts. Certain other supporting documents may be required for readmission.

Are applicants with divorce allowed to attend Southwestern?

When an applicant or applicant's spouse has been divorced, additional information will be required asking specific questions relative to the divorce and the person's understanding of its impact on his/her life, family members, and future ministry. When all parts of the application are completed, the Admissions Committee may choose to contact the applicant to arrange for a personal interview. A person's divorce must be resolved for a minimum of one calendar year prior to the receipt of the application.

What about campus jobs?

Campus employment is available for students and student spouses. Application is made through the Personnel Office by mail or in person.

Is student financial aid available?

There are a variety of financial resources that can be utilized to help meet the student's needs. For more information contact the Office of Student Financial Aid, P.O. Box 22510, Fort Worth, Texas 76122, or Phone (817) 923-1921, ext. 3080.

Will my admission and/or enrollment at one of the other 5 (five) Southern Baptist seminaries transfer to Southwestern?

Application and admissions procedures are very similar but individual and separate for each of the six Southern Baptist seminaries. You must complete an application for admission and be approved for admission at the seminary of your choice according to the stated catalog requirements for that specific seminary.

May I transfer credits from another institution?

Credit earned in accredited institutions may be considered for transfer in accordance with the provisions of the transfer credit policy stated fully in the Catalog.

Is childcare available for my young children?

The Goldia and Robert Naylor Children's Center serves the preschool children of seminary students, faculty and staff, and members the community when space is available. The telephone number is (817) 923-1921, ext. 2970.

Does my credit rating affect my admission?

An applicant must have a good credit standing before admission can be approved. Good credit must be maintained for continued enrollment.
New Student Orientation

All new students including those attending off-campus centers, are required to attend orientation. This includes missionary candidates in the appointment process who are fulfilling the 20-hour requirement.

Orientation sessions are held on each campus, including the satellite campuses. Upon acceptance to Southwestern Seminary, applicants will be sent information regarding the orientation schedule for the appropriate campus.

Note: Former Southwestern students returning to Southwestern to complete a degree or work on another degree are not required to attend orientation.

Special Sessions

International Session. International students are required to attend International Student Orientation sessions in addition to the general Fort Worth campus sessions. All students on F-1 student visas must attend these sessions.

Music Session. The School of Church Music will inform all new music students of the schedule for auditions and placement that take place prior to general school orientation.
Women's Programs

The Wife of the Equipping Minister

This course is taught each fall by Southwestern Seminary's First Lady, Mrs. Dorothy Patterson. Offered free of charge, the course offers a practical survey of issues relating to the role of the minister's wife. An abbreviated admissions form is used to enroll first time students in the course.

The objectives of the course are:

1. To enable a woman to find her own identity in Christ, to incorporate a personal quiet time in her own life, and to prepare a personal testimony for sharing with others;
2. To challenge a wife to fulfill divinely-assigned responsibilities to her husband of helping him in the task God has assigned to him and submitting to his leadership in the home and church;
3. To demonstrate the homemaking skills and efficiency for managing, maintaining, and enhancing the home as a shelter and nurturing center for the family;
4. To train mothers to rear their children in the Lord through consistent nurture, creative teaching, and effective discipline;
5. To familiarize the staff wife with her opportunities for ministry within the church and to motivate her to choose and equip herself for ministry according to her own respective gifts; and
6. To provide an opportunity for each class member to present her own ministry/talent/spiritual gift to the class.

This course is required of all students enrolled in the Seminary Studies for Student Wives program. Those in the SSSW program should take this course the first fall semester they are enrolled.

Seminary Studies for Student Wives

Southwestern Seminary is making an investment in student wives. We believe that there is a need for the spouse to join the marital partner in the educational pilgrimage. This unique program combines practical, spiritual, and academic studies.

Student wives can be equipped and earn seminary credit by attending courses offered Tuesday nights through Seminary Studies for Student Wives (SSSW). In this program, the student wife must take the three-hour Wife of the Equipping Minister course, which is offered every fall, and five additional two-hour student wives courses for a total of thirteen semester-hours of credit. In order to take these courses for credit, the student wife must complete the application for admission for certificate and non-degree programs.

The Certificate of Education and Ministry will be awarded for satisfactory completion of the full thirteen hour program.

The Wife of the Equipping Minister course is provided free. The fee for remaining SSSWP courses is $20 per hour. As certificate students, student wives are also eligible to take regular seminary courses. The standard course fee rates apply to regular seminary courses. Regardless of course type, SSSWP students will not be required to pay campus fees, provided the courses taken count toward the completion of their certificate. Six credit hours of regular seminary courses may be taken in lieu of two SSSWP courses. In addition, free childcare is provided for any student wife attending regularly scheduled Seminary Studies classes. Reservations must be made in advance.

Courses offered in the SSSW Program will be offered in seven week blocks. Each course will count as 2 hours of credit. In addition to the Wife of the Equipping Minister course, one course will be offered each fall and two courses will be offered each spring. After taking the Wife of the Equipping Minister course, it is possible for a student to take three 2 hour courses each academic year.

For additional information concerning Seminary Studies for Student Wives or Seminary Studies courses, call the Director of Women's Programs at 817.923.1921 ext 2159.

Leadership Certificate in Women's Ministry

The purpose of the Leadership Certificate in Women's Ministry program is to equip lay leaders and church staff to lead ministries for women in the local church by providing quality training and networking opportunities.

The Leadership Certificate in Women's Ministry can be acquired by completing 12 hours of course credit. This is accomplished by completing four 3-hour courses taught in the seminar format. Each course consists of one week of classroom instruction, taught by Southwestern faculty and other experts in the field of women's ministry, with an assignment due two weeks after each course. Courses are offered one week in the spring and one week in the fall. It is possible to complete the program in two years. Courses may also be taken for credit in Southwestern's master's programs.

Master of Arts in Christian Education with a Concentration in Women's Ministry
Southwestern Seminary offers two Masters' degrees with specific women's concentrations.

The School of Educational Ministries provides a 64-hour program of study leading to the M.A.C.E. degree. This degree program is designed primarily for the person who plans to perform ministry to women in the local church. Many who choose this degree may serve in denominational agencies and on mission fields. A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university is a prerequisite. Students enrolled in this degree must maintain a "C" average for graduation.

Ladies interested in pursuing certificates in Seminary Studies for Student Wives or Women's Ministry may apply for admission by completing an abbreviated admission form through the Office of Admissions.

Ladies interested in pursuing a master's degree with a concentration in Women's Ministry may apply for admission by completing the full application form through the Office of Admissions.
Certificate Programs

Leadership Certificate in Childhood and Weekday Education

The School of Educational Ministries offers programs leading to the following certificate:

Leadership Certificate in Childhood and Weekday Education

In order to provide training for the large number of persons providing leadership in the churches in the areas of weekday, preschool, and childhood education, a certificate program has been developed. Persons may attend classes one weekend a month and receive one hour of seminary credit for each class taken. At the completion of 12 classes (12 seminary hours) the person will receive a certificate from Southwestern Seminary. If, at a later date, the person decides to enter the seminary and work on a diploma or master’s degree, those 12 hours may become the elective block and concentration in the total degree plan. Current students may also enroll in the weekend courses.

Leadership Certificate in Childhood and Weekday Education Courses

CHDED 3221 (1221). The Person In Charge
CHDED 3231 (1231). Quality You Can See
CHDED 3241 (1241). Behind the Scenes Administration
Attention will be given to planning and operating programs for preschoolers in the church and during the week. The roles and work of the preschool minister, weekday and parents’ day out director will be studied and observed through time spent in the Naylor Children’s Center. Three hours.

CHDED 3251 (1251). Parents of Preschoolers
CHDED 3261 (1261). Parents of Children and Teens
CHDED 3271 (1271). Special Issues in Parenting
Parents are a child's first teachers. Attention will be given to equipping parents to lead and prepare children for successful mastery of life skills and faith development. Students will take steps towards developing confidence in their ability to become parents and teachers of children. Three hours.

CHDED 3311 (1311). Mastering the Basics
CHDED 3321 (1321). Understanding Babies, Ones and Twos
CHDED 3331 (1331). Understanding Threes, Fours and Fives
During the first five years of a child's life, foundations are laid for a lifetime of learning and growth. The course will combine knowledge, theory and practical application to enable the student to work with preschoolers in any setting. Three hours.

CHDED 3341 (1341). Understanding Ages 6, 7 and 8
CHDED 3351 (1351). Understanding Children Ages 9-11
CHDED 3361 (1361). Programs and Activities for Children
Understanding the development of elementary age children in first through sixth grades, provides the foundation for the basic teaching ministry to these boys and girls in the church. The student will be challenged to develop age-appropriate learning experiences and activities for children through the church's ministry to children and to assist the parents with the task of parenting. Three hours.

CHDED 3371 (1371). Ministry With Exceptional Children and Families
A study will be made of the characteristics and needs of children with special needs, and ways the faith community can teach and minister to them. Some of the areas of study are: Gifted and Talented, Mentally Retarded, Learning Disabilities, Behavior Problems, Communication Disorders in Speech and Language, Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Physical Disabilities, Health Impairments, and Visual Impairments. One hour.
The Center for Leadership Development

Ralph M. Smith Leadership Development Complex

Purpose

The Center for Leadership Development exists primarily to help equip the saints for works of service by providing a conduit of communication between local churches and theological educators. Through conferences and seminars, The Center provides opportunities for life long learning and field specialization. In addition to attempting to build up the body of Christ, The Center ministers to the community by offering quality meeting space with professional service at reasonable prices.

Meeting Space

The J.W. "Jack" MacGorman Conference Center’s 12 flexible meeting rooms provide 55,000 square feet of conference space, seating a total of 1,200. Each conference room features a state-of-the-art media system with wireless microphone, CD/cassette playback, data projector, VHS VCR, satellite downlink and laptop computer output. One of our conference coordinators can assist you with all aspects of event planning including guest accommodations, meeting space, audiovisual, catering, decorations and/or promotion. To speak with one of our coordinators, contact 817.923.1921, ext. 2440.

Guest Housing

The Ray I. Riley Alumni Center, located on the north end of the Leadership Development Complex includes 47 luxury guestrooms and 8 suites. Each guestroom features two telephones with data port, voicemail, cable television, refrigerator, microwave, coffeepot, iron and ironing board and a lounge chair. Some suites feature an additional queen sleeper sofa. The Alumni Center also has its own business center with fax, copier, computer and printer. Complimentary continental breakfast is available to all guests. For guest room reservations, contact 817.923.1921, ext. 8800.
Enrollment Services

Registration Procedures

Complete instructions and dates for registration are located in the semester schedule of classes available online through WebAdvisor and the main website. All currently enrolled students will be notified via student email of the date and time they are to advance register and how to finalize their registration. Priority for advance registration will be determined by the extent to which students have completed their degree programs. Registration may be completed online at WebAdvisor or by phone at 817-923-1921 extension 2000.

Former students who have been readmitted will be notified by mail of their acceptance and date and time to register.

Doctoral students submit their registrations to the doctoral office in the school in which they are enrolled.

Student Fees and Payment for 2006-07

The standard fee rates apply to all students unless they are members of a Southern Baptist church. The Southern Baptist Cooperative Program generously provides a scholarship that in most programs pays half the tuition for *Southern Baptist students. Student fee payments vary from student to student depending on the program of study. All student fees are subject to change without notice.

*Denominational affiliation is determined initially by the church endorsement form submitted with the student’s application to Southwestern Seminary. After admission, denominational affiliation is confirmed by the yearly certification of church membership. Questions about denominational affiliation can be directed to the Registrar's Office.

Payment

Business Office

All student housing rent, dormitory rent, childcare payments, and other fee payments may be made directly to the Business Office (Room S-103) during posted hours, the Business Office drop box (Room S-105), or sent by mail to:

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
Attn: Business Office
P.O. Box 22480
Fort Worth, Texas 76122

Students are responsible for all charges assessed by the seminary for providing services to them, related fees where applicable, and all costs incurred by Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in the collection of these amounts.
Refund Policy

Students officially withdrawing through the Office of the Registrar may receive a partial or full refund of tuition and student campus fees as follows:

- Fall and Spring Semesters
  - For a student who officially withdraws from all classes during late registration, the refund will be 100% of the per hour tuition and student campus fee only, less a $15 per course drop fee. All other fees are non-refundable.
  - Students withdrawing from classes after late registration and prior to the end of the first quarter of the term will receive a refund of 50% of the per hour tuition fee and 50% of the student campus fee, less a $15 per course drop fee. All other fees are non-refundable.
  - Students withdrawing from classes after the first quarter of the term will receive no refund.

- Summer Semester / Winter Term
  - For a student who officially withdraws from summer classes, the refund of tuition and campus fee only (less the $15 per course drop fee) will be based on the course term dates. The first class day is defined as the first day of any term when classes are offered. It is not necessarily the first day a student attends a class, nor is it the first day a student’s class meets:
    - Day 1 - Day 2 of course term dates .............. 100% of tuition and student campus fee only.
    - Day 3 of course term dates ............................ 50% of tuition only
    - After day 3 of course term dates ........................ No Refund
  - All other fees are non-refundable.

A Refund Petition Committee will consider written appeals of the above refund policy for matters involving “extreme medical emergencies and/or death in the immediate family.” E-mail your written petition to RegRefund@swbts.edu. Please allow 10 business days for a response. If you have not received a response in 10 business days, you may contact the Business Office at: (817) 923-1921, ext. 2400.

Dropping and Adding a Course(s)

After early registration for any term, students who drop a course(s) will be required to pay a $15 clerical fee for each course dropped including changing a course section. Refunds owed will be calculated based on the total amount due after the schedule adjustment has been made.

A clerical fee is not assessed for adding classes. Additional per hour fees owed will be calculated based on the total amount due after the schedule adjustment has been made.

Withdrawal from a Course(s)

A student who officially withdraws from a course(s) after late registration is subject to the same refund policy as a student who withdraws from the seminary. The student will pay a $15 clerical fee for each withdrawn course.

No refunds will be made after the deadlines indicated above.

Financial Aid

Financial Aid at Southwestern begins with funding from the Cooperative Program, which is made possible by the generous giving of Southern Baptist churches and individuals. The major portion of academic costs for Southern Baptist students is defrayed by a direct subsidy from the Cooperative Program of the Southern Baptist Convention as an investment in the future ministerial leadership of Southern Baptist churches and institutions.

The primary purpose of the financial aid program at Southwestern is to assist students who demonstrate financial need. A student’s preparation for entering the Seminary should include a determination of personal financial needs and the provisions for meeting these needs. Even though the Seminary believes that students, as much as possible, should be self-supporting, it is acknowledged that some students may require financial assistance to complete their seminary training.

Financial aid is primarily awarded to students who are full time, demonstrate need and are moving toward completion of a degree. Any assistance provided is supplemental to other income and resources the student may have.
Scholarships through Southwestern:

Through the generous gifts of individual donors, a limited number of scholarships are made available to qualified students who apply and interview. These scholarships are available as grants under conditions established by the donors. Scholarships are only available for currently enrolled students, and interviews are scheduled in September and February for the upcoming semester.

FACTS Payment Plan:

A payment plan is available for registration costs, administered by the Business Office. There is a minimal per semester nonrefundable enrollment fee, and monthly payments are automatically withdrawn from the subscriber's bank account on the fifth day of each month throughout the semester.

Loan Deferment:

Southwestern does not participate in federal or state funded student aid programs involving loans or grants. However, Southwestern is eligible to recommend repayment deferments for most federal or state educational loans received in colleges and universities. Deferment applications may be obtained from the lender and brought to the Office of the Registrar for processing.

Prospective Student Scholarships:

There are a limited number of first semester referral scholarships as well as information on non-seminary financial resources available to prospective students. Some state conventions and foundations offer scholarships to students from their state. Students may contact the convention and/or foundation in their home state to make inquiry. Limited information is also available on the seminary website at www.swbts.edu/financialaid.

Journeyman & ISC Scholarship:

Anyone who has completed 24 months of an overseas assignment as a Journeyman or International Service Corps (ISC) appointee of the International Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention, may apply for a tuition-based scholarship.

Music Scholarships:

A limited number of performance scholarships and teaching assistantships are available in the School of Church Music. They are awarded to students of proven ability and outstanding dedication to Christian service and normally are given after the completion of one semester of residence, so that the faculty may have an opportunity to evaluate each student.

Student Spouse Scholarships:

The spouse of a student may apply for the Student Spouse Scholarship, if both the student and the spouse are enrolled in programs which charge a campus fee. The scholarship is equivalent to the current "campus fee" rate. To qualify, both husband and wife must be enrolled in an accredited degree program. Application forms are available in the Student Financial Aid Office.

Veteran Benefits:

Entitled veterans, active duty military in voluntary education programs, Texas National Guard, drilling Reservists and eligible spouses and offspring who have applied, met all admissions criteria, been fully accepted, and actively enrolled may be certified to the U.S. Department of Veterans' Affairs as enrolled and in pursuit of an approved program of Education. The Office of the Registrar will communicate the information to the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Financial Counseling:

There are many times when students need counseling regarding specific financial situations or budgeting for future education expenses. In many cases the Office of Student Financial Aid can assist in solving the problems or provide referral information to another seminary office or area agency, which can provide help.
Non-Federal Loans:

Non-Federal Loans are available in limited amounts for some students with emergency or specific needs. Students need to contact the Student Financial Aid Office for information.

Barber Estate Loans are long-term, no-interest loans to assist students in the last year of study at Southwestern Seminary to complete their seminary degree.

Emergency Loans are small loans to help students with a small emergency, not to exceed $800, and must be repaid by the end of the semester. Students are limited to one loan at a time.

Emergency Grants:

When students are confronted with financial crises caused by a serious illness, death or other unforeseen emergency, the seminary seeks to share in the financial need with an aid grant or loan. Contact Student Financial Aid Office for application or information.

Work:

The student is expected to provide a major share of his or her expenses through personal employment, savings and other assets. In the case of a married student with no children, the spouse who has completed his/her formal education is normally expected to be gainfully employed. The spouse’s income should be considered as a part of the total family income. Student couples should not expect increased financial aid from the seminary to offset loss of income resulting from having children.

For on-campus job opportunities, a student should contact the Seminary Personnel Office and for off-campus and church-related positions, the student should contact the Office of Church/Minister Relations.

Click here to visit the Financial Aid website.

Graduation

The prescribed course of study as outlined in the curricula of the various schools must be satisfactorily completed before the student will be eligible for graduation. It is possible that a student may not be recommended for graduation even though the requirements of the prescribed course of study have been met. Normally, no student will be graduated without at least half of the degree program work completed at Southwestern. The final 15 hours must be earned in residence.

Students must maintain an average grade of “C” (2.00) for graduation. The grade average will be determined on the basis of grades recorded before enrollment for the final term of resident study. Students enrolled in the School of Church Music, the Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Counseling, or the Master of Arts in Christian Counseling programs should refer to their respective degree programs in the catalog for minimum GPA requirements. A student enrolled for an advanced degree must maintain work satisfactory to the appropriate advanced study committee.

Students whose financial accounts with the seminary or elsewhere are in unsatisfactory condition will not be permitted to graduate.

Students are required to be present for both rehearsal and commencement exercises. If a student cannot be present, graduation in absentia may be approved. Arrangements must be made six weeks before the commencement exercises and must be made by written petition. Petitions may be obtained in the Registrar's Office or at www.swbts.edu/registrar.

Students are expected to complete their work for the degree according to the requirements of the catalog of the year in which they entered. Students who withdraw may return under their original catalog if they have missed no more than two consecutive regular semesters (Fall/Spring). All other students will return under the requirements of the catalog in effect during the semester in which coursework is resumed.

Catalog years begin with the fall semester. Students entering for the first time in the summer session will be subject to the catalog for the fall semester immediately following.
Application for Graduation

Students must indicate their intention to graduate by submitting an application for graduation at the time of enrollment for their last semester. Applications for graduation are available on WebAdvisor or in the Registrar’s Office.

Students desiring to continue study immediately following graduation should contact the Registrar’s Office at least sixty days prior to the beginning of the semester in which they wish to return. Students will be asked to complete a written request in order to continue study. Requests to continue study are located at www.swbts.edu/Registrar and in the Registrar's Office.

1M.A.C.M. (2.75), M.M. program (2.75), D.M.A. program (3.00), and in the M.A.C.C and M.A.M.F.C. (3.00 overall, 3.25 departmental GPA)

Academic and Enrollment Information

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and is an accredited member institution of the National Association of Schools of Music.

The school year at Southwestern Seminary is divided into two regular semesters, fall and spring, and two special semesters, summer and winter. The fall and spring semesters have approximately 15 weeks of class work. The format varies for the summer and winter sessions.

The basic unit for credit earned is the semester hour, representing one hour of classroom instruction per week for 15 weeks.

Absences

Students are expected to attend all meetings of all classes in which they are enrolled. A student’s grade may be penalized for absences. Students absent from more than 20% of the class sessions will not receive credit for the course. During the fall and spring semesters this means that students missing more than 12 (50-minute) class meetings of a four-hour class, more than six (75-minute) class meetings of a three-hour class, more than six (50-minute) class meetings of a two-hour class, or more than 3 class meetings of a one hour class will not receive credit for the course. The maximum number of absences from chapel for students enrolled in Spiritual Formation courses is 9.

Academic Advisors

A faculty advisor is assigned to each student. Graduate students are expected to keep a record of the completion of courses required for graduation. A schedule of classes for each semester is available online through WebAdvisor. Students should consult faculty advisors or the advising office in their school when encountering special problems.

Academic Difficulty

The following procedures of warning, probation, and suspension apply to students enrolled in undergraduate or master’s degrees in each of the six schools.

Academic Warning. Any student who does not attain a semester average of 2.00 1 while his/her overall average is above 2.00 1 will receive an academic warning. This means that the student’s grades for that semester are below the average required for good standing.

Academic Probation. Students whose total grade point average falls below 2.00 1 will be placed on academic probation for the next semester in which they are enrolled. These students will be permitted to enroll for a maximum of six hours, and possibly less, if so advised.

Continued Academic Probation. Students whose cumulative grade point average remains below 2.00 1 despite a semester average above 2.00 1 will be placed on continued academic probation for the next semester in which they are enrolled. These students will be permitted to enroll for a maximum of six hours, and possibly less, if so advised.

Academic Suspension. Failure to attain a semester average of 2.00 1 in a semester of academic probation will result in immediate suspension as a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary for one year.
Final Suspension. A student who is re-admitted after a suspension will be placed on Academic Probation. Failure to maintain a 2.00¹ average in any semester of academic probation following a suspension will result in immediate and permanent suspension.

Re-admission. A student who has been placed on academic suspension is eligible to apply for re-enrollment no earlier than one calendar year (two semesters and a summer session) following the suspension. Requests for reinstatement must be addressed in writing to the Office of the Registrar. A student readmitted after suspension will enroll under academic probation.

¹In the M.A.C.M. (2.75), M.M. (2.75), D.M.A. (3.00), and M.A.M.F.C. and M.A.C.C. (3.00 overall and 3.25 in counseling courses). Students who are suspended while enrolled in these programs may elect to continue studies at Southwestern by changing to another degree with lower minimum GPA requirements.

Admission, Continuance, Graduation

The faculty of each school determines the requirements for admission to, continuation in, and graduation from degree programs in that school. Students seeking a second degree at the same level should be aware of policies regarding the transfer of credits from one degree to a second. These are outlined below under the section "Transfer Credit Policy."

A student may file a written request for review in the Dean's Office if a question arises on a decision made by the faculty. Appeals can be made provided such a request is filed within 15 days of the date the decision is delivered to the student or mailed to the student through the United States Postal Service.

The faculty of each school reserves the right and authority to refuse approval of a candidate for graduation or to terminate the continuance of a student in an academic program for any reason or reasons. The faculty decides the validity of such action, even if the student has met and is currently meeting the academic and other requirements for the degree program.

Advanced Standing without Credit

Students who have completed Old Testament or New Testament introductory courses in their undergraduate work with an A or B may be eligible to receive advanced standing without credit. This would enable the student to enroll in advanced Old Testament or New Testament courses instead of the introductory courses required for the degree. An evaluation of the undergraduate transcript must be performed or the student will not be eligible to receive advanced standing without credit. Transcript evaluations are requested through the Office of the Registrar.

Advisors

Members of the faculty serve as advisors. A degree program outline containing the essential content, objectives, and units of study is available to students. This outline, along with the guidance of the faculty advisor, will serve to help students intelligently select courses of study.

Auditing

Eligible courses with seats still available after classes begin may be audited for no credit. Auditing is restricted to current students and their spouses and career Southwestern employees and their spouses. Individuals not in these categories may contact the Office of Admissions for information on becoming a student. Auditors will pay the current tuition rate plus any course fees. Student spouses will pay half the current tuition rate.

Students may only switch from credit to audit status if they meet the withdrawal criteria.

Class Schedules

Schedules listing classes offered each semester are available through WebAdvisor and the Current Students section of the website.

Class Work

All class work is due on the date set by the professor. No assignments will be accepted which are more than two weeks overdue and the grade on late work will be reduced for each day overdue.
Conditional Enrollment

Conditional enrollment is permitted for students in their final semester of college with the provision that they submit an official transcript from their college showing grades for completed courses and the classes in which they are enrolled but have not yet completed. Students may not complete more than 15 hours of seminary work before completing a baccalaureate degree. Upon the completion of the baccalaureate degree the student will submit an official transcript from an accredited college or university with the degree posted to the Registrar's Office. This transcript is a prerequisite to enrolling in any graduate degree program at the seminary.

Conference and Directed Study Courses

Any course from the catalog may be completed in a conference setting. Students must secure the agreement of a faculty member and the approval of the Assistant Dean of the division in which the course is offered. A conference course is not part of regular assigned teaching load but is offered when necessary to meet an individual student’s unique need. Only special circumstances will merit approval. The assistant dean will provide written notification to the student that the conference course has been approved, and the student will be registered for the course by the Dean's Office. Students enrolling in conference courses pay both the tuition fee and the special conference course fee of $100 per semester hour.

The purpose of a directed study with a professor is to allow the student to study subject matter at a greater depth than is currently included in the curriculum.

At the invitation of a professor, a student may be invited to participate in a directed study. This professor-to-individual, or professor-to-small group study will be submitted to the appropriate Assistant Dean's Office for approval. Directed studies are restricted to material not currently presented in existing curriculum plans. An outline and contract for the study will accompany the request for approval. When approved, the Dean's Office will complete registration for the course. The student will pay both the tuition fee and the special directed study course fee, currently $100 per hour.

Students will be limited to two conference courses or directed studies during the tenure of the degree for which they are enrolled. Conference courses and directed studies completed with Fort Worth or Houston faculty are considered on-campus hours.

1Students in the School of Educational Ministries must secure the approval of the Dean rather than the Assistant Dean.

Dean's List

Dean’s List. The Dean’s List is computed for the fall and spring semesters only. Undergraduate and master’s level students must be enrolled for a minimum of 10 hours and make at least a 3.90 for the specific semester to be included in the Dean’s List.

Disability Assistance

Southwestern Seminary is in full compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and is committed to helping students with disabilities to be successful academically. The Seminary has disability parking and ramps into buildings on campus. Each building with more than one floor is equipped with an elevator. The Seminary will strive to accommodate most reasonable needs that a disabled person might have (e.g. consider modification of examination method; aid with note copying; consideration of making a professor’s lecture notes available; etc.). The school will also work with the disabled person to identify volunteers who may be able to assist in the case of a special need. Please contact the Office of the Registrar in Scarborough Hall 106, 817-923-1921 ext. 3040 to provide documentation of disabilities. All academic assistance requests should be worked out with the individual professors at the beginning of each semester. At the request of the student, the Registrar's Office will provide summary information to instructors specified by the student. Southwestern Seminary has not been funded to pay for or subsidize the cost of personal support services that a student may require. There are government and non-profit agencies and organizations that may be able to help, such as:

- American Council of the Blind 1155 15th Street NW Suite 1004 Washington, DC 20005 (202) 467-5081 (800) 424-8666 Fax: (202) 467-5085
- Center for Computer Assistance for the Disabled http://www.c-cad.org/ (214) 800-2223
- Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services (DARS) http://www.dars.state.tx.us 4800 N. Lamar Blvd., 3rd Floor Austin, Texas 78756
Examinations

At the close of each semester a week is given to written examinations. All students are required to take the examinations. Students who are unavoidably prevented from taking final examinations at the appointed time due to emergencies such as illness or a death in the family are entitled to make up a final examination. Arrangements for this examination must be made with the professor and must be completed by the third week of the following semester.

Full Time Enrollment

Fall and Spring, Undergraduate students must be enrolled for a minimum of 12 semester hours to be classified as full-time; registration for a minimum of 10 semester hours is full time for graduate students. Special permission must be granted to enroll in more than 18 hours per semester. Such permission must be approved in writing from the Registrar before registration.

Students actively fulfilling church planting and missions components of their programs will be considered full time students. Students enrolled in the thesis phase of any master’s degree will be considered full time students. Students taking any number of hours or in the writing/project phase of a doctoral program will be considered full time students.

Summer Students. Both undergraduate and graduate students must be enrolled for a minimum of 8 semester hours to be classified as full time in the summer. Doctoral students are considered full time in the summer due to the work they perform in preparation for comprehensive examinations.
Grading

Grading at Southwestern Seminary is by letter. A numeric scale serves as a guide for each letter grade. Grades are reported to students through WebAdvisor. Grades cannot be reported orally from any office on campus.

Grades are designated as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>A+ (100-98)</th>
<th>A (97-93)</th>
<th>A- (92-90)</th>
<th>B+ (89-88)</th>
<th>B (87-83)</th>
<th>B- (82-80)</th>
<th>C+ (79-78)</th>
<th>C (77-73)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Excellent</td>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A grade of “E” (conditional) is earned only in continuing courses. This grade can be raised to a “D” by doing “C” grade work in the remainder of the course; otherwise, it becomes an “F”.

The “I” (incomplete) grade is given when the course is not completed by the end of the term for acceptable reasons. If this grade is not removed within eight weeks of the end of the semester, it becomes an “F”.

Students are permitted to withdraw from courses and receive a “W” only during the first half of any course. Students desiring an exception to this rule must petition through the Registrar's Office. "W" will not be calculated in the grade point average.

The grade of “NF” (non-attendance failure) may be given by a professor for excessive absences by a student or when a student stops attending the class. This grade will be computed in the grade point average like a grade of “F”.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Value</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A+</td>
<td>4.3</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>0.0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

With the 12-point grading system, a student could possibly graduate with above a 4.00 average. However, 2.00 will continue to be the lowest passing average for probation/suspension purposes.¹

¹In the M.A.C.M. (2.75), M.M. (2.75), D.M.A. (3.00), and M.A.M.F.C. and M.A.C.C. (3.00 overall and 3.25 in counseling courses).

Grade Appeal

The normal procedure of appeal begins with a consultation with the professor and dean in the school concerned. For unresolved problems students contact the Office of the Executive Vice President and Provost, Fleming Hall 105, ext. 4300.

Online Restriction

A student may complete up to one third of a degree plan online.

Petitions

Should there arise a scenario in which an exception to an academic policy seems necessary, students may complete and submit a petition form through the Registrar's Office.
Records

It is Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary's policy to maintain the confidentiality of student education records.

No one outside the institution shall have access to nor will the institution disclose any information from a student's education records without the written consent of the student except to personnel within the institution, to persons or organizations providing student financial aid, to accrediting agencies carrying out their accreditation function, to persons in compliance with a judicial order, and to persons in an emergency in order to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons.

Within the Seminary community, only those members, individually or collectively, acting in the student's educational interest or involved with campus safety are allowed access to student education records.

The institution does provide directory information to include: student name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, major field of study, dates of attendance, class schedule, degrees, and awards received. Students may withhold directory information by notifying the Registrar in writing.

Requests for non-disclosure will be honored by the institution until the student requests a change in writing.

Students may inspect, review, and challenge the information contained in their education records, request a hearing if the outcome of the challenge is unsatisfactory, and submit explanatory statements for inclusion in their files if they think the decisions to be unacceptable. The Registrar at Southwestern has been designated by the institution to coordinate the inspection and review procedures for student education records, which include admissions, personal, academic, financial, and placement records.

Education records do not include records of administrative and education personnel. These records are the sole records of the administration and education personnel who prepare them.

Students may not inspect and review financial information submitted by their parents, confidential letters and recommendations associated with admissions, employment or job placement, honors to which they have waived their rights of inspection and review, or education records containing information about more than one student. When records pertain to more than one student the institution will permit access only to that part of the record which pertains to the inquiring student.

Requests for amendments to grades after a student has graduated will not be considered unless there is substantial evidence of inaccuracy on the Seminary's behalf.

Repeating Courses

Courses for which grades of “D” or better have been earned may not be repeated for credit. Courses for which grades of “F” have been received may be repeated for credit. Only the grade for the repeated attempt counts toward the grade point average. All entries on the transcript, however, remain a part of the student’s permanent academic record. Students will not be allowed to register for a course for which they have already received a passing grade.

Residence Requirement

Graduate students are required to complete one year of coursework at the Fort Worth or Houston campuses to fulfill the on-campus requirement of The Association of Theological Schools. To determine the residence requirement for a particular degree, divide the total number of hours required for the degree by the number of years the degree should take for completion. For the purpose of this rule all MA programs are considered 2 year programs; the MDiv is considered a 3 year program.

Undergraduate students must complete 32 hours at The College at Southwestern.

Seminary-Wide Literary Style

All graduate and undergraduate students from each of the schools of Southwestern Seminary are required to use The Southwestern Seminary Manual of Style as a guide to writing all required research papers, theses and dissertations. Professors will assist students in their understanding and utilization of this manual through their course assignments. Students should access the website here for important resources related to this manual. Students may also contact the Computer Learning Center and Writing Lab (x2771) for additional assistance.
Transcripts

Official copies of transcripts are issued at a cost of $5 each. Transcripts are issued only upon signed request of the student and when financial accounts, academic standing, and ethical conduct are in satisfactory condition. Transcript request forms are available on the seminary web site here.

Students can access and print unofficial copies of their Southwestern transcript through WebAdvisor for free.

Transfer Credit Policy

A transfer credit evaluation may be requested by applicants to the seminary by submitting the following items to the Admissions Office. Current students submit these items to the Office of the Registrar:

A. Completed Transcript Evaluation Request Form
B. Official copies of transcripts to be evaluated
C. Copy of catalog course descriptions of all work to be evaluated
D. Copy of catalog degree plan of graduate work to be evaluated

Please note: A $50 transfer credit posting fee will be paid by the student to the Office of the Registrar during the semester the credit is to be posted.

A person must be an applicant for general admission before requesting a transfer credit evaluation. Credit earned in accredited institutions may be considered for transfer credit in accordance with the provisions of the transfer credit policy stated below:

1. Graduate credit from institutions which are either accredited or candidates for accreditation by a regional accrediting commission, the Association of Theological Schools, the National Association of Schools of Music, or the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges may be considered for transfer credit to master’s degree and advanced degree programs. All advanced level degree transfers will be coordinated through the appropriate advanced study office.
2. Undergraduate credit from institutions described above may be considered for transfer credit to the bachelor's program. Non-accredited institutions with missions and/or educational philosophies consistent with Southwestern Seminary will be evaluated on an individual basis.
3. The minimum grade for transfer is “C”. Some degree programs require grades above a "C" for transfer.
4. The courses must have been substantially parallel to Southwestern courses as determined by the dean of the appropriate school or his designated representative.
5. The maximum amount of transfer credit for graduate students is half of the degree. For undergraduate students the limit is 75% of the degree.
6. The maximum amount of transfer credit allowable when students pursue two degrees is set forth in the ATS Standards for Accreditation section M.3.1. “Not more than half of the credits required for the other degree may be transferred into an ATS-approved degree program, and not more than half of the credits required by an ATS-approved degree may be granted on the basis of transfer credits.” Students working on two degrees simultaneously must complete all of the hours for the longer degree and half of the hours for the shorter degree. Only half of the subsequent or shorter degree may be common hours with the longer degree program.
7. Transfer credit from institutions outside the United States and Canada will be evaluated on an individual basis. A Credentials Evaluations report will be required of each student desiring such credit and will serve as a guide for transfer credit evaluation.
8. Since the final 15 hours of a degree program must be earned in residence, prior approval must be given by the Registrar's Office to transfer any course work within the last 15 hours. Students transferring credits to complete graduation requirements must submit official transcripts at least 60 days before commencement to the Office of the Registrar.

Withdrawing from Classes

A student may discontinue any class during the first half of the course and receive the grade of “W”. Withdrawal after this date will be recorded as failure, unless reasons of serious illness or similar emergency can be demonstrated. Petition forms may be obtained from the Office of the Registrar. If approved, the student will receive a grade of "W".

Students who withdraw may return under their original catalog if they have missed no more than two consecutive regular semesters (Fall and Spring). All other students will return under the requirements of the current catalog unless their absence was due to overseas missionary service. Advising offices in each school can provide details on special arrangements for missionaries.

Special Campus Centers and Programs of Study

The Center for Christian Communication Studies

The Center for Christian Communication Studies trains men and women for a ministry of communicating God's Word in a modern world. Students may seek a Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Christian Education, or Master of Music degree with a concentration in Communication Arts. Writing, Public Relations, Speech Communication, Drama, Radio/Television/Film, and Visual Arts are the fields of study which prepare the students to communicate more effectively in and through the local church, denominational agency, board, or institution.

The Center for Theological Research

The Center for Theological Research, directed by Dr. Malcolm Yarnell, seeks to promote evangelical and Baptist theology among Southern Baptists. The center accomplishes this task through special lectures, think tank sessions, and study programs. A number of special lectures, the first of which is the Day-Higginbotham Lectures series, are managed by the Center. The think tank sessions invite established scholars to participate in discussions concerning crucial theological topics, such as the challenge of open theism or the necessity of confessional theology. The first of the study programs, the Oxford Studies Program, offers students a chance to earn credit for classes taken while journeying through the British Isles. For information concerning the special lectures, the think-tank sessions, or the study programs, please contact the office of Dr. Yarnell at 817-923-1921, ext. 4495.

Continuing Education for Ministry

Southwestern Seminary offers two types of continuing educational opportunities. First, those who have completed a college or seminary degree, may, upon approval of their application, enroll in courses offered at the level of the degree they have completed. This applies to all courses, however, prerequisite requirements must be met when they exist. Courses may be taken for credit or as audit. All such work will be noted on a transcript from the Registrar’s Office. Persons interested in continuing education on the master’s level may want to consider a prescribed concentration of courses. Those who successfully complete a prescribed concentration, usually 12 hours, are eligible to receive a master’s certificate from the Seminary recognizing the accomplishment.

A second opportunity for continuing education is found among the many workshops, conferences, and seminars hosted or sponsored by the Seminary through The Center for Leadership Development. A full listing of these opportunities can be found on the Seminary website. Most of these workshops, conferences, and seminars are open to the public for a modest registration fee. In some cases, transcripted course credit is available for approved applicants upon completion of extra syllabus requirements.

Language/Culture Ministry Training Programs

In addition to its regular programs of study, the seminary has specialized programs that offer instruction in Spanish, German, and Korean. At both the undergraduate and graduate levels, Southwestern Seminary offers a series of courses in Spanish that culminate in the completion of a certificate in Hispanic Studies. Students may also complete these courses as they pursue a Master of Divinity or a Master of Arts in Christian Education, earning a concentration in Hispanic Studies. The seminary also has a joint Doctor of Ministry Program with the Baptist Seminary in Taejon, Korea and a Master of Arts in Theology program in Bonn, Germany. These and other programs demonstrate the seminary's commitment to train pastors and church leaders for the numerous socio-linguistic groups in this country and around the world.

The Scarborough Institute for Church Planting and Growth

The L. R. Scarborough Institute for Church Planting and Growth is dedicated to the task of equipping leaders who will grow theologically sound and culturally relevant churches in the twenty-first century. Founded in 1993, the Institute seeks to attain its goals by:
• Utilizing faculty scholars as a church growth think-tank and promoting church planting and church growth research.
• Involving students in summer, semester, and year-long church planting internships and also in International Mission Board, North American Mission Board and State Convention mentorships in such areas as: Church Starting, Church Growth, Multi-housing Ministries, Ministers of Missions, Prison Ministry, and Student Pastorates.
• Featuring church planting and church growth conferences.
• Coordinating the annual Spring Evangelism Practicum.
• Participating with the North American Mission Board in the Nehemiah Church Planting project.
• Supervising the Urban Evangelism Practicum.
• Providing demographic materials for student and faculty research.
• Participating in national and international research projects such as the Mission Atlas Project.

Oxford Study Program

Southwestern’s Oxford Summer Study Program is designed to give students the opportunity to earn master’s level course credit while studying in Oxford. Classes are taught by members of the seminary’s faculty.

Along with classroom study, the Oxford Program includes several on-site visits to historical venues throughout Great Britain. Travel is provided by chartered coach and includes stops at such places as the home of William Carey, Stratford-upon-Avon, London, Canterbury, and several cathedrals.

The cost of the program varies from year-to-year and includes all accommodations at Oxford, all meals while in England, tips, and fees to the Seminary. The Oxford Study Program is conducted under the auspices of the Center for Theological Research.

Further information about the Oxford Summer Study Program is available by contacting the program's director by email: oxford@swbts.edu or by mail: Dr. Malcolm Yarnell, Center for Theological Research, SWBTS, PO Box 22687, Fort Worth, TX 76122.

Traveling Scholar Program

The Traveling Scholar Office provides opportunities for students to enrich their educational experience through study tours and study courses in a variety of locations around the globe. The opportunities provided through the Traveling Scholar Office extend beyond the normal content delivery of a course by providing hands-on learning experiences in a variety of cross-cultural and historical settings that enhance the learning outcomes of courses offered at SWBTS.

Students are invited to join the adventure and expand their horizons through the multiple trips offered by the Traveling Scholar Office.
Overview of Traveling Scholar Opportunities

The Traveling Scholar Office provides two different travel opportunities:

- Study Tours: Study tours are specially created tours generally of 10 to 15 days in length that give students a wide variety of exposure to a broad area. These tours are typified by daily geographical touring in a region that includes the leadership of hired guides along with professorial instruction. These tours may be coordinated with classes taught on campus during the semester the tour is offered. The vast majority of opportunities provided through the Traveling Scholar Office will be in this category.

  In the 2006-2007 academic year, students will visit Turkey, North Africa, Israel, and Reformation Europe. Students can earn one credit hour for each of these trips. Students who take one trip per academic year would fulfill a three-hour elective in their schedule.

- Study Courses: Study courses are opportunities for more traditional classroom instruction while visiting a specific region. In general, these study courses will be of 2 to 4 weeks in length and classes will be held at a study center, college or university. These courses will meet in classroom sessions equivalent to the hours required for credit hours offered. While touring opportunities may be available during the study course, traditional lecture, research, and study will form the basis for these courses.

  In the 2006-2007 academic year, the Traveling Scholar Office is offering a unique opportunity to study archeology for five to six weeks at Tel Gezer in Israel. Students can also participate in the Oxford Program during the summer.

For more information on how you can be involved, contact the director of the Traveling Scholar Office, Dr. John M. Yeats at ext. 6830.
Student Life and Campus Services

Alumni Association

The Southwestern Alumni Association is a global extension of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary’s community of faith and learning. This extended community includes over 40,000 Southwesterners engaging in Christian ministry in every state of the nation and on various continents of the globe.

The Alumni Office seeks to encourage you in ministry, connect you with community and challenge you in your continued academic endeavors. The Alumni Association also raises financial support for a variety of scholarships, programs, institutional projects and special needs for current and future students.

Southwesterners hold alumni events annually in conjunction with state or regional Baptist convention meetings as well as class reunions and other special events. Our national alumni luncheon is held during the Southern Baptist Convention Annual Meeting.

Regular publications, e-mail bulletins, an Alumni Web page and periodic mailings are ways that the seminary continues its ministry to the alumni community. The Alumni Office keeps current biographical information on all former students, which is available for inquiries from individuals, churches, institutions and other organizations. The information which is provided is as follows: Degree Received, Former Places of Service, Spouse’s Name and Address.

To maintain accurate alumni contact information, alumni are asked to keep their information up to date by contacting the Alumni Office when changes to directory information need to be made. Former students may obtain, update or request withholding of directory information by notifying the Alumni Office in writing at: P.O. Box 22500, Fort Worth, Texas, 76122. The Alumni Office can also be reached by phone at (817) 923-1921 ext. 7200, or by e-mail at alumni@swbts.edu.

Awards

Awards are presented annually to students selected by the faculty on the basis of outstanding achievements in the various areas of study for which awards have been established.

General Awards

G. R. and Jessie Klempnauer Memorial Award. This honor is chosen by directors of the Student Services Division and is presented to a graduating student in any of the three schools, who shows outstanding involvement in a local church while attending seminary. Students may open the checking account with a minimum initial deposit of $50 at any Frost National Bank by presenting their student ID.

Calendaring

The seminary maintains a master calendar to facilitate special events and campus utilization. The Calendar Office is located on the first floor of the Student Center, room 107, phone extension 7290. The seminary's facilities are utilized not only for academic and administrative needs, but they are available to faculty, staff, students, alumni, and trustees for other functions. Southwestern also encourages Southern Baptist churches and agencies to utilize our campus facilities. Please contact the Calendar Office to receive more information on scheduling an event at Southwestern, or log on to our web site at http://happenings.swbts.edu

Chapel

Chapel services are conducted each day, Tuesday through Thursday, from 10:50 to 11:50 a.m. in Truett Auditorium. The period is designed as an opportunity for the entire seminary family to worship and rejoice together. Attendance is expected. CDs, audio cassettes, and video tapes of chapel messages are available from the Audio Visual Learning Center in Roberts Library.

Special Weeks and Lectures

Southwestern seeks to involve the seminary community in special emphases, programs, and lectures.

Northcutt Lectures

The Jesse and Fannie Northcutt Lectures on Preaching and Pastoral Ministries were established in 1976 by the board of trustees. They have been funded by gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Graham of New Braunfels, Texas, the Northcutts, and friends. Northcutt began his service at Southwestern Seminary in 1939 and was professor, dean, and vice president.

Day-Higginbotham Lectures

The Day-Higginbotham Lectures were established by an endowment fund in 1965 donated by Mrs. Edwin M. Reardon, III as a memorial to the late Paul Clanton Higginbotham and to Mr. and Mrs. Riley Day, Mrs. Reardon’s parents.

Huber L. Drumwright, Jr. Lectures in New Testament

These lectures were established in 1987 by Minette Williams Drumwright as a memorial to her late husband. Drumwright, a former pastor, served on the New Testament faculty at Southwestern for almost 30 years and was dean of the School of Theology for seven years. The Drumwright Lectures are a part of the Annual Pastors Conference.
Founder’s Day

The seminary was chartered on March 14, 1908. A special Founder’s Day address is delivered each year by a distinguished scholar. The B. H. Carroll Award, the highest recognition made by the Institutional Advancement Division, is presented on Founder’s Day at a special luncheon.

Convocation

The initial chapel of each semester unites new students with continuing students and faculty in an appearance of the entire seminary family before the Lord.

Church Music Workshop

An annual church music workshop is scheduled each spring semester with an outstanding visiting faculty, recitalists, and choral groups. Church musicians from all over the nation and students enrolled in the School of Church Music participate.

Baptist Religious Education Association of the Southwest

This organization meets on campus each fall and draws religious educators and students for a three-day conference which deals with current trends, philosophies, and techniques in religious education.

Pastors Conference

The annual Pastors Conference, conducted each fall, is sponsored by Southwestern’s Center for Leadership Development and the School of Theology. The Conference deals with contemporary ministries, Bible study, and practical issues of ministry.

Youth Ministry Lab

For over 25 years, Southwestern has sponsored a national conference for ministers and laypersons who work with students. The conference is planned and led by seminary students.

Local Church Membership Requirement

The purpose of Southwestern is to provide theological education for individuals engaging in Christian ministry. The role of the local church is important in this training and nurturing endeavor. Each student is required annually to furnish a certification of church membership. Special instructions regarding local church membership are below:

1. If a student is a Southern Baptist and a member of a non-Southern Baptist church, he or she will be required to pay non-Southern Baptist fees.
2. If a student wishes to change his or her denomination to Southern Baptist in order to receive the Southern Baptist Cooperative Program Scholarship, he or she must meet the following conditions:
   1. Demonstrate a desire to serve in a Southern Baptist church after graduation.
   2. After becoming a Southern Baptist church member, the student must initiate the change of denomination process by requesting and completing a change of denomination form from the Office of the Registrar. Fees for the semester are based upon the denomination of record at the time of registration.

Any questions regarding local church membership should be directed to the Office of the Registrar.

Computer Access Requirement

All seminary students are expected to have regular access to a personal computer and an Internet provider. Students must be able to write, format and transfer documents in Microsoft Word format. The Seminary strongly encourages students to obtain Windows XP and Office 2003 (and/or the most recent updates) for their personal use. Any computer a student uses for class work or seminary business must use an antivirus program that has the most recent program and virus definition updates in effect. The Seminary recommends industry standard antivirus programs such as Norton or McAfee antivirus software that can be purchased for a nominal fee at most computer and electronic retail outlets or ordered from retail software vendor websites on the Internet.
Seminary sponsored e-mail addresses will be assigned to each student, which the student must check frequently. This e-mail address will be used to communicate official business on behalf of faculty and administration to each student.

Copy Center

The seminary provides copy services to students, faculty, and staff. The Copy Center is located in the Naylor Student Center and may be contacted at 817-923-1921 ext. 2679 (COPY).

The Baptist Marriage and Family Counseling Center

For students and their families who have need of counseling, the Baptist Marriage and Family Counseling Center, housed in the Walsh Counseling Center, offers help in individual, group, couple, and family therapy settings. There is no charge to students or their family members for this counseling in a positive Christian context. The seminary’s provision of this counseling center recognizes the many needs in our society for personal growth, help in decision-making, counseling for marriage and family relationships, sexual dysfunction, and stress management. Interested individuals should contact the Baptist Marriage and Family Counseling Center. Counseling is under the direction of Approved Supervisors of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, Professional Counselors, Marriage and Family Therapists, Psychologists, and Approved Supervisors who are duly licensed by the respective Texas State Board of Examiners for the granting and maintenance of these professional credentials.

Dining Services

Southwestern provides all food service needs for our students, faculty, staff and visiting guests through our internal Dining Services Department. Meals are provided daily in the Southwestern Dining Room and Wild Bill's Cafe, our theme cafe which serves gourmet coffees, homemade breakfast, fresh sandwiches, Blue Bell ice cream and other specialty items. Hours of operation and specific menu information are available by calling 817-923-1921 extension 2233 (CAFE). Dining Services also coordinates all catering events for the campus with a wide selection of food choices. For more information about services and catering options, please call Southwestern Dining Services at 817-923-1921 extension 2230.

Employment

Campus Employment

Opportunities for campus employment are available in many areas including:

- secretary/clerical
- shipping/receiving, purchasing
- skilled crafts: plumbing, carpentry, electrical, heating/air conditioning, appliance repair, auto mechanic
- grounds
- custodial
- general labor

Applications for employment are received in the Personnel Office by mail or in person. The Personnel Office is located in Scarborough Hall 111. Placement is made on the basis of skills and job availability at the time of arrival. Information may be obtained by writing to the Office of Personnel Services, P.O. Box 22480, Fort Worth, Texas 76122, or by calling (817) 923-1921, ext. 6209.

Secular Employment

Numerous job opportunities are presented through the Church Minister Relations Office for students and student spouses. A job placement board listing these job opportunities is located in the hallway outside of Fleming Hall 108 and on the seminary web site at joblist.

Ministry Positions

The Office of Church Minister Relations, located in Naylor Student Center 112/113, seeks to assist students, graduates, and alumni in finding opportunities for ministry. The Church/Minister Relations Office provides information regarding available positions and information on relating to search committees. The seminary recognizes the following:
1. God's leadership is primary in the calling of ministers.
2. Each individual is responsible for securing opportunities for ministry, whether in a volunteer or staff position.
3. The local churches have the initiative in seeking a minister, with the seminary providing helpful information as requested.

Students desiring assistance in finding a ministry position should consult the Church Minister Relations office for information regarding the process and to establish a placement information file.

Resumes will be shared with SBC affiliated churches, institutions, and agencies (via email) upon their request. Interviews may be arranged by direct contact of the church with the candidate or through the office. Non-SBC opportunities will be posted on bulletin boards in the Student Center, Fleming Hall, and on the seminary web site joblist.

Hundreds of Southern Baptist churches are located within driving distance of the seminary. The Church Minister Relations Office makes every effort to help these churches and Southwestern students join together in a fruitful ministry. Numerous summer ministry opportunities are available through the service of this office. In addition, several thousand requests are received each year from churches across the United States who want to connect with available graduating students and alumni.

The Office of Church Minister Relations has as its primary objective to bring together people who, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, determine that a relationship will be profitable to the work of the local church or the denominational agency and God's kingdom.

Ethical Conduct

General Information

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and its subsidiary the College at Southwestern are Christian institutions whose primary purpose is to conduct a program of undergraduate and graduate theological education designed to equip both men and women for effective Christian leadership in church-related ministries and other areas where theological training is necessary.

1. It is required that students preparing for Christian ministry and admitted into this institution will conduct themselves in a manner deemed by the institution as conduct becoming of a Southern Baptist minister.
2. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and the College at Southwestern are educational institutions committed to a high standard of academic integrity. As such, any student who submits work as part of the requirements for a course thereby asserts that the student personally has done that work and that it has not been submitted for credit in any other course without permission. Unless credit is explicitly given to sources, the student is asserting that the words and/or the thoughts are the student's own original work. Falling short of these standards is academic dishonesty. Students should refer to the full discussion on plagiarism located in the appendix of The Southwestern Seminary Manual of Style.
3. The institution may take disciplinary action should any ethical standard of an academic and/or personal nature be violated. In the case of academic dishonesty (see item 2 above) breaches of this standard will result in the failure of the assignment along with further possible disciplinary measures as outlined below. The institution recognizes a professor’s authority to undertake disciplinary actions concerning any of his students in the context of his classroom. Generally, violations of the institution's ethical conduct policy include, but are not limited to:
   1. Academic dishonesty, including cheating, submitting without approval work originally prepared by the student for another course, and plagiarism, which is essentially submitting as one's own work material prepared in whole or in part by another person while failing to give proper credit on papers for sources used.
   2. Use or possession of beverage alcohol or illegal drugs;
   3. The use of tobacco products;
   4. Heterosexual misconduct, homosexual behavior, or any other form of sexual misconduct.
   5. Giving false statements to the institution orally or in writing including, but not limited to, one's application for admission or registration, or the altering of records;
   6. Financial irresponsibility;
   7. Fighting; abusive or vulgar language;
   8. Theft of institutional or personal property;
   9. Violation of the institution’s academic regulations and policies;
   10. Neglect, disregard, or breach of established institutional policies that govern the use of any property or facility.
   11. Behavior, verbal, physical, or emotional, which is demeaning, harassing, or abusive of another person; and behavior that is profane or vulgar.
   12. Disrespect or abuse directed toward any faculty member, school administrator, or staff person.
   13. Students and their families are expected to dress in modest attire. The institution’s position is that immodest clothing damages one’s Christian testimony, so clothes such as short skirts, shorts, and tank tops are not appropriate. Hats, caps, and short shorts are not allowed in class or in chapel. Ear jewelry is prohibited for men and other body piercings are prohibited for both males and females.

14. Members of the opposite sex who are not married may not be alone together in campus housing. Members of the opposite sex may visit each other in their apartments between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 11 p.m. Sunday through Thursday, and between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 12:00 a.m. Friday through Saturday, provided there are at least three people in the apartment at all times and no apartment mates object.

4. Students involved in a criminal or civil infraction are accountable to civil authorities but may also be subject to discipline by the institution. Neither Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary nor the College at Southwestern will be bound to or limited by civil authority actions.

5. It is the intent of student discipline, in keeping with Galatians 6:1-2, to exercise genuine Christian concern in dealings with students and create occasions for learning, personal growth, and professional development. The welfare of the student, of the seminary community, and of the churches is the primary concern.

6. In the attempt to make this a truly responsible and redemptive community, it is expected that students, faculty, administration, and staff will jointly accept the responsibility of reporting such actions as may be unacceptable, unethical, or detrimental to a Christian academic community or to the ministries that they serve. All apparent violations of the ethical conduct policies are to be reported to the Vice President for Student Services for timely investigation and such action as may be necessary.

Organization

1. Most disciplinary action will be handled by the Vice President for Student Services or a school official that he appoints.

2. Upon the discretion of the Vice President for Student Services, an Ethical Conduct Committee may be assembled. The Ethical Conduct Committee will be comprised of the Vice President for Student Services as chairman; the academic dean or a faculty representative of the school in which the student is registered; the Registrar or administrative representative; and as ex officio the General Counsel. On a case by case basis any other seminary or college faculty or staff member may be appointed by the committee chairman to serve as well. This committee will hear the evidence and present a recommendation to the Vice President for Student Services.

3. The Vice President for Student Services or an appointed school official will then decide whether or not the student has been in violation of regulations or standards of ethical conduct; or whether or not the student has conducted himself/herself in any way contrary to the standards and references set forth by the institution including, but not limited to, those set forth in the Catalog.

4. The Vice President for Student Services or an appointed school official will notify the student of the decision.

5. The Vice President for Student Services, the Executive Vice President and the President of the institution have full authority to handle disciplinary matters, as they deem necessary.

Ethical Conduct Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary actions include, but are not limited to:

1. Reprimand and disciplinary probation;
2. Reprimand, disciplinary probation, and loss of credit in course or courses where dishonest work was done;
3. Temporary suspension with time and terms of re-admission indicated;
4. Indefinite suspension with time and terms of re-admission not indicated;
5. Permanent dismissal; and
6. Any of the above may be noted on the student's transcript and may be removed at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Services, the Executive Vice President, or the President of the institution.

Mental/Emotional Health

The Vice President for Student Services or an appointed school official that he appoints will also deal with students who exhibit abnormal mental or emotional health. Actions may include, but are not limited to:

1. Counseling from an approved counselor;
2. Temporary suspension with time and terms of re-admission indicated;
3. Permanent suspension

Appeals Process

If a student wishes to appeal a decision of the Vice President for Student Services or an appointed school official he/she may do so by asking the Executive Vice President and Provost to review the matter first. In such a case the Executive Vice President and Provost has the prerogative to deny a hearing of the appeal, or hear the appeal and uphold the decisions of the Vice President for Sexual Harassment Policy

Southwestern Seminary exists to provide theological education for individuals engaging in Christian ministry and seeks to be a community of faith and learning that develops spiritual leaders with a passion for Christ and the Bible, a love for people and the skills to minister effectively in a rapidly changing world. It is our desire, therefore to provide a place for spiritual growth, work and study, free of all forms of sexual intimidation and exploitation. Students, faculty and staff should understand that the Seminary will not tolerate such activity and those individuals who engage in such behavior will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Sexual harassment may be defined as, but not limited to, unwelcome or offensive sexual advances, requests for sexual impropriety, unwanted or uninvited verbal suggestions or comments of a sexual nature, or objectionable physical contact. Suggestions that academic or employment admonishments or rewards will follow the refusal or acceptance of sexual advances, or actions that unreasonably impede with an individual’s work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, constitute a violation of the Seminary’s ethical standards and will not be tolerated. Whenever such harassment is demonstrated and reported, the Seminary will take the necessary corrective actions, as well as measures to protect the reporting employee, and prevent further harassment.

Sexual harassment should be reported directly to the Vice President of Business Administration who will investigate and work for resolution. In order for a complaint to be processed, the complaint must be filed within 120 days of the alleged unlawful discriminatory action or sexual harassment, or within 120 days of the complainant learning of the discriminatory action or sexual harassment. Accusations that are proven to be false and made with malicious intent will also be treated with the same level of severity.

Weapons Policy

The possession or use of firearms or other weapons on seminary premises by any employee, student, vendor, or other visitor is strictly prohibited. Any exception to this policy must be authorized in advance by the President.

Child Endangerment and Abandonment

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary supports state law regarding Child Protective Services guidelines. These guidelines state that a parent/guardian is legally responsible for the welfare and protection of a child up to the age of 18. Children under seven years of age are considered especially vulnerable.

Children should not be left unattended or placed in any situation which might cause harm or injury to a child. Children should be under adult supervision at all times in seminary housing, buildings, and facilities.

Drug Policy

Illegal Drug/Controlled Substance Information Sheet provided as required by the Drug Free School and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (Public Law 101-226).

Drug Abuse Policy and Penalties

Students enrolled in Southwestern are subject to disciplinary action for the possession, manufacture, use, sale, or distribution (by either sale or gift) of any quantity of any prescription drug or controlled substance or for being under the influence of any prescription drug or controlled substance, except for the use of medication in accordance with the instructions of a licensed physician. Controlled substances include, but are not limited to, marijuana, cocaine, cocaine derivatives, heroin, amphetamines, barbiturates, LSD, PCP, and substances typically known as “designer drugs” such as “ecstasy” or “eve.” Possession of paraphernalia associated with the use, possession or manufacture of a prescription drug or controlled substance is also prohibited.

The seminary prohibits the unlawful possession, use, manufacture, or distribution of illicit drugs by employees. The penalty for violation of the seminary’s policy on drug and alcohol abuse may range from a reprimand to suspension without pay for an appropriate period or termination of employment. Additional local, state, and federal penalties are listed in the chart below. The effects of drug and alcohol abuse are also listed in the chart below. In addition to sanctions imposed by Southwestern for violation of the Drug Policy, a student may be subject to regulations of civil authorities. Various local, state and federal regulations prohibit the illegal use, possession, and distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol. The Seminary reserves the right to refer students to court authorities for any behavior that is in violation of the law.

Drug Abuse Counseling

Southwestern is not equipped to offer drug or alcohol rehabilitation programs. Students or employees should contact the Walsh Counseling Center, located at 4540 Frazier Ave., 817-921-8790, for information and referral to a program available in the area.

Grievance Procedure

Preface

Seminary policy grants to the administration and faculty of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary the authority to develop and administer the processes for study and other issues related to student life at the Fort Worth campus and other campuses established for academic pursuits. Students are expected to conform to expectations and standards of performance and conduct. The same polity that establishes the governance of academic and administrative affairs, however, allows the student the opportunity to seek recourse from what they consider unfair or unjust evaluation or process. In the case of doctoral students, grievance procedures and decisions are established and administered by each doctoral committee.

Before completing the following application for grievance for redress, the student should:

1. Review documents that address the situation - syllabi, policies and procedures, etc.
2. Prayerfully consider the validity of the grievance.
3. In keeping with Matthew 18, discuss the issue with the professor or administrator involved.
4. If the issue cannot be resolved at this level, then the student should follow the Student Grievance Process as described below.

It is the policy of the seminary to evaluate seriously student grievances and either resolve the problems brought by the student or make appropriate recommendations to the appropriate office for such resolution. Procedures are established below for addressing student grievances in academic issues, administrative issues relating to process or procedures, and ethical conduct issues.

The grievance process described below begins with the completion of a student-initiated application for review Student Grievance Form. It is the responsibility of the administrative assistant/associate in the appropriate school or division of the seminary to coordinate the process for grievance including the scheduling of meetings.

Section I

For Grievances of Academic Issues Related to Grades and Course Information

The seminary specifically assigns to the individual faculty member responsibility for establishing grade criteria and the subsequent assignment of grades upon evaluation of student work.

(Matters related to drop and add and absences are dealt with by petition through the Registrar's Office.)

1. The student completes, signs, and delivers the Student Grievance form to the Dean's Office.
2. The administrative assistant will forward the form to a Grievance Committee comprised of persons appointed by the dean. The student may recommend to the dean a seminary student or faculty member to serve on the committee.
3. A member of the Grievance Committee will meet with the student and professor(s) involved and attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
4. The Grievance Committee will meet with the student and professor(s) involved and attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
5. If the issue cannot be resolved by the Grievance Committee, then that committee will forward the matter (with documentation) to the dean of the school.
6. The dean of the school will meet with the student and the applicable professor(s) and make a final decision with regard to the school.
7. The administrative assistant to the dean of the school will file a record of the transactions and information developed.
8. In the event the student files a grievance with the Academic Council after the process described above, the report of the Grievance Committee and final disposition by the dean of the school will be the only official documents provided to the Academic Council. The decision of the Academic Council is final.

Section II

For Grievances of Administrative Issues Related to Faculty Conduct, Performance, Attitude, and Course Content

1. The student completes, signs, and delivers the Student Grievance form to the Dean's Office.
2. If the issue cannot be resolved by the student, faculty member, and dean, the matter may be taken to the Executive Vice President and Provost.
3. The administrative assistant to the dean of the school will file a record of the transactions and information developed. If the matter cannot be resolved by the student, faculty member, dean, and Executive Vice President and Provost, the matter may be taken to the President.

Section III

For Grievances of Administrative Issues Related to Support Services

1. The student completes, signs, and delivers the Student Grievance form to the Dean's Office.
2. The administrative assistant will forward the form to a Grievance Committee comprised of persons appointed by the dean. The student may recommend to the dean a seminary student or faculty member to serve on the committee.
3. A member of the Grievance Committee will meet with the student and professor(s) or administrator(s) involved and attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
4. The Grievance Committee will meet with the student and professor(s) involved and attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
5. If the issue cannot be resolved by the Grievance Committee, then they will forward to the vice president for the division a recommendation for resolution.
6. The vice president will meet with the student and the applicable professor(s) or administrator(s) and make a final decision with regard to the division.
7. The administrative associate to the appropriate vice president will file a record of the transactions and information developed.
8. In the event the student files a grievance with the President's Cabinet after the process described above, the report of the Grievance Committee and the vice president’s final disposition will be the only official documents provided the President’s Cabinet. The decision of the President’s Cabinet is final.

Guest Housing

44 guest rooms are offered for use by guests of the Southwestern family, 32 in the Leadership Development Complex, six in Fort Worth Hall, and six in Barnard Hall. These rooms are available to the Seminary Family (including students, faculty, staff, their families and guests), Alumni, Trustees, members of SBC churches, conference attendees, and those having official business on campus. Rooms are not available to the general public. Reservations, payments, and checking in and out must be handled at the Guest Housing Office located in the Ray I. Riley Alumni Center. You may contact them in the following ways:

Health Services

Seminary Health Program

The Seminary provides health services through our on campus clinic, located at 4501 Stanley Ave. The campus clinic is staffed with one physician and two registered nurses who will provide general family practice and minor urgent care. The clinic serves faculty, staff, students, dependents and campus guests at reduced fees. Patient hours are M, F – 8:30 am – 11:30 am; 1:00 pm – 4:30 pm and T, W, TH – 8:30 am – 10:30 am; 1:00 pm – 4:30 pm. For more information or to schedule an appointment please call 817-921-8880, or ext. 8880 from campus (this phone will not be monitored until August 14, 2006).

The seminary has also arranged for health services with Care Now, located at 7400 McCart Avenue for evening and weekend needs when the campus clinic is closed. Care Now also provides general family practice and minor emergency care. A $15.00 fee is charged per office visit.

Prescription Drug Benefit Program

This program will allow you to receive discounted drugs from a number of different drug stores and chains such as Albertsons Food and Drug, Eckerd, Wal-Mart, etc. The discounted drug program is available without any enrollment cost to the student. The student becomes eligible at the time of enrollment in the seminary. This program also includes any dependents of the student.
addition, there is a mail-in portion of the drug program which will allow for deeper discounting. It is designed for individuals on maintenance drugs and offers a 90-day supply per order.

Health Insurance

All students are encouraged to carry some type of health coverage for themselves and their families. The seminary does not furnish health insurance for the student or his/her family and is not responsible for providing health care or financial support for health care bills.

The Office of the Director of Student Life, Fleming Hall 103, seminary extension 7360, will provide information about insurance that is offered through GuideStone Financial Resources. Representatives from GuideStone Financial Resources are on campus during the week of orientation and registration. GuideStone Financial Resources offers a number of medical plans to students.

Students are not limited to health insurance coverage by GuideStone Financial Resources and may choose a private agency or may be covered by an employer while attending seminary.

Student Housing

Housing is available for approved and enrolled students. Once the application for admission to the school has been approved, individuals may apply for housing. Prospective residents are encouraged to apply early.

Housing applications, accompanied by the required deposit ($150.00 for all housing), should be sent to the Business Office, P.O. Box 22480, Fort Worth, TX 76122-0480. Occupancy in all housing is restricted to students enrolled for a minimum of 6 hours of classroom credit (excluding Internet credit) per semester (spring and fall) and paying a student service fee. A combination of classroom credit hours and Internet credit hours may not be used to meet the per hour semester requirement. The credit hours must be toward an approved Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary degree, The College at Southwestern degree, or diploma program. To maintain occupancy, tenants must pay rent on or before the first day of each month. A late fee will be assessed on the 10th day of each month if the rent is not paid by 4:00 p.m. that day. The maximum number of years a student may receive housing services while working on a basic degree or diploma program is seven. Only individuals enrolled in an advanced degree program will be eligible to stay in student housing beyond the seven years. Students occupying any student housing must be in good academic and financial standing with the seminary. All students living in student housing are subject to the school’s ethical conduct policy.

The seminary provides over 750 housing units. Included are one-, two-, and three-bedroom apartments, duplexes, and houses, both furnished and unfurnished. There are also residence halls with accommodations for single men and women. See the Residence Halls section for additional information. No pets are allowed in any student housing.

Mobile Home Park

The mobile home park is closing July 2010. A mobile home park, located two blocks from the main campus, contains a limited number of mobile homes that may be purchased from the current student owners. Occupants of a mobile home in the park are subject to the housing lease.

Residence Halls

Residence halls for single men and women are located on the main campus, providing single, double, and multiple accommodations. Rooms are furnished with a twin bed, desk, chair, dresser, and bookcase for each resident. All other items must be supplied by the resident. Local telephone dial-tone service is provided in each room.

ID Cards
All students are required to secure and carry a picture I.D. card. Incoming students are issued a student I.D. card i.e.; The Southwestern Gold Card, during student orientation/registration periods. To obtain an I.D. go to the Gold Card Office in the Naylor Student Center room 106. Dress for the photograph is business casual. To report a lost or stolen I.D. during business hours, contact the Gold Card Office at ext. 2105. Should you loose your card after business hours, contact the Security office at ext. 3370.

Information Changes. During registration and throughout the semester, any change in a student’s address, employment, marital status, number of children, or other pertinent data should be reported to the Office of the Registrar. Students may update their address through WebAdvisor.

International Student Services

Compliance with Immigration Regulations
International students at Southwestern Seminary are expected to be aware of and in compliance with all federal immigration regulations applicable to them. Southwestern does not admit students who are currently out of status with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services formerly known U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. International students must contact the International Student Office to comply with the proper admissions procedures for internationals. International students are allowed to attend only the Fort Worth campus. New International students begin only during the fall or spring semesters.

Alien Registration Receipt Card
All resident alien applicants must provide a copy of their Alien Registration Receipt Card I-551 (green card) with the application.

Employment Authorization Document (EAD)
Applicants with an R-1 status for religious work must furnish a copy of the EAD with the application.

Statement of Financial Support
The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services formerly known as U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service requires that a student on an F-1 visa provide evidence of adequate financial support during the duration of status as a student.

Written Communication Course
A Written Communication Course is now required for all students for whom English is a second language and English speakers who do not come to seminary with the requisite number of college level English courses. This course will be a two-hour course and will be required during the student's first semester. Academic credit will be given for both master's and undergraduate levels, but cannot be used as an elective in your chosen degree program.

International Office
International students needing additional information or assistance may contact the Director for International Students in the Student Services Division. The telephone number is (817) 923-1921, ext. 3970 or you may email us at iss@swbts.edu.
LifeWay Campus Store

The LifeWay Campus Store on the campus of Southwestern is one of the largest theological bookstores in the nation. This store offers a complete line of theological, educational and music books, textbooks, gift items, Bibles, supplies, Southwestern logo items such as apparel, mugs and pens, and other materials for the convenience of students and the local community. Mail order service is available for customers needing items shipped. Hours of operation are Monday to Saturday, 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., except for Wednesday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The store is closed on Sundays. Telephone (817) 923-4901.

Parking

Parking regulations and decals are issued to each student or employee with a vehicle at the time of registration or employment. All vehicles parking in a manner that violates current parking regulations are subject to a citation. Parking regulations are also available on the SWBTS web site, in the Cashier’s Office, or by calling (817) 923-1921, extension 7275 (PARK).

Personal Appearance Policy

In the environment of deteriorating moral and social codes in the world of today, it is even more important that students training to be Christian leaders hold high the principles of Christian morality, conduct, and dress.

STUDENTS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO WEAR SHORTS OF ANY STYLE OR HATS IN CLASSROOMS OR CHAPEL.

Students are guided on this campus by the principles of the Christian gospel. Visitors to the campus should be able to see in seminary students the inward and outward qualities that identify them as ministers of that gospel.

Post Office

A contract station of the United States Postal Service is located on the main floor of the Student Center. Post Office boxes are available to students, faculty, and staff. Post Office boxes must be secured by residence hall tenants for delivery of mail. Boxes will be rented only after a student's admission is approved. Telephone (817) 923-1921 ext. 2890.

Seminary Publications

The Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary Catalog is an annual publication and is the official academic publication of the seminary. Academic regulations are outlined in the annual Catalog. The Catalog is available on the seminary's web site at www.swbts.edu or will be mailed to those individuals who request it in an interactive compact disc format. In rare situations, printed copies of certain limited sections of the catalog may be mailed.

Southwestern News is the official alumni relations magazine of the seminary and is published four times a year. It is distributed free to all students, parents of students, alumni and friends of the seminary. It is also available by request.

The Southwestern Journal of Theology is published each semester by the faculty of the School of Theology. It is a scholarly presentation with articles on current theological issues and perspectives and includes book reviews by faculty members. A subscription is required of all theology students and is included in the registration fees. It is also available at the end of registration to music and educational ministries students who may need it in their theology classes.

The Scroll is the campus newsletter distributed to the students, faculty and staff and is the official internal communication tool of the seminary family.

Security

Each fall, Campus Security prepares an annual crime report detailing significant crimes taking place on or adjacent to our campus properties. This report provides statistics, as well as information on efforts by the Seminary to prevent crime and how reports of crime are handled. Click to view the latest report.

Seminary security personnel are available by calling (817) 923-1921, extension 2290. Security officers patrol seminary property 24 hours a day.
Campus Picnics

Annual picnics are for the entire seminary family including the families of students, faculty, and staff. These picnics are times of fun and fellowship and are enjoyed by all.

Student Email

At the time of matriculation each student is provided a student email account. This email account is the official means of communication with Southwestern students. Items sent to these accounts include notification of assigned registration times, announcements of campus events, and correspondence from professors. Students are not permitted to forward student email to other email accounts due to technological difficulties that can hinder the reception of student email through those accounts.

Student Life at Southwestern

Student life at Southwestern Seminary is a quest in study and worship, in intellectual and spiritual growth, in stimulating conversation, in meaningful contact with a world in need, and in Christian ministry.

Students come from almost every state of the nation and from many countries around the world making the campus an international center. Their backgrounds include studies in more than 600 colleges and universities. Varied activities are offered each semester for married and single students. The student organizations on campus host numerous fellowships and other activities to enhance the seminary experience. A full slate of recreational and other activities are sponsored through the Recreation and Aerobics Center as well.

Since Southwestern is a graduate institution whose goal is to prepare individuals for vocational Christian ministry, students devote much of their “free time” in pursuit of their calling through involvement in local churches.

The seminary community provides opportunities for meaningful fellowship, enhancement of personal and family relationships and personal renewal. The Student Services staff is always available to assist students and their families.

Student Organizations

There are many student organizations in which students and their spouses can participate. These organizations are designed to help the student in the quest for a broader and more effective ministry and to enhance the seminary experience.

Each student is automatically a member of one of the three charter organizations (Theological Fellowship, the Student Association of Educational Ministries, or Zimrah) depending on the school in which the student is enrolled.

There are also professional organizations which exist to support a curriculum emphasis and social organizations which exist for the primary purpose of fellowship and ministry.

All organizations exist: 1) to supplement positive pursuits; 2) to provide wholesome recreational and social opportunities; 3) to bring a spirit of unity and harmony within the student body; and 4) to enhance the "sense of community."

The presidents of all organizations serve on the Student Coordinating Council which meets once each semester with administrative leaders to share input about planned activities and to provide input about campus policies and services. The council is led by the Director for Student Life.

Vehicle Registration

Students must maintain current parking permits on all of their vehicles. Students and all members of the household are responsible for compliance with the parking regulations. Parking regulations are available at the time of registration or during the semester from the Cashier’s Office and are also posted on the seminary’s website. Students may also call the parking information line at (817) 923-1921, ext. 7275 (PARK). Changes to vehicle information can be made at the Cashier’s Office in S-103.
Course Descriptions

Course Numbering

The letter prefix of a course differentiates College from Seminary courses. College courses have three letter prefixes (IDE); Seminary courses have five letter prefixes (SYSTH).

The four numbers after the letter prefix indicate the course level and designate the particular course.

1000-1999  Freshman courses
2000-2999  Sophomore courses
3000-3999  Junior courses
4000-4999  Senior Courses

3000-5000  Master’s degree courses
            6000  Professional Doctoral seminars
7000-8000  Research Doctoral seminars

ThM courses in the School of Theology are listed in parentheses beside the standard course number. These courses fall in the 3000-5000 range and typically end with a 4.

The study and application of the principles of biblical disciple-making. This course includes the preparation, observation, participation, and application of disciple-making skills. It involves the teaching of disciple-making skills in the classroom and the application of disciple-making skills through one-on-one disciple-making of a new or recent believer. During the fourteen weeks of the semester the student will be equipped to become an experienced one-on-one disciple-maker. Students will be prepared through classroom presentation, video training sessions by some of the most experienced disciple-makers in the Christian community, and will include the utilization of a step-by-step disciple-equipping guide. At the same time students will practice what they learn through actual one-on-one discipling of a new or recent believer. All students will complete a covenant with God to: • Have a daily quiet time with the Lord Jesus Christ each morning. • Pray each morning for the opportunity to share their faith. • Prepare to befriend and personally disciple a new or recent believer. • Pray for guidance as they prepare for a lifestyle of personal witnessing and disciple-making. Students will work with a local church to complete the requirements of this practicum. This course and training will not only prepare students to help new believers and church members grow spiritually, it will also equip them for a lifetime of effective and rewarding personal disciple-making ministry. Prerequisites: SPFTH 3101, SPFTH 3111, and EVANG 3303.

APLMN 4021 Applied Ministry Mentoring / Ausbildung im Dienst (Praktikum)
Allows students to learn from actual hands-on ministry experience under the mentorship of a qualified individual. This course is similar in theory to the student teaching experience required for public school teachers or the medical internship required for physicians. Students are required to spend 22 hours in ministry as well as 7 hours of mentorship and 14 hours of peer mentoring for every hour of credit. Students will maintain a journal of the ministry experience. Every student enrolling is required to have a mentor who evaluates the student’s progress in personal and ministry development. The mentor meets with the student in a bi-weekly, one-hour mentoring session throughout the semester. Each student is responsible for securing his or her own mentor before the beginning of the semester. In cases where the student does not have a mentor, the Applied Ministry Office will provide the student a list of approved mentors from which the student may choose. The mentor must have completed the mentor training provided by the seminary’s Applied Ministry Office. All students meet in peer mentoring groups weekly on campus. The place and type of ministry should enhance the student’s plan for ministry after graduation. Models for the mentoring experience may vary according to the student’s place of ministry and his or her own needs. The local church is the primary setting for the mentoring experience. However, the Applied Ministry Office may approve other settings such as counseling centers, hospitals, denominational facilities, etc. Each student is required to spend an average of at least 1.5 hours per week performing ministry under the guidance of the mentor. There is also a textbook for the course that must be completed before a grade is assigned. Prerequisites: SPFTH 3101, SPFTH 3111, and EVANG 3303.
